impatience Doubtless I owe something to many of these books but I am not conscious of much obligation to any save the Principles of Rhetoric by Professor A S Hill English Composition by Professor Barrett Wendell and English Prose by Professor John Earle I have conscientiously endeavored to make the lectures as practical as possible stating as clearly as I could those things which would have been most helpful to me had I read and heeded them twenty years ago The necessity of holding an audience made fitting some effort to render the talks entertaining but I have never consciously said anything for the mere purpose of being amusing and I have never been of the opinion that a book gains either in dignity or in usefulness by being dull My purpose has throughout been sincerely serious and if the book shall prove helpful I shall have attained the object for which it was written
