The Time of Space, 2006 Walking Artists Ralph Fischer, 2014-03-15 Was ist der Name dieses Wesens es erscheint am Morgen auf vier am Mittag auf zwei und am Abend auf drei Beinen Das R tsel der Sphinx Gehen ist eng mit der Idee des Menschen verkn pft In den 1960er Jahren entdeckten die performativen K nste diesen Prototyp menschlicher Fortbewegung f r sich Ralph Fischer zeichnet nach wie Protagonisten aus den Bereichen Performance und Conceptual Art Bruce Nauman Richard Long Vito Acconci aber auch Theater und Tanzschaffende Samuel Beckett Steve Paxton Trisha Brown mit Gangarten und Schrittmustern zu experimentieren begannen und damit die Grundlage legten f r die produktive Auseinandersetzung mit jener universellen Bewegungstechnik in der Kunst und Theaterlandschaft der Gegenwart Die Wieder Entdeckung des Gehens so ein Ergebnis der Studie ist weit mehr als nur eine Besinnung auf das motorische Grundvokabular performativer Kunst sie ist das symbolische Zentrum einer radikalen Revision des traditionellen k nstlerischen Formenvokabulars und zugleich ein Versuch der Neuverortung des Subjekts in einer ver nderten soziokulturellen Wirklichkeit Studies in Temporal Urbanism Fabian Neuhaus, 2011-08-04 This book is very much about what the name urbanTick literally says about the ticking of the urban the urban as we experience it everyday on the bus in the park or between buildings It is about the big orchestrated mass migration of commuters the seasonal blossoms of the trees along the walkway and the frequency of the stamping rubbish eater trucks It is also not to forget about climate infrastructure opening hours term times parking meters time tables growing shadows and moon light But most of all it is about how all this is experienced by citizens on a daily basis and how they navigate within this complex structure of patterns The content of this book is based on the content of the urbanTick blog between 2008 2010 One year blogging about this topic brought together a large collection of different aspects and thoughts It is not at all a conclusive view the opposite might be the case it is an exploratory work in progress while trying to capture as many facets of the topic as possible The Art of Richard Long William Malpas, 2007 A critical study of the work of British artist Richard Long Modern Sculpture Douglas Dreishpoon, 2022-10-25 Artists of any ilk can be extremely opinionated when it comes to what they do how they do it and what it might mean Sculptors are no exception Modern Sculpture Artists in Their Own Words presents a selection of manifestos documents statements articles and interviews from more than ninety subjects including an ample selection of contemporary sculptors With this book editor Douglas Dreishpoon defers to sculptors whose varied points of view illuminate the medium's perpetual transformation from object to action concept to phenomenon over the course of two centuries Each chapter progresses in chronological sequence to highlight the dominant stylistic philosophical and thematic threads that unite each kindred group The result is a distinctive artist centric history and survey of sculpture that showcases the expansive dimensions and malleability of the medium Sylvan Cities Helen Babbs, 2019-05-02

Sylvan City is a potted journey through our cities' woody places and a literary hunt for where their wild things are Reviews for Sylvan Cities Clever pretty fun and informative what more can a reader ask for Sara Maitland author of Gossip From the Forest Full of gems a manifesto for green cities Babbs will turn us all into urban rangers an unquiet army of neighbourhood watchers Max Adams author of Wisdom of Trees An intricately illustrated journey into the urban forest Sylvan City is both a practical guide to identifying twenty of the most common trees standing sentry on our street corners and a lyrical anecdotal treasure trove of facts and history culture and leafy lore It's certainly possible to appreciate a tree for its beauty its shade and its shelter without knowing whether it's an alder an elder a lime or a beech But look harder and we begin to see the beauty beneath the bark the tales of how trees are integral to medicine and art as they are furniture and firewood the stories of why wild figs grow on the banks of Sheffield's rivers and why the ash tree is touched with magic and mischief Encyclopedia of Twentieth-Century Photography, 3-Volume Set Lynne Warren, 2005-11-15

