'Progress' in Zimbabwe? David Moore, Norma Kriger, Brian Raftopoulos, 2013-09-13 Zimbabwe's severe crisis and a possible way out of it with a transitional government and the new era for which it prepares the ground demands a coherent scholarly response Progress can be employed as an organising theme across many disciplinary approaches to Zimbabwe's societal devastation At wider levels too the concept of progress is fitting It underpins modern liberal and radical perspectives of development pervading the social sciences and humanities Yet perceptions of progress are subject increasingly to intensive critical inquiry Their gruesome end is signified in the political projects of Robert Mugabe and ZANU PF John Gray's Black Mass Apocalyptic Religion and the Death of Utopia indicates this It is expected that participants will engage directly in debates about how the idea of progress has informed their disciplines from political science and history to labour and agrarian studies and then relate these arguments to the Zimbabwean case in general and their research in particular This book was published as a special issue of the Journal of Contemporary African Studies Minerals Yearbook, 2014

Minerals Yearbook Mines Bureau, Geological Survey, Interior Department, 2018-04-19 This edition of the U S Geological Survey USGS Minerals Yearbook discusses the performance of the worldwide minerals and materials industries during year 2013 and provides background information to assist in interpreting that performance These annual reviews are designed to provide timely statistical data on mineral commodities in various countries This volume covers data from Asia and the Pacific Each report includes sections on government policies and programs environmental issues trade and production data industry structure and ownership commodity sector developments infrastructure and a summary outlook Audience Government employees and contractors as well as businesses and employees all working in mineral related trades especially with interests in statistics about mineral commodities overseas will find this resource invaluable Mugabeism? Sabelo J. Ndlovu-Gatsheni, 2015-12-26 What is distinctive about this book is its interdisciplinary approach towards deciphering the complex meanings of President Gabriel Mugabe of Zimbabwe making it possible to evaluate Mugabe from a historical political philosophical gender literal and decolonial perspectives It is concerned with capturing various meanings of Mugabeism National Healing, Integration and Reconciliation in Zimbabwe Ezra Chitando, 2019-12-06 This book brings together scholars from diverse backgrounds to provide interdisciplinary perspectives on national healing integration and reconciliation in Zimbabwe Taking into account the complex nature of healing across moral political economic cultural psychological and spiritual dimensions of communities and the nation the chapters discuss approaches disparities tensions and solutions to healing and reconciliation within a multidisciplinary framework Arguing that Zimbabwe s development agenda is severely compromised by the dominance of violence and militancy the contributors analyse the challenges possibilities and opportunities for national healing This book will be of interest to scholars of African studies conflict and reconciliation and development studies

Justiciability of Human Rights Law in Domestic Jurisdictions Alice Diver, Jacinta Miller, 2015-12-15 This collection of 16 essays by 19 contributors calls into question the notion of domestic justiciability across a wide range of human rights issues such as health human dignity criminal justice property and transitional democracy The authors offer critical analyses of a number of rights frameworks focusing in considerable detail upon specific countries e g Libya Colombia Ireland the United Kingdom Northern Ireland South Africa Nigeria Zimbabwe Kenya India and regions e g Europe Africa to highlight the various challenges which continue to vex human rights advocates and scholars In doing so they pinpoint some of the major tensions that still exist within developing and developed jurisdictions via a myriad range of perspectives The essays collectively present a diverse assortment of themes unified by a single golden thread that of the domestic interpretations given to human rights protections They raise questions as to how such rights might be made substantive at the level of domestic implementation and query the extent to which these rights can or even should be enforced by the courts The potential strains in the relationship between human rights and the rule of law is further called into question by another central theme that of human dignity A fundamental dilemma arises in respect of the extent to which a right to dignity can best be promoted protected or monitored by domestic decision makers Similar issues are apparent within the context of the protection of those human rights which increasingly tend to engage social political or economic considerations and interests Whilst these arguments are often framed principally in terms of rights the collective message that emerges from this book is that such rights may often be in fact essentially non justiciable Readers of this text will perhaps feel compelled to reflect carefully and fully upon what it tells us about human rights law generally and the extent to which such rights may be truly amenable to adjudication by the courts

Harnessing Indigenous Epistemologies for Sustainable Progress Ngulube, Patrick, 2025-02-19 Seeking cognitive fairness in academic institutions requires an emphasis on indigenous knowledge and epistemic freedom that is more pluralistic and inclusive which is supported by the incorporation of Indigenous viewpoints and wisdom A more just and equitable learning environment that benefits all academics and students can be achieved by elevating epistemic freedom in the academy and making it a place where cognitive diversity is acknowledged Indigenous knowledge systems provide distinctive perspectives on sustainable living community health and environmental stewardship To ensure that Indigenous history continues to be a vibrant and living legacy that inspires and enriches the globe it is important to promote it in a way that both honors the past and influences modern practices Harnessing Indigenous Epistemologies for Sustainable Progress challenges the dominance of Western epistemologies by incorporating Indigenous viewpoints and wisdom into academia fostering a more pluralistic and inclusive approach to knowledge development and transmission Covering topics including digital preservation global higher education and ecological kinships this book is an excellent resource for policymakers educators sociologists scholars researchers academicians professionals and more

