Mary Wollstonecraft Shelley Harold Bloom, 2009 Presents a collection of critical essays on Mary Shelley and her works and includes a chronology of events in the author's life Mary Shelley Charlotte Gordon, 2022-03-24 Very Short Introductions Brilliant Sharp Inspiring In 1816 when eighteen year old Mary Godwin began writing Frankenstein the idea that a woman could dream up such a tale was as far fetched as raising a being from the dead But Mary wasn't just any woman The daughter of two notorious radicals Mary had become an outcast from English society when she was only sixteen A lifelong advocate for the rights of women she refused to be governed by social conventions running away with a married man having children out of wedlock and authoring books stories and essays that broke literary conventions This Very Short Introduction explores the context background and important themes contained in Shelley's most famous novel Frankenstein as well as demonstrating the importance of her work after Frankenstein Over the course of her long career Shelley developed a distinctive voice and a political and philosophical stance Exploring key themes throughout Shelley's work Charlotte Gordon shows how she devoted herself to the propositions her mother Mary Wollstonecraft outlined in A Vindication of the Rights of Woman that women are equal to men that all people deserve the same rights that human reason and the capacity for love can reform the world and that every person is entitled to justice and freedom ABOUT THE SERIES The Very Short Introductions series from Oxford University Press contains hundreds of titles in almost every subject area These pocket sized books are the perfect way to get ahead in a new subject quickly Our expert authors combine facts analysis perspective new ideas and enthusiasm to make interesting and challenging topics highly readable Queer Friendship George E. Haggerty, 2018-03-29 Friendship in the classical world was celebrated as among the highest human achievements nothing was more likely to lead to the divine than looking for it in the eyes of a friend In exploring the complexities of male male relations beyond the simple labels of sexuality Queer Friendship shows how love between men has a rich and varied history in English literature The friend could offer a reflection of one's own worth and a celebration of a kind of mutuality that was not connected to family or home These same sex friendships are memorable because they give shape to the novels of which they are a part and question the assumption that the love between friends is different from the love between lovers Queer Friendship explores English literary friendship in three ways the elegiac the erotic and the platonic by considering a myriad of works including Sterne's Tristram Shandy Tennyson's In Memoriam A H H and Dickens' Great Expectations Jungian Arts-Based Research and "The Nuclear Enchantment of New Mexico" Susan Rowland, Joel Weislaus, 2020-07-26 Jungian Arts Based Research and The Nuclear Enchantment of New Mexico provides clear accessible and in depth guidance both for arts based researchers using Jung's ideas and for Jungian scholars undertaking arts based research The book provides a central extended example which applies the techniques described to the full text of Joel Weislaus prose poem The Nuclear Enchantment of New Mexico published here for the first time Designed as a how to book Jungian Arts Based Research and The Nuclear Enchantment of New Mexico explores how Jung contributes to the new arts based paradigm in psychic functions such as intuition by providing an epistemology of symbols that includes the unconscious and research strategies such as active imagination Rowland examines Jung's The Red Book as an early example of Jungian arts based research and demonstrates how this practice challenges the convention of the detached researcher by providing holistic knowing Arts based researchers will find here a psychic dimension that also manifests in transdisciplinarity while those familiar with Jung's work will find in arts based research ways to foster diversity for a decolonized academy This unique project will be essential reading for Jungian and post Jungian academics and scholars arts based researchers of all backgrounds and readers interested in transdisciplinarity The Technology of the Novel Tony E. Jackson, 2009-05-13 The connection between speech and writing in human language has been a matter of philosophical debate since antiquity By plumbing the depths of this complex relationship Tony E Jackson explains how the technology of alphabetic writing has determined the nature of the modern novel Jackson's analysis begins with the universal human act of oral storytelling While telling stories is fundamental to human experience writing is not Yet the novel perhaps more than any other literary form depends on writing In fact as Jackson shows quite clearly it is writing rather than print that most shapes the forms and contents of the genre Through striking new readings of works by Austen Mary Shelley Dickens Forster Woolf Lessing and McEwan Jackson reveals how the phenomena of speech and storytelling interact with the technological characteristics of writing He also explains how those interactions induced the generic changes in the novel from its eighteenth century beginnings to postmodernism and beyond

His claims grounded in a contemporary understanding of human cognitive capacities and constraints offer a fresh interpretive approach to all written literature An essential text in the study of the written word The Technology of the Novel provides new insights into the evolving nature of one of the modern world's most popular narrative forms Ecocriticism and the Idea of Culture Helena Feder, 2016-04-29 Ecocriticism and the Idea of Culture Biology and the Bildungsroman draws on work by Kinji Imanishi Frans de Waal and other biologists to create an interdisciplinary materialist notion of culture for ecocritical analysis In this timely intervention Feder examines the humanist idea of culture by taking a fresh look at the stories it explicitly tells about itself These stories fall into the genre of the Bildungsroman the tale of individual acculturation that participates in the myth of its complete separation from and opposition to nature which Feder argues is culture's own origin story Moving from Voltaire's Candide to Mary Shelley's Frankenstein and from Virginia