the system fosters and the tremendous pride shared by those who wear the coveted Citadel ring Best known for its Corps of Cadets the Citadel attracts students who desire a college education within a classical military system in which leadership and character training are essential parts of the overall experience Any romanticized notion of military bravado is quickly shattered the moment students set foot on campus and their parents drive away Many cadets are left wondering What have I signed up for Worley's stories shed light on the pain and the pride explaining why he says most cadets at the Citadel hated the place while they were there and loved everything about it once they'd graduated They were bonded together for life Perhaps that's the greatest thing the Citadel did for them