Zimbabwe in Transition Timothy Murithi, Aquilina Mawadza, 2011 Zimbabwe s Transition to Democracy in the post independence era has been a very difficult one To date there have been a number of sustained efforts by various local regional and international actors to move Zimbabwe towards democracy as well as attempts to find a lasting solution to the political and economic crises that seriously affected the country s progress from the late 1990s However these attempts have been less successful mainly because Zimbabwe has complex political and economic problems with interlocking national regional and international political and economic dimensions rooted in both historical and contemporary factors and developments To understand the complexities of the challenges to Zimbabwe s transition to democracy as well as prospects for political change and democracy in the country Zimbabwe in Transition critically examines both the historical and contemporary dynamics shaping political and economic developments in the country taking into account voices from a broad spectrum of Zimbabwean society including civil society faith based communities the diaspora women community leaders the media youth and regional actors such as SADC and the AU Book jacket

Lived Experiences of Borderland Communities in Zimbabwe Nedson Pophiwa, Joshua Matanzima, Kirk Helliker, 2023-06-27 This book examines the national borders and borderlands of Zimbabwe through the presentation of empirically rich case studies It delves into the lived experiences both past and present of populations residing along the borders between Zimbabwe and its neighbours i e Zambia Botswana South Africa and Mozambique It locates these lived experiences within the political economy of Zimbabwe and highlights a wide range of themes pertinent to borders including health COVID 19 marginalisation resource access conservation human wildlife conflicts civil wars politico economic crises border jumping and cross border trade The borderland communities discussed also include ethnic minorities such as the Tonga San Ndauro Shangane and Kalanga Overall the book demonstrates the centrality of borders to the Zimbabwean nation state and the importance of reading history politics and society from the borderlands The book fits into the wider prevailing literature of border and borderlands in Africa and beyond and thus has appeal far beyond Zimbabwe Its diverse themes also relate to topics covered in multiple disciplines including history anthropology and sociology Academics development specialists and policy makers will benefit in different ways from the depth and breadth of the analysis in the book

Zimbabwe's Cinematic Arts Katrina Daly Thompson, 2013 This timely book reflects on discourses of identity that pervade local talk and texts in Zimbabwe a nation beset by political and economic crisis As she explores questions of culture that play out in broadly accessible local and foreign film and television Katrina Daly Thompson shows how viewers interpret these media and how they impact everyday life language use and thinking about community She offers a unique understanding of how media reflect and contribute to Zimbabwean culture language and ethnicity

A Companion to the Anthropology of Death

Antonijs C. G. M. Robben, 2018-05-11 A thought provoking examination of death dying and the afterlife Prominent scholars present their most recent work about mortuary rituals grief and mourning genocide cyclical processes of life and death biomedical developments and the materiality of human corpses in this unique and illuminating book Interrogating our most common practices surrounding death the authors ask such questions as How does the state wrest away control over the dead from bereaved relatives Why do many mourners refuse to cut their emotional ties to the dead and nurture lasting bonds Is death a final condition or can human remains acquire agency The book is a refreshing reassessment of these issues and practices a source of theoretical inspiration in the study of death With contributions written by an international team of experts in their fields A Companion to the Anthropology of Death is presented in six parts and covers such subjects as Governing the Dead in Guatemala After Death Communications ADCs in North America Cryonic Suspension in the Secular Age Blood and Organ Donation in China The Fragility of Biomedicine and more A Companion to the Anthropology of Death is a comprehensive and accessible volume and an ideal resource for senior undergraduate and graduate students in courses such as Anthropology of Death Medical Anthropology Anthropology of Violence Anthropology of the Body and Political Anthropology Written by leading international scholars in their fields A comprehensive survey of the most recent empirical research in the anthropology of death A fundamental critique of the early 20th century founding fathers of the anthropology of death Cross cultural texts from tribal and industrial societies The collection is of interest to anyone concerned with the consequences of the state and massive violence on life and death

The Despot's Accomplice Brian Klaas, 2018-05-01 For the first time since the end of the Cold War the world is steadily becoming less democratic The true culprits are dictators and counterfeit democrats But argues Klaas the West is also an accomplice inadvertently assaulting pro democracy forces abroad as governments in Washington London and Brussels chase pyrrhic short term economic and security victories Friendly fire from Western democracies against democracy abroad is too high a price to pay for a myopic foreign policy that is ultimately making the world less prosperous stable and democratic The Despot s Accomplice draws on years of extensive interviews on the frontlines of the global struggle for democracy from a poetry reading politician kidnapping general in Madagascar to Islamist torture victims in Tunisia Belarusian opposition activists tailed by the KGB West African rebels and tea sipping members of the Thai junta Cumulatively their stories weave together a tale of a broken system at the root of democracy s global retreat The Zimbabwe Law Reports ,2002 Contemporary Development