The Encyclopedia of Twentieth Century Photography explores the vast international scope of twentieth century photography and explains that history with a wide ranging interdisciplinary manner This unique approach covers the aesthetic history of photography as an evolving art and documentary form while also recognizing it as a developing technology and cultural force This Encyclopedia presents the important developments movements photographers photographic institutions and theoretical aspects of the field along with information about equipment techniques and practical applications of photography To bring this history alive for the reader the set is illustrated in black and white throughout and each volume contains a color plate section A useful glossary of terms is also included Performance Drawing Maryclare Foá, Jane Grisewood, Birgitta Hosea, Carali McCall, 2020-09-03

What is performance drawing When does a drawing turn into a performance Is the act of drawing in itself a performative process whether a viewer is present or not Through conversation interviews and essays the authors illuminate these questions and what it might mean to perform and what it might mean to draw in a diverse and expressive contemporary practice since 1945 The term performance drawing first appeared in the subtitle of Catherine de Zegher's Drawing Papers 20 Performance Drawings in particular with reference to Alison Knowles and Elena del Rivero In this book it is used as a trope and a thread of thinking to describe a process dedicated to broadening the field of drawing through resourceful practices and cross disciplinary influence Featuring a wide range of international artists this book presents pioneering practitioners alongside current and emerging artists The combination of experiences and disciplines in the expanded field has established a vibrant art movement that has been progressively burgeoning in the last few years The

Introduction contextualises the background and identifies contemporary approaches to performance drawing As a way to embrace the different voices and various lenses in producing this book the authors combine individual perspectives and critical methodology in the five chapters While embedded in ephemerality and immediacy the themes encompass body and energy time and motion light and space imagined and observed demonstrating how drawing can act as a performative tool The dynamic interaction leads to a collective understanding of the term performance drawing and addresses the key developments and future directions of this applied drawing process

Richard Long Haunch of Venison (London), Richard Long, Matt Watkins, 2006 KölnSkulptur, 2001 Re-writing Spatiality Britta Kühlenbeck, 2010 The objective of this project is to encourage new ways of thinking about the meaning and significance of space It follows a desire that has been expressed and theorized by Henri Lefebvre and by extension Edward W Soja to remove Spatiality from the margin of the Triad of Being and to bring it into the Triad fold alongside with and of at least equal significance to Historicity and Sociality The thesis focuses on how space of the Pilbara region in Western Australia is produced in contemporary Australian writing film art and through lived experience The thesis argues for an understanding of space as essentially dynamic

Visual Culture: Spaces of visual culture Joanne Morra, Marquard Smith, 2006 These texts represent both the formation of visual culture and the ways in which it has transformed and continues to transform our understanding and experience of the world as a visual domain

A History of Installation Art and the Development of New Art Forms Faye Ran, 2009 Art mirrors life life returns the favor How could nineteenth and twentieth century technologies foster both the change in the world view generally called postmodernism and the development of new art forms Scholar and curator Faye Ran shows how interactions of art and technology led to cultural changes and the evolution of Installation art as a genre unto itself a fascinating hybrid of expanded sculpture in terms of context site and environment and expanded theatre in terms of performer performance and public

Walking and Mapping Karen O'Rourke, 2016-02-12 An exploration of walking and mapping as both form and content in art projects using old and new technologies shoe leather and GPS From Guy Debord in the early 1950s to Richard Long Janet Cardiff and Esther Polak more recently contemporary artists have returned again and again to the walking motif Today the convergence of global networks online databases and new tools for mobile mapping coincides with a resurgence of interest in walking as an art form In Walking and Mapping Karen O'Rourke explores a series of walking mapping projects by contemporary artists She offers close readings of these projects many of which she was able to experience firsthand and situates them in relation to landmark works from the past half century Together they form a new entity a dynamic whole greater than the sum of its parts By alternating close study of selected projects with a broader view of their place in a bigger picture Walking and Mapping itself maps a complex phenomenon

