Zulu Warriors John Laband, 2014-05-27 The Anglo Zulu War the most famous of Britain's late nineteenth century campaigns of colonial conquest was not fought in isolation Along with the two Anglo Pedi wars the Ninth Cape Frontier War and the Northern Border War it was one in a brutal series of interconnected and overlapping wars which the British waged between 1877 1879 to crush and disarm the remaining independent black states of South Africa Fusing the widely differing African and European perspectives on events the author probes the fateful decisions taken by statesmen and military commanders analyses military operations and their destructive impact on combatants and civilians alike and explores why so many Africans chose to fight as auxiliaries and levies alongside the British instead of against them

Jacket The African-British Long Eighteenth Century Tcho Mbaimba Caulker, 2009-03-16 Tracing the development of British colonial administration in West Africa over the course of the long eighteenth century Caulker illuminates the solidification of the administration as it goes through a learning process of power This book analyzes the documents and treaties that the indigenous peoples of eighteenth century Sierra Leone made with their future British colonizers and compares them with the writings of Adam Smith to uncover a colonial philosophy linking European economic success with the process of civilizing Africa through moral education A discussion of other archival materials demonstrates the ways that an emerging anthropological science and pseudo scientific methodology contributed to colonial ventures and exploration The book concludes with an analysis of the postcolonial novel The Last Harmattan of Alusine Dunbar demonstrating that the study of this long eighteenth century archive has as much to do with the present postcolonial era as it does with the period of African colonization

Imagining the United States of Africa E. Ike Udogu, 2015-02-10 This book frames the debates around the pressing desire for some form of unification that found expression in the pan Africanist movement and formation of the Organization of African Unity in Addis Ababa Ethiopia in 1963 following the advent of home rule for many former colonies of the Western powers Discussions in this volume address the following fundamental issues nationalism and political integration and how the contradictions between both philosophies can be resolved the amelioration of corruption in order to attract internal and external investments critical for developing the vast natural resources housed in the continent the need for Africa's adaptation to the ideology and practice of capitalism and liberal globalization to suit the character of African states in a projected federal United States of Africa solutions to ethnic conflicts that are bound to happen over clashes of competing group interests the indispensability and promotion of information communication technologies and urgent need to strengthen a network of regional electric power grids that would provide constant energy to the Union and lead to improvement in communication and economic growth and recommendation of social democracy as the genre of democracy suitable for a proposed United States of Africa Epistemic Freedom in Africa Sabelo

Ndlovu-Gatsheni, 2018-06-27 Epistemic Freedom in Africa is about the struggle for African people to think theorize interpret the world and write from where they are located unencumbered by Eurocentrism The imperial denial of common humanity to some human beings meant that in turn their knowledges and experiences lost their value their epistemic virtue Now in the twenty first century descendants of enslaved displaced colonized and racialized peoples have entered academies across the world proclaiming loudly that they are human beings their lives matter and they were born into valid and legitimate knowledge systems that are capable of helping humanity to transcend the current epistemic and systemic crises Together they are engaging in diverse struggles for cognitive justice fighting against the epistemic line which haunts the twenty first century The renowned historian and decolonial theorist Sabelo J Ndlovu Gatsheni offers a penetrating and well argued case for centering Africa as a legitimate historical unit of analysis and epistemic site from which to interpret the world whilst simultaneously making an equally strong argument for globalizing knowledge from Africa so as to attain ecologies of knowledges This is a dual process of both deprovincializing Africa and in turn provincializing Europe The book highlights how the mental universe of Africa was invaded and colonized the long standing struggles for an African university and the trajectories of contemporary decolonial movements such as Rhodes Must Fall and Fees Must Fall in South Africa This landmark work underscores the fact that only once the problem of epistemic freedom has been addressed can Africa achieve political cultural economic and other freedoms This groundbreaking new book is accessible to students and scholars across Education History Philosophy Ethics African Studies Development Studies Politics International Relations Sociology Postcolonial Studies and the emerging field of Decolonial Studies The Open Access versions Chapter 1 and Chapter 9 available at <https://doi.org/10.4324/9780429492204> have been made available under a Creative Commons Attribution Non Commercial No Derivatives 4.0 license Integral Polity Ronnie Lessem, Ibrahim Abouleish, Louis Herman, 2016-05-23 Releasing the genius of an individual an enterprise and a society is a central pre occupation of the contemporary business environment A fascinating approach to how we can begin to tackle this challenge is presented by the authors of Integral Polity Integral spirituality integral philosophy and the integral age at an overall or holistic level of consciousness has therefore become a strong enough idea to form the genesis of a movement over the course of the last half century Taking as a starting point the ground breaking work of the Trans4m Centre for Integral Development this book applies such an integral notion to the realms of business economics and enterprise To be successful an integral approach must recognise the nuances of its environment an integral approach in India is different from that in Indonesia or Iceland and they may in fact complement rather than conflict Therefore this book also provides a fascinating alignment of such integrality with and between different southern and eastern northern and western worlds Using case studies ranging across the globe this review of a newly integral theory and practice provides a new lease of life to what may increasingly be perceived as the self seeking insulated and occasionally violent and corrupt realm of the political

