Deep Focus Satyajit Ray, 2013-12-06 Satyajit Ray is acknowledged to be one of the world's finest film makers. This book brings together some of his most cerebral writings on film. With the economy and precision that marked his films, Ray writes on the art and craft of cinema, pens an ode to silent cinema, discusses the problems in adapting literary works to film, pays tribute to contemporaries like Godard and Uttam Kumar, and even gives us a peek into his experiences at film festivals both as a jury member and as a contestant. Including fascinating photographs by and of the master, Deep Focus not only reveals Ray's engagement with cinema but also provides an invaluable insight into the mind of a genius. Satyajit Ray on Cinema

Satyajit Ray, 2013-04-02 Satyajit Ray, one of the greatest auteurs of twentieth-century cinema, was a Bengali motion picture director, writer, and illustrator who set a new standard for Indian cinema with his Apu Trilogy: Pather Panchali, Song of the Little Road (1955), Aparajito, The Unvanquished (1956), and Apur Sansar, The World of Apu (1959). His work was admired for its humanism, versatility, attention to detail, and skilled use of music. He was also widely praised for his critical and intellectual writings, which mirror his filmmaking in their precision and wide-ranging grasp of history, culture, and aesthetics. Spanning forty years of Ray's career, these essays for the first time collected in one volume present the filmmaker's reflections on the art and craft of the cinematic medium and include his thoughts on sentimentalism, mass culture, silent films, the influence of the French New Wave, and the experience of being a successful director. Ray speaks on the difficulty of adapting literary works to screen, the nature of the modern film festival, and the phenomenal contributions of Jean-Luc Godard and the Indian actor-director-producer and singer Uttam Kumar. The collection also features an excerpt from Ray's diaries and reproduces his sketches of famous film personalities such as Sergei Eisenstein, Charlie Chaplin, and Akira Kurosawa, in addition to film posters, photographs by and of the artist, film stills, and a filmography. Altogether, the volume relays the full extent of Ray's engagement with film and offers extensive access to the thought of one of the twentieth century's leading Indian intellectuals.

The Cinema of Satyajit Ray Darius Cooper, 2000-01-13 Satyajit Ray is India's greatest filmmaker, and his importance in the international world of cinema has long been recognised. Darius Cooper's study of Ray is the first to examine his rich and varied work from a social and historical perspective and to situate it within Indian aesthetics. Providing analyses of selected films, including those that comprise The Apu Trilogy, Chess Players, and Jalsaghar, among others, Cooper outlines Western influences on Ray's work, such as the plight of women functioning within a patriarchal society, Ray's political vision of the doubly colonised, and his attack and critique of the Bengali Indian middle class of today. The most comprehensive treatment of Ray's work, The Cinema of Satyajit Ray makes accessible the oeuvre of one of the most prolific and creative filmmakers of the twentieth century. Deep Focus, 1998 Satyajit Ray: The Inner Eye Andrew Robinson, 2021-09-23 Akira Kurosawa said of the great director, "Not to have seen the cinema of Ray means existing in the world without seeing the sun or the moon." Martin Scorsese remarked on Ray's birth centenary in 2021: "The films of Satyajit Ray are truly treasures of cinema, and everyone with an interest in film needs to see them Satyajit Ray The Inner Eye is the definitive biography based on extensive interviews with Ray himself his actors and collaborators and a deep knowledge of Bengali culture Andrew Robinson provides an in depth critical account of each film in an astonishingly versatile career from Ray s directorial debut Pather Panchali 1955 to his final feature Agantuk 1991 The third centenary edition includes new material an epilogue A century of Ray about the nature of his genius a wide ranging conversation with Ray drawn from the author s interviews and an updated comprehensive bibliography of Ray s writings

Cinema, Emergence, and the Films of Satyajit Ray Keya Ganguly,2010-06-08 Although revered as one of the world s great filmmakers the Indian director Satyajit Ray is described either in narrowly nationalistic terms or as an artist whose critique of modernity is largely derived from European ideas Rarely is he seen as an influential modernist in his own right whose contributions to world cinema remain unsurpassed In this benchmark study Keya Ganguly situates Ray s work within the internationalist spirit of the twentieth century arguing that his film experiments revive the category of political or committed art She suggests that in their depictions of Indian life Ray s films intimate the sense of a radical future and document the capacity of the image to conceptualize a different world glimpsed in the remnants of a disappearing past

Art Cinema and India's Forgotten Futures Rochona Majumdar, 2021-10-12 Co-Winner 2023 Chidananda Dasgupta Award for the Best Writing on Cinema, Chidananda Dasgupta Memorial Trust; Shortlisted 2022 MSA Book Prize, Modernist Studies Association; Longlisted 2022 Moving Image Book Award, Kraszna Krausz Foundation. The project of Indian art cinema began in the years following independence in 1947, at once evoking the global reach of the term art film and speaking to the aspirations of the new nation-state. In this pioneering book, Rochona Majumdar examines key works of Indian art cinema to demonstrate how film emerged as a mode of doing history and that in so doing it anticipated some of the most influential insights of postcolonial thought. Majumdar details how filmmakers, as well as a host of film societies and publications, sought to foster a new cinematic culture for the new nation, fueled by enthusiasm for a future of progress and development. Good films would help make good citizens; art cinema would not only earn global prestige but also shape discerning individuals capable of exercising aesthetic and political judgment. During the 1960s, however, Satyajit Ray, Mrinal Sen, and Ritwik Ghatak, the leading figures of Indian art cinema, became disillusioned with the belief that film was integral to national development. Instead, Majumdar contends, their works captured the unresolvable contradictions of the postcolonial present, which pointed toward possible yet unrealized futures. Analyzing the films of Ray, Sen, and Ghatak and working through previously unexplored archives of film society publications, Majumdar offers a radical reinterpretation of Indian film history. Art Cinema and India's Forgotten Futures offers sweeping new insights into film's relationship with the postcolonial condition and its role in decolonial imaginations of the future.
