Luka And The Fire Of Life Salman Rushdie:

Luka and the Fire of Life Salman Rushdie, 2010-09-30 On a beautiful starry night in the city of Kahani in the land of Alifbay a terrible thing happened twelve year old Luka's storyteller father Rashid fell suddenly and inexplicably into a sleep so deep that nothing and no one could rouse him To save him from slipping away entirely Luka must embark on a journey through the Magic World encountering a slew of phantasmagorical obstacles along the way to steal the Fire of Life a seemingly impossible and exceedingly dangerous task With Haroun and the Sea of Stories Salman Rushdie proved that he is one of the best contemporary writers of fables and it proved to be one of his most popular books with readers of all ages While Haroun was written as a gift for his first son Luka and the Fire of Life the story of Haroun's younger brother is a gift for his second son on his twelfth birthday Lyrical rich with word play and with the narrative tension of the classic quest stories this is Salman Rushdie at his very best The Science Fiction Dimensions of Salman Rushdie Yael Maurer, 2014-01-23 This book focuses on the science fictional dimensions of Rushdie's later novels Fury The Ground Beneath Her Feet Shalimar the Clown and Luka and the Fire of Life and Rushdie's first unpublished novel The Antagonist to show how the author's oeuvre moves towards a more consistent engagement with science fiction as a generic form and an ideological investment The author demonstrates how Rushdie recreates personal and national histories in a science fictional setting and mode and contends that the failure of his first novel Grimus may have led Rushdie away from SF for some time although he returns to it with a much firmer conviction and a much stronger voice in his later novels showing his commitment to this imaginative form which he describes in Fury as providing the best popular vehicle ever devised for the novel of ideas and metaphysics The science fictional mode is the most appropriate vehicle for expressing these thematic and ideological concerns and the organizing feature of Rushdie's oeuvre The author rereads the later novels in light of recent critical engagement with SF as a vehicle for reimagining national histories and as a potentially subversive tool for social and political engagement in a fictional realm Salman Rushdie Damian Grant, 2012 This study seeks to provide a balanced view by approaching Rushdie's fiction in terms of its dual responsibility to the found world of historical circumstance and the made world of the imagination Salman Rushdie and Translation Jenni Ramone, 2013-09-12 Salman Rushdie's writing is engaged with translation in many ways translator figures tell and retell stories in his novels while acts of translation are catalysts for climactic events Covering his major novels as well as his often neglected short stories and writing for children Salman Rushdie and Translation explores the role of translation in Rushdie's work In this book Jenni Ramone draws on contemporary translation theory to analyse the part translation plays in Rushdie's appropriation of historical and contemporary Indian narratives of independence and migration Salman Rushdie Robert Eaglestone, Martin McQuillan, 2013-09-12 New critical perspectives on Salman Rushdie's fiction and non fiction by leading scholars A study guide for Salman Rushdie's "Haroun and the Sea of Stories" Gale, Cengage Learning, 2015-09-24 A study guide for Salman Global Perspectives on Death in Children's Literature Lesley D. Clement, Leyli Jamali, 2015-07-30 This volume visits death in children's literature from around the world making a substantial contribution to the dialogue between the expanding fields of Childhood Studies Children's Literature and Death Studies. Considering both textual and pictorial representations of death contributors focus on the topic of death in children's literature as a physical reality a philosophical concept a psychologically challenging adjustment and/or a social construct. Essays covering literature from the US Mexico El Salvador Guatemala Canada the UK Sweden Germany Poland Bulgaria Brazil Czechoslovakia the Soviet Union India and Iran display a diverse range of theoretical and cultural perspectives. Carefully organized sections interrogate how classic texts have been adapted for the twenty first century how death has been politicized ritualized or metaphorized and visual strategies for representing death and how death has been represented within the context of play. Asking how different cultures present the concept of death to children this volume is the first to bring together a global range of perspective on death in children's literature and will be a valuable contribution to an array of disciplines.

