

MALACANAN PALACE
MANILA

My warmest greetings to the Our Lady of the Most Holy Rosary Parish, as you hold your 10th Foundation Day Celebration.

The strength of our nation is fortified by the faith of Filipinos. The triumph of your congregation in fulfilling your parish's aspirations attests to this potential in uniting our people. We in government recognize you as among our partners in nation-building as you inspire our citizenry to impart the teachings of the Church, sustain their involvement beyond their community, and take great interest in issues of national importance. May this gathering serve to empower you and your parishioners in our communal pursuit of renewal and lasting reform.

Illuminated by the grace of God, let us carry on the path towards a revitalized Philippines. Guided by the principles of honesty, integrity and solidarity, we can elevate the condition of our fellowmen, enabling them to live with dignity and hope.

H.E. BENIGNO S. AQUINO III
President of the Republic of the Philippines

Eccentric Modernisms Tirza True Latimer, 2017 What if we ascribe significance to aesthetic and social divergences rather than waving them aside as anomalous What if we look closely at what does not appear central or appears peripherally or does not appear at all viewing ellipses outliers absences and outtakes as significant Eccentric Modernisms places queer demands on art history tracing the relational networks connecting cosmopolitan eccentrics who cultivated discrepant strains of modernism in America during the 1930s and 1940s Building on the author's earlier studies of Gertrude Stein and other lesbians who participated in transatlantic cultural exchanges between the world wars this book moves in a different direction focusing primarily on the gay men who formed Stein's support network and whose careers in turn she helped to launch including the neo romantic painters Pavel Tchelitchew and writer editor Charles Henri Ford Eccentric Modernisms shows how these eccentric modernists bucked trends by working collectively reveling in disciplinary promiscuity and sustaining creative affiliations across national and cultural boundaries

Restaging the Past Angela Bartie, Linda Fleming, Mark Freeman, Alexander Hutton, Paul Readman, 2020-08-17 Restaging the Past is the first edited collection devoted to the study of historical pageants in Britain ranging from their Edwardian origins to the present day Across Britain in the twentieth century people succumbed to pageant fever Thousands dressed up in historical costumes and performed scenes from the history of the places where they lived and hundreds of thousands more watched them These pageants were one of the most significant aspects of popular engagement with the past between the 1900s and the 1970s they took place in large cities small towns and tiny villages and engaged a whole range of different organised groups including Women's Institutes political parties schools churches and youth organisations Pageants were community events bringing large numbers of people together in a shared celebration and performance of the past they also involved many prominent novelists professional historians and other writers as well as featuring repeatedly in popular and highbrow literature Although the pageant tradition has largely died out it deserves to be acknowledged as a key aspect of community history during a period of great social and political change Indeed as this book shows some traces of pageant fever remain in evidence today
