Islamist Rhetoric Jacob Hoigilt, 2013-02-01 Islamism in Egypt is more diversified in terms of its sociology and ideology than is usually assumed Through linguistic analysis of Islamist rhetoric this book sheds light upon attitudes towards other Muslims religious authority and secular society Examining the rhetoric of three central Islamist figures in Egypt today Yusuf al Qaradawi Amr Khalid and Muhammad Imara the author investigates the connection between Islamist rhetoric and the social and political structures of the Islamic field in Egypt Highlighting the diversity of Islamist rhetoric the author argues that differences of form disclose sociological and ideological tensions Grounded in Systemic Functional Grammar the book explores three linguistic areas in detail pronoun use mood choices and configurations of processes and participants The author explores how the writers relate to their readers and how they construe concepts that are central in the current Islamic revival such as Islamic thought Muslims and the West Introducing an alternative divide in Egyptian public debate between text cultures rather than ideologies this book approaches the topic of Islamism from a unique analytical perspective offering an important addition to the existing literature in the areas of Middle Eastern society and politics Arabic language and religious studies Islam and Current Issues Yūsuf Qaraḍāwī, 1997

Confronting Antisemitism from the Perspectives of Christianity, Islam, and Judaism Armin Lange, Kerstin Mayerhofer, Dina Porat, Lawrence H. Schiffman, 2020-10-26 This volume engages with antisemitic stereotypes as religious symbols that express and transmit a belief system of Jew hatred These religious symbols are stored in Christian Muslim and even today's secular cultural and religious memories This volume explores how antisemitic religious symbol systems can play a key role in the construction of group identities Islamic Public Law - Islamic Law in Theory and Practice Ahmed Akgunduz, 2011-11-01 Islamic law contains explications and divisions that imply a classification in terms of public and private law In this book we will explain the outlines of Islamic public law e g First Chapter Islamic constitutional law al siy saḥ al shar iyyah and administrative law al siy saḥ al shar iyyah Second Chapter penal law al uq b t Third Chapter financial law zak t ushr ar j and other taxes Fourth Chapter trial law qa and Fifth Chapter international public law al siyar The fields of especially Islamic constitutional law administrative law financial law ta z r penalties and arrangements concerning military law based on the restricted legislative authority vested by Shar ah rules and those jurisprudential decrees based on secondary sources like customs and traditions and the public good maslahah all fell under what was variously called public law al siy saḥ al shar iyyah Shar ah policy q n n legal code q n nn mah orf uq q etc Since these laws could not go beyond Shar ah principles either at least in theory they should not be regarded as a legal system outside of Islamic law But Islamic penal law financial law trial law and international law depend mostly on rules that are based directly on the Qur an and the Sunnah and codified in books of fiqh Islamic law called Shar ah rules Shar i shar f or Shar ah law Such rules formed 85% of the legal system In this book we will focus on some controversial problems in the Muslim world today such as the form of government in Islamic law and the relation between Islam and democracy Islamic law does not stipulate a certain method of state government nonetheless we may say that the principles it decrees and its concept of sovereignty suggest a religious republic As a matter of fact ulaf al R shid n the Rightly Guided Caliphs were both caliphs and religious republican presidents We could say that this book has three main characteristics i We have tried to base our explanations directly on the primary Islamic law sources For example after reading some articles on the caliphate or t m r system in articles or books by some Western scholars and even by some Muslim scholars one might conclude that there are different views on these subjects among Muslim scholars This is not true Muslims have agreed on the basic rules on legal subjects but there are some conflicts regarding nuances and interpretations If one reads works by Im m Gazzali Ibn Taymiyyah al M wardi and al Farr one will not find any disagreement on the main rules but there are some different interpretations of some concepts We have tried to discover where they agreed and we have sometimes pointed to where they differed ii We have researched practices of Islamic law especially legal documents in the Ottoman archives For example we explain add i sariqa but also mention some legal articles from the Ottoman legal codes q nunn mes and some Shar ah court decisions like legal decrees i l m t i shar iyyah It is well known that nobody can understand any legal system without implementing and practicing it That also holds for Islamic law because theory alone does not yield a complete understanding of Shar ah rules iii We have worked hard to correct some misconceptions and misunderstandings about Islamic law That is why we appeal to the primary sources For example some scholars claim that the anaf jurist Im m Sara s did not accept the idea of punishment for apostasy We have studied his work al Mabs t and found this claim to be unfounded The comparison between t m r and fief is another example because the t m r system is different from the fief system Some scholars confuse the concept of sovereignty and governance The Islamic state is not a theocratic state in the sense in which Europeans understand the term

