Global to Local Curriculum Policy Processes Susan Ledger, Lesley Vidovich, Tom O'Donoghue, 2014-08-20 This book explores the dynamics of curriculum policy processes involved in the adoption production and enactment of the International Baccalaureate Primary Years Programme IBPYP accredited by the International Baccalaureate Organization IBO It addresses deficits in current literature and provides insight into and the complexities involved within a framework that takes cognisance of the relationships between global regional national and local levels of education policy processes In doing so it contributes to the current body of research on international education remote education and policy processes The IBPYP is one of the three programmes that go to make up the increasingly popular suite of programmes offered by the IBO Given the exponential growth of international schools caused by an ever changing globalized world and a mobile workforce international curriculum policy is becoming more complex This has lead to a recognition of the need for a range of policy analysis studies in the field The study presented in this book was conceptualised in the light of such recognition This relatively uncharted field has been explored by focusing on one of the most unusual settings Accordingly the adoption production and enactment of the IBPYO at three remote international schools has been examined The study also addresses how the phenomena of international schools and remote schools complement or compete with each other This results in a better understanding of the educational policies informing both international schools and remote schools and the interconnectivity that might exist between them

Second Language Students in English-Medium Classrooms Coreen Sears, 2015 This practical guide is for all teachers administrators and parents of children in international schools with students from linguistically and culturally diverse backgrounds It includes references to the latest uses of embedded technology and many exemplary strategies and resources that are becoming customary usage in international schools

The International Baccalaureate in Asia Moosung Lee, Ewan Wright, Allan Walker, 2024-12-23 Drawing on extensive scholarly work datasets and experience with International Baccalaureate IB schools in Asia this book illuminates contemporary debates discussions and discoveries surrounding IB schools in the region Schools adopting IB programmes are growing exponentially worldwide where Asia has seen the fastest growth since 2000 By critically exploring the roles practices and impacts of IB schools this book enhances our understanding of whether and how IB programmes can drive improvements in school practices and systems in Asia The book is organised into four parts and 12 chapters aiming to discern the light and shadow of schools implementing IB programmes Part 1 provides insights into International Baccalaureate Diploma Programme IBDP students learning experiences and outcomes Part 2 focuses on school leadership examining the role of leadership in programme implementation and its relationship with IBDP student achievement Part 3 offers a comparative perspective on the IB exploring topics such as the pedagogical characteristics of the Middle Years Programme MYP the introduction of IB programmes into local and national education systems and comparing the promised and actual benefits between the IBDP and other international programmes Finally Part 4 addresses two critical issues related to the expansion of IB programmes in Asia the introduction and operation of IB programmes within national contexts and the emergence of educational stratifications and inequalities by the expansion of IB schools Built on substantial data and empirical studies this book fills a crucial gap in understanding the evolving nature of IB programmes in Asia It provides readers with a critical and comprehensive understanding of the changing landscape of IB schooling practices and systems in the region This book is an invaluable resource for academics educators scholars and graduate students in the fields of educational leadership and administration comparative and international education higher education and education policy and governance      Oxford IB Diploma Programme: Extended Essay Course Companion Kosta Lekanides,2016-10-13 Equip learners to achieve in the Extended Essay The only support matched to the new IB Guide this essential resource provides learners with a step by step pathway to maximize achievement With complete guidance for every aspect of writing and researching use this resource to strengthen performance Equip learners to fully understand and address each requirement with a fully comprehensive outline of the assessment criteria Enable effective planning with step by step guidance on independent research techniques Build the skills central to performance in the Extended Essay with techniques and strategies that support success Fully support the new IB guide first assessed in 2018      International Education and Schools Richard Pearce,2013-10-24 Over the last forty years the estimated number of international schools worldwide has increased from fewer than 300 to 6400 in 2012 This explosion is a response to the needs of a world in which borders are being traversed with ever greater ease and children increasingly need to be prepared for the global opportunities that await them In this book international school specialists reflect on where the movement has come from how it stands and where developments are heading offering insightful observations on these unique institutions This is a comprehensive resource for students researchers and professionals with an interest in the future of education in a globalized world      Gifted?: The shift to enrichment, challenge and equity Morgan Whitfield,2024-07-19 Gifted and talented is a zombie It is dead but still walking around There are new labels to stratify students more able significantly able high aptitude learners New labels do not equal new thinking The concept of gifted is still stubbornly embedded in our educational structures with its legacy of social immobility racism and sexism Students can be more able when they have more financial resources more access more visibility or more cultural acceptance There are pervasive narratives that educators should prioritise extension for some students and not