World History Duiker 7th Edition Volume 1:

Women at the Wheel Katherine J. Parkin, 2017-09-05 Ever since the Ford Model T became a vehicle for the masses the automobile has served as a symbol of masculinity The freedom of the open road the muscle car's horsepower the technical know how for tinkering all of these experiences have largely been understood from the perspective of the male driver Women in contrast were relegated to the passenger seat and have been the target of stereotypes that portray them as uninterested in automobiles and more perniciously as poor drivers In Women at the Wheel Katherine J. Parkin illuminates the social implications of these stereotypes and shows how they have little basis in historical reality With chapters on early driver's education and licensing programs and on buying driving and caring for cars she describes a rich cast of characters from Mary Landon the first woman ever to drive in 1899 to Dorothy Levitt author of the first automotive handbook for women in 1909 to Margie Seals who opened her garage My Favorite Mechanic Is a Woman in 1992 Although women drove and had responsibility for their family's car maintenance twentieth century popular culture was replete with humorous comments and judgmental critiques that effectively denied women pride in their driving abilities and car related expertise Parkin contends that despite women's long history with cars these stereotypes persist Land, Power, and the Sacred Janet R. Goodwin, Joan R. Piggott, 2018-07-31 Landed estates sh en produced much of the material wealth supporting all levels of late classical and medieval Japanese society During the tenth through sixteenth centuries estates served as sites of de facto government trade network nodes developing agricultural technology and centers of religious practice and ritual Although mostly farmland many yielded nonagricultural products including lumber salt fish and silk and provided livelihoods for craftsmen seafarers peddlers and performers as well as for cultivators By the twelfth century an estate system permeated much of the Japanese archipelago This volume examines the system from three perspectives the land itself the power derived from and exerted over the land and the religion institutions and individuals that were involved in landholding practices Chapters by Japanese and Western scholars explore how the estate system arose developed and eventually collapsed Several investigate a single estate or focus on agricultural techniques while others survey estates in broad contexts such as economic change and maritime trade Other chapters look at how we learn about estates by inspecting documents landscape features archaeological remains and extant buildings and images how representatives of every social stratum worked together to make the land productive and conversely how cooperative arrangements failed and rivals battled one another making conflict as well as collaboration a hallmark of the system On a more personal level we follow the monk Ch gen's restoration of be Estate and his installation of a famous Amida triad in a temple he built on the premises the strategies of royal ladies J saimon in Hachij in and K kamon in as they strove to keep their landholdings viable and the murder of estate official Gor zaemon whose own neighbors killed him as a result of a much larger dispute between two powerful warrior families Land Power and the Sacred represents a significant expansion and revision of our knowledge of medieval Japanese estates A range of readers will welcome the primary source research and comparative perspectives it offers those who do not specialize in Japanese medieval history but recognize the value of teaching the history of estates will find a chapter devoted to the topic invaluable Contributors and translators Kristina Buhrma Michelle Damian David Eason Sakurai Eiji translated by Ethan Segal Philip Garrett Janet R Goodwin Yoshiko Kainuma Rieko Kamei Dyche Sachiko Kawai Hirota K ji translated by Janet R Goodwin yama Ky hei translated by Janet R Goodwin Nagamura Makoto translated by Janet R Goodwin End Motoo translated by Janet R Goodwin Joan R Piggott Ethan Segal Dan Sherer Kimura Shigemitsu translated by Kristina Buhrman Noda Taiz translated by David Eason Nishida Takeshi translated by Michelle Damian
