Delirio Laura Restrepo:

Delirio Laura Restrepo,2004 Todos los secretos est n guardados en un mismo caj n el caj n de los secretos y si develas uno corres el riesgo de que pase lo mismo con los dem s Un hombre regresa a casa desp u s de un corto viaje de negocios y encuentra que su esposa ha enloquecido completamente No tiene idea de qu le pudo haber ocurrido durante los tres d as de su ausencia y con el fin de ayudarla a salir de la crisis empieza a investigar s lo para descubrir lo poco que sabe sobre las profundas perturbaciones escondidas en el pasado de la mujer que ama Narrada con talento y emoci n la historia principal de esta novela se fragmenta en otras que se anudan a trav s de personajes llenos de matices La autora muestra en esta obra una energ a narrativa fuera de lo com n en donde el suspense se mantiene hasta un final esperanzador que cierra una hermosa novela bien construida mejor contada y brillantemente desarrollada Delirio es una expresi n de todo lo que Colombia tiene de fascinante e incluso de terriblemente fascinante Y cuando el nivel de la escritura llega hasta donde lo llev Laura Restrepo hay que quitarse el sombrero Lo digo en mi nombre y en nombre del jurado que no ha ahorrado aplausos para esta obra JOS SARAMAGO presidente del jurado

Global Issues in Contemporary Hispanic Women's Writing Estrella

Cibreiro,Francisca López,2013 Carolyn Tuttle led a group that interviewed 620 women maquila workers in Nogales Sonora Mexico The responses from this representative sample refute many of the hopeful predictions made by scholars before NAFTA and reveal instead that little has improved for maquila workers The women s stories make it plain that free trade has created more low paying jobs in sweatshops where workers are exploited Families of maquila workers live in one or two room houses with no running water no drainage and no heat The multinational companies who operate the maquilas consistently break Mexican labor laws by requiring women to work more than nine hours a day six days a week without medical benefits while the minimum wage they pay workers is insufficient to feed their families These findings will make a crucial contribution to debates over free trade CAFTA DR and the impact of globalization The book visits continuities and discontinuities among Spanish and Latin American women with regards to the ways in which they approach writing as a political weapon to express ecological concerns to denounce social injustice to re articulate existing paradigms such as local versus global violence versus pacifism immigrant versus citizen and to raise consciousness about racist sexist and other discriminatory practices Such use of writing as an instrument of ethical and political exploration is underlined throughout the different articles in the volume as the authors emphasize pluralism social justice gender equality tolerance and political representation This book offers readers a broad perspective on the multiple ways in which Hispanic women writers are explicitly exploring the social political and economic realities of our era and integrating global perspectives and gender concerns into their writing highlighting the unprecedented level of sociopolitical engagement practiced by 20th and 21st century Hispanic women writers

Narcoepics Hermann Herlinghaus, 2013-02-14 Narcoepics Unbound foregrounds the controversial yet mostly untheorized phenomenon of contemporary Latin American narcoepics Dealing with literary works and films whose characteristics are linked to illicit global exchange informal labor violence bare life drug consumption and ritualistic patterns of identity it argues for a new theoretical approach to better understand these narratives of intoxication Foregrounding the art that has arisen from or seeks to describe drug culture Herlinghaus comparative study looks at writers such as Gutiérrez J J Rodríguez Reverte films such as City of God and the narratives surrounding cultural villains heroes such as Pablo Escobar Narcoepics shows that that in order to grasp the aesthetic and ethical core of these narratives it is pivotal first to develop an aesthetics of sobriety The aim is to establish a criteria for a new kind of literary studies in which cultural hermeneutics plays as much a part as political philosophy analysis of religion and neurophysiological inquiry

Delirium Laura Restrepo, 2008-09-04 Aguliar returns home after a four day business trip to discover that his beloved wife has gone mad Desperate to rescue Agustina from her sudden devastating insanity Aguliar delves back into her shadowy past Other narratives are intertwined with his frantic search for the truth that of Midas a flamboyant drug trafficker and Agustina's former lover and Agustina's splintered memories of her own troubled childhood The key to her madness lies buried deep in a Colombian story of money power and corruption

Human Rights in Colombian Literature and Cultural Production Carlos Gardeazábal Bravo, Kevin G.

