Epstein,John Y. Lee,2008-12-24 Features articles on a variety of topics in management accounting that are relevant to researchers in both practice and academe This work is suitable for management accounting scholars     Cost & Management Accounting - An Introduction ,2007     Management and Cost Accounting Andreas Taschner,Michel Charifzadeh,2020-09-01 Management and cost accounting has been the basic toolbox in business administration for decades Today it is an integral part of all curricula in business education and no student can afford not to be familiar with its basic concepts and instruments At the same time business in general and management accounting in particular is becoming more and more international English clearly has evolved as the lingua franca of international business Academics students as well as practitioners exchange their views and ideas discuss concepts and communicate with each other in English This is certainly also true for cost accounting and management accounting Management Accounting is becoming increasingly international Management and Cost Accounting is a new English language textbook covering concepts and instruments of cost and management accounting at an introductory level Bachelor but also suited for MBA courses due to strong focus on practical applications and cases This textbook covers all topics that are relevant in management accounting in business organizations and that are typically covered in German and Central European Bachelor classes on cost accounting and management accounting After an introduction to the topic including major differences between the German approach and the purely Anglo Saxon approach of management accounting the book describes different cost terms and concepts applied in German cost accounting The book is much more specific here compared to US American standard textbooks Based on different cost concepts the topic of cost behavior is discussed including the determination of cost functions The heart of the book guides the reader through the general structure of a fully developed cost accounting system following the German and Central European standard It starts with cost type accounting moves on to cost center accounting and finally deals with cost unit accounting assigning cost to goods and services offered in the market The remaining parts of the book deal with decision making and how management and cost accounting data can support managers in this task A comparison of absorption costing and variable costing introduces the reader to management decisions such as product portfolio and outsourcing decisions Additionally cost volume profit analysis break even analysis is covered The book closes with a comprehensive treatment of cost planning and variance analysis

Management Accounting and Asian Perspectives Carsten Berkau, Keabetswe Sylvia Berkau, Mohd Ridzuan Darun, 2021-10-18 The book starts with a comparison of financial accounting and management accounting both discussed based on the production firm PENOR Ltd It further demonstrates accounting work in support of general management CVP analysis DOL performance measurement risk management and M A as well as cost accounting structures for absorption and marginal cost accounting systems internal cost allocations reporting monitoring manufacturing accounting calculation contribution margin accounting and activity based costing The content is explained by detailed case studies This Asia edition also includes real case studies about companies in Malaysia All chapters outline the learning objectives provide an overview include case studies and how it is done paragraphs They end with a summary the explanation of new technical terms and a question bank with solutions for checking your learning progress On the internet you can find more than 300 exam tasks with solutions as well as youtube videos from the authors

Management Education and Humanities Barbara Czarniawska-Joerges, 2006 Academics and managers who strive for a humanistic management education usually care for people but they are challenged by sophisticated intellectual subjects and practical problems The authors experience competence and commitment enables them to present an extensive coverage of important views and an in depth study of these issues Eduard Bonet ESADE Spain This volume is a timely initiative It resonates with important questions on globalization and its consequences on the unrelenting quest for efficiency and productivity on recent corporate scandals and on the responsibilities of managers and management education This book is a manifesto for an intellectual revolution In a complex and open world managers often bump into the limits of the decontextualized tools associated with mainstream management knowledge and practice Managers have to navigate in a world that is not only economic but also political cultural shaped by history and ethical traditions and preoccupations not only as a mark of social capital but really as a way to enhance their managerial skills and efficiency The role of management education should be to prepare them for that odyssey and this volume tells us that humanities could be a powerful tool in that sense This project is served by a highly legitimate international panel of contributors who collectively point towards an alternative for management thinking and management education Marie Laure Djelic ESSEC Business School France Management Education and Humanities argues that management teachers and researchers seem to be increasingly dissatisfied with the way managers are usually educated in western countries It claims that educational practices and methods would greatly benefit from reflection on the implicit assumptions and paradigms behind those practices and debates the role that humanism and humanities might play in the formation of new managerial elites The book examines three themes that have emerged as central to the contemporary debate on management education the profession of management humanism as a philosophy and worldview and the humanities as an academic field where management schools could find new inspirations for curricula All three themes are scrutinized in a frame of reference extended between two different points of view the traditional view with its tendency to idealize and even sometimes romanticize humanism the humanities and management as a social function and the past modern view which is inclined to skepticism and to the deconstruction of social and cultural phenomena Providing a lively account of this ongoing debate and exploring new trends and experiences in management education this book will be invaluable reading for teachers students and researchers of management management strategy and organizational behaviour
