The Global Player: How to Become "the Logistics Company for the World" Thomas Musiolik, 2012 According to Frank Appel CEO of Deutsche Post DHL within its Strategy 2015 framework DHL will become the logistics company for the world In times of globalization and economic downturn the effects of which can be felt in the entire logistics industry this goal is an enormous challenge for DHL In order to attain this goal it is essential for DHL to create a closer linkage of its business areas to slim down its processes and to put a stronger focus on the ever changing needs of the customer The objective of this book is to offer cost reduction solutions and give suggestions on how quality can be improved which will distinguish DHL from its competitors while fulfilling the needs of the customer i.e. become the logistics company for the world. This book is divided into four sections. First, there is a synopsis of the history of DHL as well as a description of its organizational and corporate structure and concludes with a comparison of the business segments of DHL with its main competitors. After that, the corporate strategy is analyzed: 1. its core competencies, 2. its mergers and acquisitions, 3. Ansoff, and 4. BCG. BCG II. The section concludes by examining which strategy could be appropriate for a successful future for DHL. The third section deals with the competitive strategy of DHL. Porter's Five Forces are utilized to analyze the attractiveness of the industry as well as its competitors, suppliers, and customers. This is followed by an analysis of the appropriate strategy for DHL Logistics by means of the Generic Strategies according to Porter, the Hybrid Strategies, the TOWS, and an evaluation of the strategic options. The next step will explain the appropriate processes for the strategy of the value chain. A Scenario 2020, which draws a picture of what the industry might look like in ten years, concludes this section. The final section will highlight the factors that can give DHL sustainable competitive advantages. The functional strategies are presented, the global key markets are analyzed, and appropriate strategic alliances are examined. The author sets great value upon clear and interesting statements that ensure an easy understanding of the subject matter but at the same time facilitate a fast transfer into practice.

Payer or Player? The Role of the European Union in the Middle East Peace Process Steffen Schulz, 2002-05-08. Inhaltsangabe Abstract: The Union's position and role. Promoter of a comprehensive just and lasting peace and of prosperity for the region. Key player in the political and economic process. The European Union on its Middle East policy web site. This way of portraying itself does not leave any doubt about the position and role of the European Union (EU) in the Arab-Israeli conflict. In practice, however, the EU does not appear to be very influential in the region. So far, all treaties and agreements concerning the Middle East peace process have been achieved under the mediation and sometimes the intervention of the United States (U.S.). Europe has usually watched these political developments from the sidelines. That does not mean that in this region Europe has no role at all The EU is involved in the peace process not in the political however but in the economic part Since the Oslo agreement in 1993 European money has kept the quasi state of the Palestinians alive and thus the EU is usually perceived as payer but not as player in the Arab Israeli conflict At the moment however in which the situation in the Middle East is characterised by violent clashes between Palestinians and Israelis and in which there is the widespread assumption that the peace process is on the brink of disaster there are growing demands that Europe should also play a greater political role in the region Indeed in recent weeks Europe has appeared as a mediator between Israelis and Palestinians In the name of Europe the German foreign minister Joschka Fischer has acted twice as a mediator between both conflict parties Particularly the Arabs and Palestinians want the EU to get involved more strongly in the peace process They perceive America which is doubtlessly the most powerful actor in the conflict as biased and more in favour of Israel and therefore they hope that Europe could be a kind of counterweight to the U S Against this background it has to be asked whether the European Union would be able to play a major political role so that one could speak about Europe not only as payer but also as player in the peace process In order to answer this question it is firstly necessary to examine the main aspects that determine the capabilities and limits of the European Union in international affairs One of the main factors in this respect is doubtlessly the concept of the Common Foreign and Security Policy CFSP and the institutional framework which is
