Forward-Looking Practices to Onboard Generation Z at Entry-Level Dr. Assefa Belay Wondim, 2024-12-12 Forward

Looking Practices to Onboard Generation Z at Entry Level depicts the doctoral study of Dr Assefa Belay Wondim conducted at Capella University The doctoral study is about the identification of a set of forward looking practices to effectively onboard

Gen Z new employees at the entry level as viewed by a nationwide panel of human resource policy experts and the determination of the extent to which there was a consensus of opinion among these experts as to the desirability feasibility and importance of these practices The outcome and findings of the project could have significance for practitioners and business organizations engaged in onboarding Gen Zs as well as for the body of knowledge in the field of HRM The project findings could serve as a blueprint on how to manage the talent of Gen Zs by understanding and aligning the work needs values and expectations of Gen Zs for onboarding with organizational onboarding practices The talent management of Gen Z might through effective onboarding practices contribute to a reduction in employee turnover which in turn could result in onboarding cost reduction and an increase in productivity for the organization Although the doctoral study findings primarily relate to the IT industry the project outcomes could also be applied to other business organizations to minimize employee turnover reduce onboarding costs and increase new hires productivity The utility of the consensus based desirable and feasible solutions may go beyond onboarding Gen Z new employees The experts have expressed their 100% confidence in the utility of the consensus based desirable and feasible solutions for onboarding new employees across generations About the Author Dr Assefa Belay Wondim is a former employee of the United Nations Organization During his long service with the Organization Dr Wondim has accumulated rich knowledge in intergovernmental socio economic peace and security and administrative affairs During his tenure with the UN he excelled in research and development project management human resource management strategic planning and execution team building leadership and administration Dr Wondim is member of the National Association of African Americans in Human Resources NAAHR the global and Jacksonville Florida chapters of the Society of Human Resource Management SHRM and SHRMJAX and the Xi Delta chapter Capella University of the Delta Mu Delta International Honor Society in Business Dr Wondim obtained a BSc degree in Mathematics and MSc degree in Demography in Ethiopia He also obtained a Doctor of Business Administration degree in human resource management in the USA Dr Wondim has written an autobiography book titled Zantai My Life Story He is happily married and blessed with four successful children

Phelan, 2016-04-08 Arguably the nation's community colleges have experienced more change in the last several years than they have over the prior 115 years of their existence Rapid changes in technology external pressures for accountability and student completion aggressive competition from other higher education institutions i.e. public for profit and private changes in enrollment demographics as well as new economic market and operational models stand to completely disrupt this relatively young enterprise Unrelenting Change provides useful practical examples for community college leaders as they seek to thoughtfully and strategically align their organization for the new dynamic in higher education Furthermore Unrelenting Change offers insights into the change process including institutional assessment and readiness consideration of cultural implications strategic intentions toward innovation as well as risk failure and success Rather than perceiving change and disruptive innovation as merely happenstance or luck the author provides discernment into the topic so as to give community college leaders solid guidance if not improved odds in undertaking this important competitive edge for the future of their intuitions and by extension their students How to Write It, Third Edition Sandra E.