Ethics from an African Perspective Beatrice Okyere-Manu,Stephen Nkansah Morgan,Ovett Nwosimiri,2023-07-29 This book offers fresh academic insights reflections questions issues and approaches to development ethics taking into account African values and ethics Development ethics is an area of applied ethics that examines the moral issues involved in global social and economic transformation While it is a relatively new discipline there have been numerous scholarly publications on it from Western perspectives However only a few studies that focused on development ethics from the African perspective To address this gap the book seeks to answer critical questions such as What does development mean to Africans How can we measure development Who gets to decide and What constitutes just development in Africa With contributions from African scholars from diverse backgrounds the book covers various development themes such as Theories and approaches to development ethics in Africa Environmental Ethics and African Development Ethics Politics and African Development Migration and African development Gender Ethics and Socio economic Development in Africa Education Ethics and African development It is an essential resource for researchers lecturers and students interested in political philosophy and African culture studies Gendered Spaces, Religion and Migration in Zimbabwe Ezra Chitando,Sophia Chirongoma,Molly Manyonganise,2022-10-12 This book explores the intersections of gender religion and migration within the context of post independent Zimbabwe with a specific focus on how gender disparities impact economic development By demonstrating how these interconnections impact women s and girls lived realities the book addresses the need for gender equity gender inclusion and gender mainstreaming in both religious and societal institutions This book assesses the gender and migration nexus in Zimbabwe and examines the impact of religio cultural ideologies on the status of women In doing so it assesses the transition of Zimbabwean women across spaces and provides insights into the practical strategies that can be utilised to improve their status both at home and on the move Furthermore chapters show how space continues to be genderised in ways that perpetuate structural inequality to challenge the exclusion of women from key social processes Contributing to ongoing scholarly debates on gender in Africa this book will be of interest to academics and students of Gender Studies Women s Studies African Studies Development Studies as well as advocates of human rights and gender activists

Zimbabwe ,2002 Education and Development in Zimbabwe Edward Shizha,Michael T. Kariwo,2012-01-01 The book represents a contribution to policy formulation and design in an increasingly knowledge economy in Zimbabwe It challenges scholars to think about the role of education its funding and the egalitarian approach to widening access to education The

nexus between education democracy and policy change is a complex one The book provides an illuminating account of the constantly evolving notions of national identity language and citizenship from the Zimbabwean experience The book discusses educational successes and challenges by examining the ideological effects of social political and economic considerations on Zimbabwe s colonial and postcolonial education Currently literature on current educational challenges in Zimbabwe is lacking and there is very little published material on these ideological effects on educational development in Zimbabwe This book is likely to be one of the first on the impact of social political and economic meltdown on education The book is targeted at local and international academics and scholars of history of education and comparative education scholars of international education and development undergraduate and graduate students and professors who are interested in educational development in Africa particularly Zimbabwe Notwithstanding the book is a valuable resource to policy makers educational administrators and researchers and the wider community Shizha and Kariwo s book is an important and illuminating addition on the effects of social political and economic trajectories on education and development in Zimbabwe It critically analyses the crucial specifics of the Zimbabwean situation by providing an in depth discourse on education at this historical juncture The book offers new insights that may be useful for an understanding of not only the Zimbabwean case but also education in other African countries Rosemary Gordon Senior Lecturer in Educational Foundations University of Zimbabwe Ranging in temporal scope from the colonial era and its elitist legacy through the golden era of populist universal elementary education to the disarray of contemporary socioeconomic crisis covering elementary through higher education and touching thematically on everything from the pernicious effects of social adjustment programmes through the local deprofessionalization of teaching this text provides a comprehensive wide ranging and yet carefully detailed account of education in Zimbabwe This engagingly written portrayal will prove illuminating not only to readers interested in Zimbabwe s education specifically but more widely to all who are interested in how the sociopolitical shapes education how ideology policy international pressures economic factors and shifts in values collectively forge the historical and contemporary character of a country s education Handel Kashope Wright Professor of Education University of British Columbia

Healing the Wounds of Gukurahundi in Zimbabwe Dumisani Ngwenya, 2017-12-14 This book is based on a participatory action research project carried out with a group of former Zimbabwe People s revolutionary Army ZPRA which was the armed wing of the Zimbabwe African People s Union ZAPU which was led by the late Joshua Nkomo ZPRA was the primary target of Gukurahundi a pogrom by the Mugabe government which left an estimated 20 000 civilians dead and countless others tortured in the early 1980s in Matebeleland Zimbabwe It has been almost 30 years since the violence ended but there has never been an official healing and reconciliation programme or truth commission into the atrocities The government chose the path of amnesia by granting a blanket amnesty to all involved The regime has enforced a culture of silence over the event through repression and intimidation The book is a culmination of a two year journey by the group and the author of an exploration of group based self healing approaches to the pain caused by the violence of Gukurahundi
