The Living Qur'ān Ali J. Hussain, 2023-06-06 This work aims to distill the findings of a wide variety of scholarly disciplines into a coherent narrative of the Qur'n's history from the first oral recitation to the four published Variants in active circulation today In the process of unraveling the complicated relationships between the oral Qur'n and the written Qur'n it becomes clear that there are in fact two histories of the Qur'n and that the overall history of the Qur'n cannot be appreciated without understanding the interactions between these two occasionally intertwined but often independent component histories Discrepancies between the four qur'nic Variants that are in active use today are indexed and analyzed While most scholarship views the Qur'n either in relation to its past and its possible origins or in relation to its contemporary status as a static fixed text this work adopts an organic developmental approach recognizing that the Qur'n is a living text that continues to evolve

Intertidal History in Island Southeast Asia Jennifer L. Gaynor, 2016-06-15 Intertidal History in Island Southeast Asia shows the vital part maritime Southeast Asians played in struggles against domination of the seventeenth century spice trade by local and European rivals. Looking beyond the narrative of competing mercantile empires, it draws on European and Southeast Asian sources to illustrate Sama sea people's alliances and intermarriage with the sultanate of Makassar and the Bugis realm of Bone. Contrasting with later portrayals of the Sama as stateless pirates and sea gypsies, this history of shifting political and interethnic ties among the people of Sulawesi's littorals and its land based realms along with their shared interests on distant coasts exemplifies how regional maritime dynamics interacted with social and political worlds above the high water mark.