Guerrieri, 2022-04-28 This volume explores how Colombian novelists artists performers activists musicians and others seek to enact to perform to stage to represent human rights situations that are otherwise enacted discursively that is made public or official in juridical and political realms in which justice often remains an illusory or promised future In order to probe how cultural production embodies the tensions between the abstract universality of human rights and the materiality of violations on individual human bodies and on determined groups the volume asks the following questions How does the transmission of historical traumas of Colombia's past through human rights narratives in various forms inform the debates around the subjects of rights truth and memory remembrance and forgetting and the construction of citizenship through solidarity and collective struggles for justice What are the different roles taken by cultural products in the interstices among rights laws and social justice within different contexts of state violence and states of exception What are alternative perspectives sources and micro histories from Colombia of the creation evolution and practice of human rights How does the human rights discourse interface with notions of environmental justice especially in the face of global climate change regional neo extractivism the implementation of megaprojects and ongoing post accord thefts and reappropriations of land Through a wide range of disciplinary lenses the different chapters explore counter hegemonic concepts of human rights decolonial options struggling against oppression and market logic and alternative discourses of human dignity and emancipation within the pluriverse

Gender Violence in Twenty-first-century Latin American Women's Writing Maria Encarnacion Lopez, Stephen M. Hart, 2022 How do contemporary female authors in Latin America tackle gender violence in their writings

This book analyses the portrayal of violence against women in the works of ten contemporary Latin American female authors Alejandra Jaramillo Morales Laura Restrepo Ena Lucia Portela Wendy Guerra Selva Almada Claudia Pineiro Diamela Eltit Carla Guelfenbein Lydia Cacho and Fernanda Melchor Governments in Latin America have routinely failed to protect women from abuse threats censorship repressive policies on reproduction rights forced displacement sex trafficking disappearances and femicides and this book beats a new path through these burning issues by drawing on the knowledges encapsulated by sociology as much as the visions articulated by literature Through an exploration of works published in the twenty first century by women writers from Argentina Chile Colombia Cuba and Mexico this volume reconceptualises positions of privilege and power in the region and provides new readings about the meaning of gender sexuality violence and the female body in contemporary Latin America The aim of this book is to raise awareness of the daily threat of violence against women in Latin America underline the importance of the voice of Latin American women within that daily struggle and encourage governments organisations and institutions in Latin America and the Caribbean to take gender violence seriously and fight to secure peace and social equality for all women in the modern world

Politically Writing Women in Hispanic

Literature Martha Lorena Rubí,Martha Lorena Rubí,2011 This groundbreaking study explores feminist theory and literary criticism embedded in seventeen works by Hispanic American authors and Latina writers in the United States The books bring out women's philosophic and historic concepts of becoming a woman politically in the public sphere of society Philosophers like Luce Irigaray and Deleuze and Guattari have realized that woman's representation in philosophic discourses are missing The universal mankind or the omnipresent self can no longer ignore that women have different experiences than man in both the private and public realm Each aesthetic work whether novel poem or short story brings a woman centered concern written by a woman author The first fourteen lie in diversity historic national cultural and ethnic experiences that Hispanic women undergo daily or during times of social upheaval mainly dictatorships How they write imparts experience and action in her trials of becoming multiple selves or subjectivities which theorists and female critics alike identify is missing from two thousand years of Western Philosophy The stories are unique as the introduction underlines the basis of the concept of becoming which women may embrace in writing themselves politically in literature The last four works by U S Latinas is further problematized through the process of immigration Hispanic women on their way to becoming Americans have many factors to consider race gender ethnicity education and social class which applies to all the main woman characters in each selective work The criterion is set in the Introduction and applied to work which inspired it Written from a multicultural standpoint draws from an interdisciplinary perspective whether psychology economics feminist theories philosophy and history The study intends to look at ways of thinking the woman question and how she defines herself in the process

Twenty-First Century Latin American Narrative and Postmodern Feminism

Gina Ponce de Leon,2014-06-26 The authors of Twenty First Century Latin American Narrative and Postmodern Feminism argue that while the more traditional feminists of the 20th century did not recognize in their theoretical and literary work the diversity of women's experiences current Latin American post feminist and post modern writers are proposing a transgressive new social order resulting in a more significant cultural resistance to the society they represent. The authors included in this volume show that the narrative of the writers analyzed here is not limited to recognizing issues focused on gender or even sexuality but also explores the female aspiration of a dignified life and overcoming the dominant structures in their social political and cultural dimension. The complex female situation of this millennium has become the primary quandary while searching for new forms to represent women in literature. In Twenty First Century Latin American Narrative and Postmodern Feminism the authors confront this dilemma in a sharp sophisticated and harmonious way offering a critical text that will be of interest for both specialists and general readers interested in Latin American literature and culture of the recent years.

