- (c) "Compounding is a good way of settling disputes." Comment. (5 marks)

Answer 1(a)

Section 3 of the Indian Evidence Act, 1872, defines Document as "any matter expressed or described upon any substance by means of letters, figures or marks, or more than one of these means, intended to be used or which may be used for purposes of recording that matter. Examples: writings, prints, map, a caricature, photo, video, etc.

When such document is intended to be used as evidence or is capable of being so used at the time of execution or thereafter, it becomes a legal document.

However, 'an instrument' is a specific type of legal document used or intended to be so used or capable of being used as evidence of a financial / monetary / legal right or liability or purports to be created, transferred, modified, limited, extended, suspended, extinguished or recorded those rights and liabilities.

Legal documents need not be formal or technical in format and language; nor their registration is necessary for evidentiary purposes. But they have to be proved by oral or documentary evidence in a legal proceeding. Whereas, instruments (duly executed ones),