others We can dispel the myth that pitching lessons judiciously to middle ability and then differentiating up and down is effective This book explores how we can provide every student with rigorous challenge Challenge for all is an inclusive approach to teaching whereby every student is invited and given the tools to reach a place of mastery This can be through project based learning Harkness round tables oracy adaptive teaching inclusive enrichment programs dynamic classroom strategies and a schoolwide mission for equity Educators can embed powerful knowledge into the curriculum reimagine teaching to the top and stretch learners through personalised and responsive instruction The shift to enrichment challenge and equity creates magnificent possibilities The message to all students is you belong here Introducing the IB Diploma Programme Marc Abrioux, Jill Rutherford, 2013-02-14 Schools wishing to introduce the IB diploma programme are faced with major investment in terms of time effort and money in order to become authorised This manual is a resource for schools already offering the diploma as well as for prospective diploma schools Schule im Prozess der Internationalisierung von Bildung Sabine Hornberg, 2010 Abstract Diese Studie besch ftigt sich mit internationalen Schultypen die von der deutschsprachigen Erziehungswissenschaft bisher weitgehend vernachl ssigt wurden In einem ideographischen Vergleich werden Genese Bildungs und Erziehungsziele Organisationsformen und Unterrichtsinhalte von Schulen mit einem explizit europ ischen Bezug Europa Schulen und Europ ische Schulen und mit internationalen Bez gen UNESCO Projektschulen und Internationale Schulen herausgearbeitet und mit dem neo institutionalistischen world polity Ansatz theoretisch eingeordnet Diese Studie bleibt jedoch nicht an dieser Stelle stehen sondern kann zeigen dass die Internationalen Schulen und mit ihnen verbunden Organisationen Merkmale aufweisen die dem unl ngst in der Erziehungswissenschaft aufgekommenen Konzept Transnationaler Bildungs r ume entsprechen Die Ergebnisse dieser Studie liefern mithin Ansatzpunkte f r die Weiterarbeit in diesem noch jungen Feld der Erziehungswissenschaft DIPF Orig The SAGE Handbook of Research in International Education Mary Hayden, Jeff Thompson, Jack Levy, 2007-01-03 The editors of the SAGE Handbook of Research in International Education have brought together an impressive array of scholars whose cutting edge research addresses the growing field of international education from the experiences of K 12 schools around the world to the field of teacher education This book raises important questions and should be read by a broad audience Kenneth Cushner Executive Director of International Affairs and Professor of Education Kent State University The editors of this admirable handbook have set out to produce a report on international education Their consummate success in doing so gives those of us working in the field a new and invaluable resource The editors may be academics but this is a book largely written by about and for those whose job it is to teach internationally No one working in international education will fail to be provoked challenged or inspired by the compelling arguments advanced within this authoritative volume Peter MacKenzie Principal Hiroshima International School The book is well organized in carefully integrated sections and chapters and the references alone are a valuable bibliographical tool An indispensable work highly recommended for education reference collections and the libraries of individual researchers J B Thomas Emeritus Professor of Educational Studies Loughborough University Interest in the field of international education has never been more intense than at present There are a rapidly increasing number of schools worldwide set up specifically to meet the demands of those parents who through their own professional activities wish to have their sons and daughters educated in schools that offer programmes based on international values Such schools have embraced the promotion of international education as one of their major goals and consequently an increasing number of organisations currently offer curricula that claim to be international in nature. Such global movements have created a parallel increase in the incorporation of forms of international education within national school systems throughout the world. This has resulted in wider forms of collaboration between schools in the public and private sectors nationally and internationally generating a much more substantial base of professional experience in the implementation of schemes for international education than had previously existed. This book analyses the origins, contributions and interpretations of international education. The authors identify approaches to research that will progress our knowledge and understanding of the field and extend and even redraw it on the basis of the research evidence presented. Content includes: A historical overview of the ways in which the term international education has been interpreted; The theoretical interpretation of international education in its current context; International education in practice; exploration of the issues in terms of students, curricula, pedagogies and organising formal institutions; Conceptual challenges for international education in the future. This handbook is an essential resource for those who are involved in the practice and academic study of international education. It will be of particular interest to researchers and teachers in universities, governmental and private curriculum development agencies, examination authorities, administrators and teachers in schools. This volume is another valuable SAGE contribution to the expanding literature on international education. Not all handbooks are described as essential reading but this one will be and will become an indispensable work of reference highly recommended for education libraries both academic and governmental and for the bookshelves of individual researchers and all involved in international education. The three editors and their fellow authors can take a collective pride in having given us an excellent volume which very successfully completes a chronological and theoretical journey through the issues, practices and future questions presented by international research and practice in international education.
