Assembling Archaeology Hannah Cobb, Karina Croucher, 2020-04-22 Assembling Archaeology provides a radical rethinking of the relationships between teaching researching digging and practicing as an archaeologist in the 21st century The issues addressed here are global and applicable wherever archaeology is taught practiced and researched At its heart this book addresses the undervaluation of teaching demonstrating that this affects the fundamentals of contemporary archaeological practice and is particularly connected to the lack of diversity in disciplinary demographics It proposes a solution which is grounded in a theoretical rethinking of archaeological teaching training and practice by advocating a holistic assemblage approach which challenges traditional power structures and the global marketization of the higher education system Drawing on insights from archaeology's current material turn this book approaches the discipline as a subject of investigation and offers a new perspective founded upon the notion of the learning assemblage which resituates teaching and learning as a central focus and contributes to broader discourses on critical pedagogy and rhizomatic learning It ultimately argues for a robust archaeological pedagogy that is rooted in and emergent from the material realities of the profession and will be valuable to everyone from academia to Cultural Resource Management CRM heritage professional to undergraduate student

Overrepresentation of Immigrants in Special Education / Die Überrepräsentation von MigrantInnen in der Sonderpädagogik Seyda Subasi Singh, 2020 Dieses Buch diskutiert die Überrepräsentation von SchülerInnen mit Migrationshintergrund mit sonderpädagogischem Förderbedarf wobei in der Studie SchülerInnen mit türkischem Hintergrund im Mittelpunkt stehen Es wird versucht Raum für die Zusammenführung von Erfahrungen aus erster Hand zu schaffen um die Komplexität des Überweisungsprozesses anzugehen und ein Verständnis zu entwickeln das über die Vereinfachung und lineare Erklärungen für die Überrepräsentation von SchülerInnen mit Migrationshintergrund in nicht vielversprechenden Schulen hinausgeht This book discusses the overrepresented referral of students from a migrant background to special education by concentrating on the case of students from a Turkish background in Austria It attempts to open space for bringing first hand experiences together to address the complexity of the referral process and to develop an understanding that goes beyond oversimplification and linear explanations for the overrepresentation of students from a migrant background in lowpromising schools

The Relational Ethics of Narrative Inquiry D. Jean Clandinin, Vera Caine, Sean Lessard, 2018-03-15 Narrative inquiry is based on the proposition that experience is the stories lived and told by individuals as they are embedded within cultural social institutional familial political and linguistic narratives It represents the phenomenon of experience but also constitutes a methodology for its study At the heart of this methodology is relational ethics However until now the functioning of this key relationship in practice has remained largely undefined In this book the authors take on the essential task of developing a conceptual framework for the application of relational ethics to narrative inquiry Building on a corpus of more generalized research this book is grounded in a multi year study with indigenous youth and families The authors describe their experiences of narrative inquiry highlighting how relational ethics informed their negotiation of these research relationships They also engage in a conversation with the work of philosophers who have guided their narrative inquiry to offer a more thorough understanding of relational ethics Through this and contributions from five further studies on a diverse range of subjects a number of key points for successful relational ethics are isolated and expounded upon This book is an invaluable tool for researchers and postgraduates engaged in qualitative research providing clear and practical guidance on ethical concerns It also extends the work of the authors two previous titles

Engaging in Narrative Inquiry and Engaging in Narrative Inquiries with Children and Youth Inclusive Primary Teaching Janet Goepel, Helen Childerhouse, Sheila Sharpe, 2025-02-28 This is an invaluable and fully updated text on inclusive practice for all primary trainees and teachers and for those working towards the National Award SEN Co ordination It provides an equality and child centred approach to inclusion combining both theory and practice while promoting critical thinking about the complex issues involved Scenarios are used as the basis for unpicking major topics and provide opportunities for learning in context while questions and reflections encourage deep thinking about key learning points This second edition has been fully revised throughout and now includes full reference to the new Special Educational Needs and Disability Code of Practice 2014 as well as the Children and Families Act 2014 and Behaviour2Learn two completely new chapters on understanding learners who are vulnerable and understanding learners with communication difficulties extended thinking activities and extended reflections to support M level study an improved organisation with emphasis on the national priorities