Commodifying Violence in Literature and on Screen Alejandro Herrero-Olaizola, 2021-10-18 This book traverses the cultural landscape of Colombia through in depth analyses of displacement local and global cultures human rights abuses and literary and media production. Through an exploration of the cultural processes that perpetuate the darker side of Latin America for global consumption it investigates the condition that has led writers filmmakers and artists to embrace purposefully or not the incessant violence in Colombian society as the object of their own creative endeavors. In this examination of mass marketed cultural products such as narco stories captivity memoirs gritty travel narratives and films Herrero Olaizola seeks to offer a hemispheric approach to the role played by Colombia in cultural production across the continent where the illicit drug trade has made significant inroads. To this end he identifies the Colombian condition within the parameters of the global economy while concentrating on the commodification of Latin America's violence for cultural consumption. Citing case studies from around the world the research collected here broadens the picture of Generation X as a demographic and a worldview. The book traces the global and local flows that determine the identity of each country's youth from the 1970s to today. Bringing together twenty scholars working on fifteen different countries and residing in eight different nations, this book presents a community of diverse disciplinary voices. Contributors explore the converging properties of Generation X through the fields of literature, media studies, youth culture, popular culture, sociology, philosophy, feminism, and political science. Their ideas also enter into conversation with fourteen other textbox contributors who address the question of Who is Generation X in other countries. Taken together they present a highly interactive and open book format whose conversations extend to the reading public on the website www.generationxgoesglobal.com.

La piel del cielo Elena Poniatowska, 2017-09-14 Una novela de la ganadora del Premio Cervantes 2013 Elena Poniatowska que fue merecedora del IV Premio Alfaguara de Novela. Mamá allá atrás se acaba el mundo. Esta frase abre camino a una historia fascinante la de un hombre de enorme talento destinado a desentrañar los misterios de la astronomía. Lorenzo de Tena rebelde e inconformista debe luchar contra las desigualdades sociales, las trampas burocráticas y las tentaciones políticas para ver realizada su vocación. Pero los mayores retos de su vida quedan todavía por venir: no de la ciencia sino de la cara más oculta de las personas la que esconde las pasiones y los sentimientos. Una novela que como un telescopio nos acerca a los deseños más inalcanzables: las estrellas y el amor. La crítica ha dicho Elena Poniatowska aguda observadora de la realidad que le rodea nos ofrece en esta obra lo mejor de su literatura que no en vano le ha llevado a alcanzar el preciado galardón del Premio Cervantes solo reservado a un selecto elenco de Escritores aquellos que merecen por su trayectoria escribirse con mayúsculas. María Eugenia Delso (ICN) Est escrito con impecable oficio y los diálogos plenos de mexicanismos muestran el dominio del registro lingüístico de su riqueza verbal. Nadie puede dudar de la eficacia expresiva de esta notable escritora mexicana. Joaquín Marco (El Cultural de El Mundo)

Son de Mar (Premio Alfaguara de novela 1999) Manuel Vicent, 2010-07-15 Son de mar cuenta una historia de amor y de deseo de naufragios y de regresos que estremece el corazón a golpe de belleza. PREMIO LLETRAERIT DE CULTURA VALENCIANA 2021 Premio Alfaguara de novela 1999. Todos los muertos vuelven si los llama el amante con la fuerza necesaria. El protagonista de esta novela es un náufrago que regresa después de diez años y a pesar de que su mujer ya habrá rehecho su vida ambos vuelven a sentir el amor y la pasión que creyeron perdidos. Pero este hecho sucede también cada día en el asfalto de la ciudad. Según el manual de la resurrección el primer requisito que se exige para resucitar es estar vivo aunque la vida te sumerja cada día en la profundidad de los mares. En este caso siempre habrá algún amante que te llame desde cualquier orilla y tú tendrás la necesidad de volver a ella.
