Disgruntled Asali Solomon:

Disgruntled Asali Solomon, 2015-02-03 An elegant vibrant startling coming of age novel for anyone who's ever felt the shame of being alive Kenya Curtis is only eight years old but she knows that she's different even if she can't put her finger on how or why It's not because she's black most of the other students in the fourth grade class at her West Philadelphia elementary school are too Maybe it's because she celebrates Kwanzaa or because she's forbidden from reciting the Pledge of Allegiance Maybe it's because she calls her father a housepainter slash philosopher Baba instead of Daddy or because her parents' friends gather to pour out libations from the Creator for the Martyrs and discuss the community Kenya does know that it's connected to what her Baba calls the shame of being alive a shame that only grows deeper and more complex over the course of Asali Solomon's long awaited debut novel Disgruntled effortlessly funny and achingly poignant follows Kenya from West Philadelphia to the suburbs from public school to private from childhood through adolescence as she grows increasingly disgruntled by her inability to find any place or thing or person that feels like home A coming of age tale a portrait of Philadelphia in the late eighties and early nineties an examination of the impossible double binds of race Disgruntled is a novel about the desire to rise above the limitations of the narratives we're given and the painful struggle to craft fresh ones we can call our own

The Days of Afrekete Asali Solomon, 2021-10-19 I didn't feel like I was reading this novel I felt like I was living it Ann Patchett author of The Dutch House From award winning author Asali Solomon The Days of Afrekete is a tender surprising novel of two women at midlife who rediscover themselves and perhaps each other inspired by Mrs Dalloway Sula and Audre Lorde's Zami Liselle Belmont is having a dinner party It seems a strange occasion her husband Winn has lost his bid for the state legislature but what better way to thank key supporters than a feast Liselle was never sure about her husband becoming a politician never sure about the limelight never sure about the life of fundraising and stump speeches Then an FBI agent calls to warn her that Winn might be facing corruption charges An avalanche of questions tumbles around her Is it possible he's guilty Who are they to each other who have they become How much of herself has she lost and was it worth it And just this minute how will she make it through this dinner party Across town Selena Octave is making her way through the same day the same way she always does one foot in front of the other keeping quiet and focused trying not to see the terrors all around her Homelessness starving children the very living horrors of history that made America possible these and other thoughts have made it difficult for her to live an easy life The only time she was ever really happy was with Liselle back in college But they've lost touch so much so that when they ran into each other at a drugstore just after Obama was elected president they barely spoke But as the day wears on memories of Liselle begin to shift Selena's path Inspired by Mrs Dalloway and Sula as well as Audre Lorde's Zami Asali Solomon's The Days of Afrekete is a deft expertly layered naturally funny and deeply human examination of two women coming back to themselves at midlife It is a watchful celebration of our choices and where they take us the people who change us and how we can