Salman Rushdie's Cities Vassilena Parashkevova, 2012-02-16 Employing Salman Rushdie as a guide to a historicized contemporary this study offers an interdisciplinary exploration of the plurality of cities along his transnational trajectory. It engages with the geographically identifiable Bombay Karachi Islamabad London or New York the phantasmal politically coded Jahilia or Mildendo the inspirational yet flawed urban precedents of Fatehpur Sikri or Renaissance Florence and the ways these cities generate interact with and transform each other. The book situates Rushdie's cities in relation to developments in Bombay Karachi Islamabad and London writing and focuses on novels which shuttle between cities. Parashkevova attends to cities cultural and historical contexts to many of Rushdie's numerous literary cinematic and artistic influences and to diverse events processes and paradigms earthquakes translations seductions that politically re-position cities and citizens on the contemporary urban map.

Children's Literature and Culture Rebecca Rowe, 2025-08-08 Children's Literature and Culture An Introduction guides readers in the study of culture in around and through children's literature. Children's literature has long been used as a mechanism by which a culture passes its values from one generation to the next Because of this culturally didactic purpose children s literature can be viewed as one of the most fruitful areas of study of any given culture At the same time studying the cultures from which works of children s literature emerge and in which they circulate can also help better understand not only the ideas of childhood that underpin individual texts for children but the role they play in the construction and transmission of different cultural ideologies This book teaches readers this double work of using culture to understand children s literature and vice versa This volume traces the scholarly methodologies and histories that have attended the study of each of the 20 chapters given subject from the representation of race in and around children s literature to questions of censorship to how libraries can and do shape children s literature In the process it prepares readers to confidently enter and forward scholarly debates and to teach such debates to their own students

Prologue, 2010 RePresenting Magic, UnDoing Evil: Of Human Inner Light and Darkness Alexandra Cheira, 2020-04-14 This volume was first published by Inter Disciplinary Press in 2012 The chapters assembled in this e Book are a taste of an ongoing discussion on evil and magic which promises to last as long as the only thing necessary for the triumph of evil is for good men to do nothing and while the realisation that magic is believing in yourself if you can do that you can make anything happen does not become a global motto The first group of chapters collected in Part I addresses the ethics and effects of translating magic into literary representations as well as real life current practices of creativity and personal change on the one hand and of the harmful malevolent infliction of pain on a third party on another thus challenging the boundaries of the cultural binary constructions of magic as either good or evil In Part II the second group of chapters examines several philosophical theological historical literary political and pop culture attempts towards understanding different meanings and kinds of evil thus broadening our perception of what evil is and how it has been theorized from Plato to contemporary international politics This is our time our call our responsibility to undo evil by carrying the magical torch of good to the next station so that good as if by magic can also become contagious among the human kind

Reimagining Human-Animal Relations in the Circumpolar North Peter Whitridge, Erica Hill, 2023-12-21 This volume provides fresh insight into northern human animal relations and illustrates the breadth and practical utility of archaeological human animal studies It surveys recent archaeological research in northern North America and Eurasia that frames human animal relations as not merely economically exploitative but often socially complex and deeply meaningful and attuned to the intelligence and agency of nonhuman prey and domesticates The case studies sample a wide swath of the circumpolar region from Alaska Nunavut and Greenland to northern Fennoscandia and western Siberia and span sites finds and scenarios ranging in age from the Mesolithic to the twenty first century Many taxa on which northern lives hinged figure in these analyses including large marine mammals polar bear reindeer marine fish and birds and are variously approached from relational multispecies semiotic osteobiographical and political economic perspectives Animals themselves are represented by osteological remains harvesting gear and depictions of animal bodies that include zoomorphic figurines

petroglyphs ornamentation and intricate portrayals of human animal harvesting encounters Far from settling the problem of how archaeologists should approach northern human animal relations these chapters reveal the irreducible complexity of northern worlds and highlight the diversity of human and nonhuman animal lives This book will be of particular interest to northern archaeologists and zooarchaeologists and all those interested in the possibilities of a multispecies approach to the archaeological record