Experiential Walks for Urban Design Barbara E. A. Piga, Daniel Siret, Jean-Paul Thibaud, 2021-08-05 The edited volume explores the topic of experiential walks which is the practice of multi or mono sensory and in motion immersion into an urban or natural environment The act of walking is hence intended as a process of re discovering reflecting and learning through an embodied experience Specific attention is devoted to the investigation of the ambiance of places and its dynamic atmospheric perception that contribute to generating the social experience This topic is gaining increasing attention and has been studied in several forms in different disciplines to investigate the particular spatial social sensory and atmospheric character of places The book contains chapters by experts in the field and covers both the theory and the practice of innovative methods techniques and technologies It examines experiential walks in the perspective of an interdisciplinary approach to environmental and sensory urban design by organising the contributions according to three specific interrelated focuses namely the exploration and investigation of the multisensory dimension of public spaces the different ways to grasp and communicate the in motion experience through traditional and novel forms of representation and the application of the approach to urban participatory planning and higher education Shedding new light on the topic the book offers both a reference guide for those engaged in applied research and a toolkit for professionals and students British Art of the Long 1980s Imogen Racz,2020-11-26 The sculptural history of the long 1980s has been dominated by New British Sculpture and Young British Artists Arguing for a more expansive history of British sculpture and its supporting infrastructures these twenty three vivid and enthralling interviews with artists curators dealers and facilitators working then demonstrate the interconnected networks diversity of ideas and practices energy imagination and determination that transformed British art from being marginal to internationally celebrated With a substantial introduction this timely volume provides valuable new insights into the education work careers studios infrastructures and exhibitions of the artists and facilitators substantially enlarging our understanding of the era

Dr. Death Jonathan Kellerman,2003-04-01 BONUS This edition contains an excerpt from Jonathan Kellerman s Victims Who killed the killer In this brilliant and startling psychological thriller Jonathan Kellerman perennial bestselling author gives a sharp and timely twist to homicide s central question Someone has murdered euthanasia champion Dr Eldon Mate a self styled Dr Death responsible for scores of assisted suicides In a burst of bloody irony the killer chooses to dispatch the doctor in the back of Mate s own suicide van hooking him up to the killing apparatus dubbed the Humanitron and adding some butchering touches of his own The case is assigned to veteran LAPD homicide detective Milo Sturgis who turns once again to his friend Dr Alex Delaware But working this case raises a conflict of interest for Alex so profound that he can t even discuss it with Milo The tension that develops between cop and psychologist further complicates an already baffling and complex murder investigation one whose suspects include the families of Dr Mate s travelers Mate s own son and a psychopathic killer who relishes the geometry of death Dr Death is a rich brew of unforgettable characters labyrinthine plotting page turning prose and the unique insights into the darkest corners of the human mind that have earned Jonathan Kellerman international accolades as the master of psychological suspense Renegotiating the Body Kathy Battista,2012-11-20 What makes art feminist art Although feminist artists do have a unique aesthetic there can be no essential feminist aesthetic argues Kathy

Battista in this exciting new art history Domesticity the body its traces and sexuality have become prominent themes in contemporary feminist practice but where did these preoccupations begin and how did they come to signify a particular type of art Kathy Battista's re engagement with the founding generation of female practitioners centres on 1970s London as the cultural hub from which a new art practice arose Emphasising the importance of artists including Bobby Baker Anne Bean Catherine Elwes Rose English Alexis Hunter Tina Keane Hannah O Shea Kate Walker and Silvia Ziranek and examining works such as Mary Kelly's Post Partum Document Judy Clark's 1973 exhibition Issues Carolee Schneemann's Meat Joy and Cosey Fanni Tutti's Prostitution shown in 1976 Kathy Battista investigates some of the most controversial and provocative art from the era This book not only deals with the famous art events but includes analysis of lesser known exhibitions and performances and explains why so much feminist art has been both marginalised in art history and grossly under represented in institutional archives and collections

Sculpture and the Garden Patrick Eyres, Fiona Russell, 2006 Although the integration of sculpture in gardens is part of a long tradition dating back at least to antiquity the sculptures themselves are often overlooked both in the history of art and in the history of the garden This collection of essays considers the changing relationship between sculpture and gardens over the last three centuries focusing on four British archetypes the Georgian landscape garden the Victorian urban park the outdoor spaces of twentieth century modernism and the late twentieth century sculpture park Through a series of case studies exploring the contemporaneous audiences of gardens the book uncovers the social political and gendered messages revealed by sculpture's placement and suggests that the garden can itself be read as a sculptural landscape