Building Community to Create Equitable, Inclusive and Compassionate Schools through Relational Approaches Joan G Mowat, 2022-11-30 This book draws on an extensive international literature and policy context from a wide range of fields of enquiry to challenge the orthodoxies and systemic issues that serve to marginalise children and young people and lead the way for schools to become more equitable inclusive and compassionate in their practice With a particular focus on children with social emotional and behavioural mental health needs it critiques policy and practice as they pertain to behaviour management and school discipline in the UK and the USA and offers alternative perspectives based on collaborative and relational approaches to promoting positive behaviour and building community Each chapter features reflection points to provoke discussion as well as offering additional suggested reading culminating in a discussion of the role of school leaders in leading for social justice Ultimately this book will be of benefit to scholars researchers and students working in the fields of behaviour management inclusion and special needs education and education policy and politics more broadly It will also offer substantial appeal to education professionals school leaders and those with a locus on the mental health and wellbeing of children and young people

From Consumer Experience to Affective Loyalty: Challenges and Prospects in the Psychology of Consumer Behavior 3.0 María Pilar Martínez-Ruiz, Mónica Gómez-Suárez, Ana Isabel Jiménez-Zarco, Alicia Izquierdo-Yusta, 2018-02-19 This research topic for Frontiers in Psychology highlights some of the more relevant changes that have conditioned consumer behavior in recent years among these the paradigm shift in marketing is worth emphasizing Today the market and the companies are implementing Marketing 4 0 This new marketing approach modifies both the business rules and the channels by changing the way to dialogue interact and relation with consumers The present Research Topic brings together 30 studies by 76 authors who analyzed the relevance of consumer behavior changes under this new paradigm using different theoretical and methodological frameworks These different papers mainly constituting original research examine a variety of sub topics including online and mobile environments value co creation internal marketing strategies and diverse industries and product markets Given this broad selection of papers we encourage readers to draw their own conclusions about the complex phenomena of consumer behavior Our hope is that these different perspectives will cover various gaps in the field and prompt discussion among the audience of Frontiers in Psychology Our Voices Bindi Bennett,Sue Green,2019-02-13 The second edition of Our Voices is a ground breaking collection of writings from Aboriginal social work educators who have collaborated to develop a toolkit of appropriate behaviours interactions networks and intervention The the text explores a range of current and emerging social work practice issues such as cultural supervision working with communities understanding trauma collaboration and relationship building and the ubiquity of whiteness in Australian social work It covers these issues with new and innovative approaches and provides valuable insights into how social work practice can be developed taught and practiced in ways that more effectively engage Indigenous communities

Refugee Background Students Transitioning Into Higher Education Loshini Naidoo,Jane Wilkinson,Misty Adoniou,Kiprono Langat,2018-05-18 This book is one of the first of its kind to examine the aspirations of refugee background students and accompanies them as they journey through the on shore stage of settlement enrolment and participation in the Australian education system It begins with students experiences of on shore settlement followed by the move into schooling and finally the subsequent transition into Australian higher education Transitioning into higher education is a challenge for many students particularly for those from under represented equity groups For refugee background students navigating in through and out of higher education can be particularly complex and challenging Drawing on rich case studies from longitudinal research into refugee youth and the academic and professional staff in schools and universities who support them the book provides powerful and compelling narratives and insights into this journey It untangles the complex nature of transition for students of refugee background in higher education locating it within broader social trends of increasing social and cultural diversity as well as government practices and policies concerning the educational resettlement of refugees

Physical and Medical Conditions Associated with Autism Martina Micai,Mila Vulchanova,Valentina Riva ,David Saldaña,2024-07-02 Some specific physical and medical conditions are well recognized to be more common in autistic individuals compared to the general population e g sleep wake disorders epilepsy sensory impairments However the prevalence and the impact on autistic individuals and their families of other physical and medical conditions such as cardiovascular conditions cancer musculoskeletal conditions food intolerance allergies autoimmune problems diabetes and neurocutaneous disorders have yet to be established The presence of such co occurring conditions affects the success of treatment and worsens the quality of life of autistic individuals and their carers Importantly the awareness of the presence of specific physical and medical conditions associated with autism allows for targeted interventions and better outcomes