Woolf's Orlando to Jamaica Kincaid's Lucy the book dramatizes humanism's own awareness of the fallacy of this foundational binary In the final chapters Feder examines the discourse of animality at work in this narrative as a humanist fantasy about empathy one that paradoxically excludes other animals from the ethical community to justify the continued domination of both human and nonhuman others thinking across disciplines Electrified Democracy Andrew Blick,2021-07 An examination in historical context of the approach the UK Parliament has taken towards the Internet and its wider implications Romantic Sustainability Ben P. Robertson,2015-12-24 Romantic Sustainability is a collection of sixteen essays that examine the British Romantic era in ecocritical terms Written by scholars from five continents this international collection addresses the works of traditional Romantic writers such as John Keats Percy Shelley William Wordsworth Lord Byron and Samuel Coleridge but also delves into ecocritical topics related to authors added to the canon more recently such as Elizabeth Inchbald and John Clare The essays examine geological formations clouds and landscapes as well as the posthuman and the monstrous The essays are grouped into rough categories that start with inspiration and the imagination before moving to the varied types of consumption associated with human interaction with the natural world Subsequent essays in the volume focus on environmental destruction monstrous creations and apocalypse The common theme is sustainability as each contributor examines Romantic ideas that intersect with ecocriticism and relates literary works to questions about race gender religion and identity The Palgrave Handbook of Gothic Origins Clive Bloom,2022-01-01 This handbook provides a comprehensive overview of research on the Gothic Revival The Gothic Revival was based on emotion rather than reason and when Horace Walpole created Strawberry Hill House a gleaming white castle on the banks of the Thames he had to create new words to describe the experience of gothic lifestyle Nevertheless Walpole s house produced nightmares and his book The Castle of Otranto was the first truly gothic novel with supernatural sensational and Shakespearean elements challenging the emergent fiction of social relationships The novel s themes of violence tragedy death imprisonment castle battlements dungeons fair maidens secrets ghosts and prophecies led to a new genre encompassing prose theatre poetry and painting whilst opening up a whole world of imagination for entrepreneurial female writers such as Mary Shelley Joanna Baillie and Ann Radcliffe whose immensely popular books led to the intense inner landscapes of the Bronte sisters Matthew Lewis s The Monk created a new gothic atheistic decadent perverse necrophilic and hellish The social upheaval of the French Revolution and the emergence of the Romantic movement with its more intense and often atheistic self absorption led the gothic into darker corners of human experience with a greater emphasis on the inner life hallucination delusion drug addiction mental instability perversion and death and the emerging science of psychology The intensity of the German experience led to an emphasis on doubles and schizophrenic behaviour ghosts spirits mesmerism the occult and hell This volume charts the origins of this major shift in social perceptions and completes a trilogy of Palgrave Handbooks on the Gothic combined they provide an exhaustive survey of current research in Gothic studies a go to for students and researchers alike Brill's Companion to the Reception of Aeschylus Rebecca Futo Kennedy,2017-09-25 Brill s Companion to the Reception of Aeschylus explores the various ways Aeschylus tragedies have been discussed parodied translated revisioned adapted and integrated into other works over the course of the last 2500 years Immensely popular while alive Aeschylus reception begins in his own lifetime And while he has not been the most reproduced of the three Attic tragedians on the stage since then his receptions have transcended genre and crossed to nearly every continent While still engaging with Aeschylus theatrical reception the volume also explores Aeschylus off the stage in radio the classroom television political theory philosophy science fiction and beyond A Genealogy of Cyborgothic Dongshin Yi, 2017-03-02 In his provocative and timely study of posthumanism Dongshin Yi adopts an imaginary imaginative approach to exploring the transformative power of the cyborg a strategy that introduces balance to the current discourses dominated by the practicalities of technoscience and the dictates of anthropocentrism Proposing the term cyborgothic to characterize a new genre that may emerge from gothic literature and science fiction Yi introduces mothering as an aesthetic and ethical practice that can enable a posthumanist relationship between human and non human beings Yi examines the cyborg's literary manifestations in novels including The Mysteries of Udolpho Frankenstein Dracula Arrowsmith and He She and It alongside philosophical and critical texts such as Edmund Burke's A Philosophical Enquiry into the Origins of Our ideas of the Sublime and Beautiful Immanuel Kant's Critique of Judgment John Stuart Mill's Utilitarianism and System of Logic William James's essays on pragmatism ethical treatises on otherness and things feminist writings on motherhood and recent studies of posthumanism Arguing humans imagine the cyborg in ways that are seriously limited by fear of the unknown and current understandings of science and technology Yi identifies in gothic literature a practice of the beautiful that extends the operation of sensibility heightened by gothic manifestations or situations to surrounding objects and people so that new feelings flow in and attenuate fear In science fiction which demonstrates how society has accommodated science Yi locates ethical corrections to the anthropocentric trajectory that such accommodation has taken Thus A Genealogy of Cyborgothic imagines a new literary genre that helps envision a cyborg friendly non anthropocentric posthuman society Encoded with gothic literature's aesthetic embrace of fear and science fiction's ethical criticism of anthropocentrism the cyborgothic retains the prospective nature of these genres and develops mothering as an aesthetico ethical practice that both humans and cyborgs should perform