Encyclopedia of the Peoples of Africa and the Middle East Jamie Stokes, 2009 Encyclopedia of the Peoples of Africa and the Middle East is a two volume A to Z reference to the history and culture of the peoples of Africa and the Middle East

Print Culture in Southern Africa Caroline Davis, Archie Dick, Elizabeth le Roux, Dennis Walder, 2021-07-29 Print Culture in Southern Africa is concerned with the institutions and processes informing textual production circulation and consumption in the region over a broad historical period from the late 18th century to the present day The book is organised around three closely related themes Firstly it presents original research into the formation of reading publics and the impact of reading cultures by uncovering obscure but important reading communities and circuits of book distribution and reception A second theme is the relationship between print and politics with a particular focus on the networks of power how control over the production and circulation of printed books has shaped literary and cultural development The third theme is transnational print culture and how the control exercised by publishers in Europe and America has shaped literature and society in southern Africa Drawing together interdisciplinary research and diverse methodologies the collection encompasses a range of perspectives including literary studies anthropology publishing studies the history of the book and art history and many of the chapters are based on previously unexamined archives and collections The volume contributes to current debates and opens up new and exciting ways of furthering the study of postcolonial literature and African book history The chapters included in this book were originally published in the Journal of Southern African Studies

From African Peer Review Mechanisms to African Queer Review Mechanisms? Nhemachena, Artwell, Warikandwa, Tapiwa Victor, 2019-04-22 Tracing recent bouts of globalised Mugabephobia to Robert Mugabe's refusal to be neoimperially penetrated this book juxtaposes economic liberalisation with the mounting liberalisation of African orifices Reading land repossession and economic structural adjustment programmes together with what they call neoimperial structural adjustment of African orifices the authors argue that there has been liberalisation of African orifices in a context where Africans are ironically prevented from repossessing their material resources Juxtaposing recent bouts of Mugabephobia with discourses on homophobia the book asks why empire prefers liberalising African orifices rather than attending to African demands for restitution restoration and reparations Noting that empire opposes African sovereignty autonomy and centralisation of power while paradoxically promoting transnational corporations centralisation of power over African economies the book challenges contemporary discourses about shared sovereignty distributed governance heterarchy heteronomy and onticology Arguing that colonialists similarly denied Africans of their human essence the tome problematises queer sexualities homosexuality ecosexuality cybersexuality and humanoid robotic sexuality all of which complicate supposedly fundamental distinctions between human beings and animals and machines Provocatively questioning queer sexuality and liberalised orifices that serve to divert African attention from the more serious unfinished business of repossessing material resources the book insightfully compares Robert Gabriel Mugabe Thomas Sankara and Julius Kambarage Nyerere who emphasised the imperatives of African autonomy ownership control and sovereignty over natural resources Observing Africans interest in repossessing ownership and control over their resources the book wonders why so much queer international attention is focused on foisting queer sexuality while downplaying more burning issues of resource repossession human dignity equality and equity craved by Africans for whom life is not confined to sexuality With insights for scholars in sociology development studies law politics African studies anthropology transformation decolonisation and decoloniality the book argues that liberal democracy is a fa ade in a world that is actually ruled through criminocracy
