Other Voices, Other Views Helen Ostovich, Mary V. Silcox, Graham Roebuck, 1999-12 The debate over canon represented by this book is implicit in the broad range of its contents As a whole it argues for expansion the inclusion of other voices to augment the standard university syllabus for the early modern period urging recognition of the period's diversity and reforming the conditions under which we pass judgment on its culture Each of these essays reveals the literary potential of works that have been considered inferior and inappropriate for serious study While such individual discovery is certainly valuable what is even more interesting is their significance as a group All the essays contained here are engaged in opening texts up to different perspectives creating a canon that speaks of diversity rather than uniformity