From Transnational Relations to Transnational Laws Shaheen Sardar Ali, Anne Griffiths, 2016-04-15 This book approaches law as a process embedded in transnational personal religious communicative and economic relationships that mediate between international national and local practices norms and values It uses the concept living law to describe the multiplicity of norms manifest in transnational moral social or economic practices that transgress the territorial and legal boundaries of the nation state Focusing on transnational legal encounters located in family life diasporic religious institutions and media events in countries like Norway Sweden Britain and Scotland it demonstrates the multiple challenges that accelerated mobility and increased cultural and normative diversity is posing for Northern European law For in this part of the world as elsewhere national law is challenged by a mixture of expanding human rights obligations and unprecedented cultural and normative pluralism enhanced by expanding global communication and market relations As a consequence transnationalization of law appears to create homogeneity fragmentation and ambiguity expanding space for some actors while silencing others Through the lens of a variety of important contemporary subjects the authors thus engage with the nature of power and how it is accommodated ignored or resisted by various actors when transnational practices encounter national and local law

Jihadi Culture on the World Wide Web Gilbert

Ramsay,2013-10-10 Choice Outstanding Academic Title 2014 This volume examines jihadi content on the Internet by drawing on both Arabic and English primary source materials After examining this content as digital media the work looks at how it is productively consumed by online communities including how jihadi individuals construct themselves online and how jihadism is practiced and represented as an online activity The work also discusses the consumption of such jihadi media by those who are hostile to radical Islam and the relation between fantasy pleasure ideology and ordinary life This unique survey features case studies such as the cyberjihadi Irhabi 007 pro US and Israeli patriots who are often openly Islamophobic and Infovlad a forum that became the meeting place for radical Islamists and radical freelance counter terrorists This innovative approach to studying violent content on the Internet is a significant contribution to the literature that will appeal to anyone interested in political violence terrorism and political communication Islam in the World Today Werner Ende,Udo

Hamas and Ideology Shaul Bartal, Nesya Rubinstein-Shemer, 2017-11-28 Sheikh Yusuf al Qaradawi is regarded as the most influential contemporary Muslim religious figure His best selling book Al al wal aram fi al Islam The Forbidden and the Permitted in Islam is perhaps one of the most widely read Islamic works after the Qur'an The subject of jihad in Palestine is a salient feature of Qaradawi's thought and is addressed frequently in his books His views on Israel and on the Jews shape those of many Muslims throughout the world This book paints al Qaradawi's portrait within the context of the subject of the struggle for Palestine and assesses why he is committed so fervently to the Palestinian cause It also sheds light on another important aspect of al Qaradawi's thought namely the marked contrast between his ideas regarding the Muslim world and his views on relations with other religions and countries Whereas al Qaradawi is considered to be a moderate in Islamic matters his attitude toward the Jews and to Israel is one of abiding hatred and uncompromising struggle The book aims to classify Qaradawi's thought along the axis of moderation and extremism by drawing comparisons between Qaradawi's teachings and those of other Muslim jurists Furthermore it compares the features of antisemitic writing with that of Qaradawi in order to answer the question as to whether Qaradawi's teachings actually constitute an expression of antisemitism Despite the subject of jihad in Palestine being so central to Qaradawi's thought there has not been a comprehensive and systematic academic study of this to date The book therefore represents a major contribution to the field and will appeal to anyone studying the Israel Palestine conflict Islamic Studies Jewish Studies Terrorism and Political Violence

The Oxford Handbook of European Islam Jocelyne Cesari, 2014-10-30 For centuries Muslim countries and Europe have engaged one another through theological dialogues diplomatic missions political rivalries and power struggles In the last thirty years due in large part to globalization and migration from Islamic countries to the West what was previously an engagement across national and cultural boundaries has increasingly become an internalized encounter within Europe itself Questions of the Hijab in schools freedom of expression in the wake of the Danish Cartoon crisis and the role of Shari'a have come to the forefront of contemporary European discourse The Oxford Handbook of European Islam is the first collection to present a comprehensive approach to the multiple and changing ways Islam has been studied across European countries Parts one to three address the state of knowledge of Islam and Muslims within a selection of European countries while presenting a critical view of the most up to date data specific to each country These chapters analyse the immigration cycles and policies related to the presence of Muslims tackling issues such as discrimination post colonial identity adaptation and assimilation The thematic chapters in parts four and five examine secularism radicalization Shari'a Hijab and Islamophobia with the goal of synthesizing different national discussion into a more comparative theoretical framework The Handbook attempts to balance cutting edge assessment with the knowledge that the content itself will eventually be superseded by events

Featuring eighteen newly commissioned essays by noted scholars in the field this volume will provide an excellent resource for students and scholars interested in European Studies immigration Islamic studies and the sociology of religion
