Lady Julian of Norwich. Offenbarungen von göttlicher. Liebe (Revelations of divine love, dt.). Juliana de Norwich, Elisabeth Strakosch, 1960

Revelations of Divine Love Julian of Norwich, 1999-02-01 One of the first woman authors Julian of Norwich produced in Revelations of Divine Love a remarkable work of revelatory insight that stands alongside The Cloud of Unknowing and Piers Plowman as a classic of Medieval religious literature After fervently praying for a greater understanding of Christ's passion Julian of Norwich a fourteenth century anchorite and mystic experienced a series of divine revelations Through these showings Christ's sufferings were revealed to her with extraordinary intensity but she also received assurance of God's unwavering love for man and his infinite capacity for forgiveness Written in a vigorous English vernacular the Revelations are one of the most original works of medieval mysticism and have had a lasting influence on Christian thought This edition of the Revelations contains both the short text which is mainly an account of the showings themselves and Julian's initial interpretation of their meaning and the long text completed some twenty years later which moves from vision to a daringly speculative theology Elizabeth Spearing's translation preserves Julian's directness of expression and the rich complexity of her thought An introduction notes and appendices help to place the works in context for modern readers For more than seventy years Penguin has been the leading publisher of classic literature in the English speaking world With more than 1 700 titles Penguin Classics represents a global bookshelf of the best works throughout history and across genres and disciplines Readers trust the series to provide authoritative texts enhanced by introductions and notes by distinguished scholars and contemporary authors as well as up to date translations by award winning translators

Revelations of Divine Love by Julian of Norwich Julian Of Norwich, 2020-01-21 Julian of Norwich now has a new audience and it really doesn't matter if like me you have little if any religious interest or understanding The work itself both mystical and philosophical is fascinating enough on its own Nicholas Lezard The Guardian Revelations of Divine Love is a medieval book of Christian mystical devotions It was written by an anchoress called Dame Julian now known as Julian of Norwich about whom almost nothing is known The book is remarkable for being the earliest surviving example of a book in the English language to have been written by a woman Julian who lived all her life in the English city of Norwich wrote about the sixteen mystical visions or shewings she received in 1373 when she was thirty Seriously ill and on her deathbed the visions appeared to her over a period of several hours in one night with a final revelation occurring the following night After making a full recovery she then wrote an account of each vision A Must Read for all Interested in Christian Mysticism Secularism and the Pursuit of Transcendence, Volume I Stanley E. Porter, Wendy J.

Porter, 2025-02-20 We live in a secular age or so we have been told Nevertheless the Christian church strongly believes that we still experience and in fact are surrounded by acts of transcendence encounters with God that often defy imagination and explanation And yet we do try to explain such phenomena whether theologically experientially biblically historically philosophically literarily or even or especially artistically These two volumes are more than just papers from a major conference on secularism and the pursuit of transcendence held at McMaster Divinity College in Hamilton Ontario They contain genuine attempts by people deeply engaged with their secular surroundings to explain what we mean by transcendence Transcendence has been a longstanding topic among the best thinkers of this and previous ages and the same is true for these volumes which include contributions by Charles Taylor Robert Wuthnow Merold Westphal and Christina Gschwandtner but also by a wide range of others who address the question from divergent vantage points The responses vary as much as the orientations of those involved in the pursuit of defining not only what it means to live in our secular age but to be involved in the pursuit of transcendence or even to perceive the Transcendent's pursuit of us
