Essays On Islam And Indian History By Richard Maxwell Eaton:

Essays on Islam and Indian History Richard Maxwell Eaton, 2000 Spanning some twenty five years of research and writing the essays in this volume fall into two categories historiography and Indo Islamic civilization The former deals with how historians structure and answer the questions they choose to ask of the past the latter covers case studies of particular historical communities in India      The Indian Way John M Koller, 2016-05-23 There is no other book that explains both the philosophies and religions of India in their full historical development The Indian Way is accessible to beginning students and does justice to the Indian tradition s richness of religious and philosophical thought Clear and powerful explanations of yajna and dharma and appealing intimate descriptions of Krishna Kali and Shiva allow students to read some of the great Indian texts for themselves      India and the Early Modern World Jagjeet Lally, 2023-12-20 India and the Early Modern World provides an authoritative and wide ranging survey of the Indian subcontinent over the fifteenth to eighteenth centuries set within a global context This book explores questions critical to our understanding of early modern India How for instance were Indians religious beliefs their ways of life and the horizons of their learning changing over this period What was happening in the countryside and towns to culture and the arts and to the state and its power Were such experiences comparable or linked to those in other parts of the world Can we speak of a global early modernity therefore within which India played an important role Organised thematically each chapter engages with such key issues debates and concepts covering wide ground as it connects compares and contrasts developments witnessed across early modern South Asia to those around the globe Drawing on the fruits of research in numerous fields over the past fifty years and rich in detail India and the Early Modern World is a pathbreaking volume written engagingly and accessibly with scholars students and non specialists in mind      Concise History of Islam Muzaffar Husain Syed, Syed Saud Akhtar, B D Usmani, 2011-09-14 In World History History of Islam is a glorious chapter In fact Muslim History involves the history of the Islamic faith as a religion and as a social institution Through various periods Islam made many a long stride and its influence spread far off over the globe Apart from religion Muslims made considerable contribution in areas like philosophy literature arts law economy science medicine and commerce etc At the academic level Muslim philosophers educationists and experts of Islamic law have made great contributions The evolution of Islam has impacted the political economic and military history of an enormous geographical region A century after the demise of Prophet Muhammad PbuH the Islamic empire extended from the Atlantic Ocean in the west to Central Asia in the east Islamic civilization gave rise to many centers of culture and science and produced notable philosophers scientists astronomers mathematicians doctors and nurses during the Golden Age of Islam In today s world Islam is one of the major religions and perhaps there is hardly any corner of the world where Muslims are not found History of Islam is a vast subject Here it is in a concise form This modest work a comprehensive book in one cover is an effort in the direction of recording the history of Islam in nutshell authentically This excellent book is an asset for all scholars and academics in all spheres of learning      Imperial Conversations Shanti Jayewardene-Pillai, 2007 The eighteenth century was a time of profound upheaval when economic and political control of southern India passed from native kings to the East India Company. Hand in hand with the resultant conflicts and skirmishes a process of cultural sharing was gaining ground which went on to manifest itself in the form of a flourishing imperial culture in the nineteenth century      Jaina Culture in Medieval Karnataka Julia A.B. Hegewald, 2025-04-21 Why did the Jainas in Karnataka plunge from a position of supremacy into one of severe dependency? After a steep and steady rise throughout the region from about the fifth century CE, Jaina influence waned dramatically from the late eleventh or early twelfth centuries onwards. In this publication, specialists in Indian history, religious studies and anthropology as well as historians of art and architecture discuss various expressions of this sudden and detrimental decline and explore the reasons for it, focusing in particular on the relations of the Jainas with Vraivas and Muslims. The evidence provided by the five international scholars who offer insights from different disciplinary backgrounds indicates that the reasons for the Jainas' loss of authority in the region were manifold. Certain internal triggers such as changes in Jaina social structure and religious practices adversely affected their position over time. In particular, however, the withdrawal of royal patronage, the success of the Vraivas as traders and the emergence in the area at this time of a number of competing religious groups caused the Jainas to slip into a position of strong asymmetrical dependency.

The Millennial Sovereign A. Azfar Moin, 2012 This book brings into dialogue two major fields of scholarship that are rarely studied together: sacred kingship and sainthood in Islam. In doing so, it offers an original perspective on both. In historical terms, the focus here is on the Mughal empire in sixteenth-century India and its antecedents and parallels in Timurid Central Asia and Safavid Iran. Introduction p. 1      Encyclopedia of Islamic Civilisation and Religion Ian Richard Netton, 2013-12-19 The Encyclopedia of Islamic Civilization and Religion provides scholarly coverage of the religion, culture and history of the Islamic world at a time when that world is undergoing considerable change and is a focus of international study and debate. The non-Muslim world's perceptions of Islam have often tended to be dominated by unrepresentative radical extremist movements and media interpretations of events involving such movements to the extent that many people are unaware of the depth and variety of Islamic thought. At the same time, many who have had a formal training in Islamic studies have tended to concentrate on the traditional to the exclusion of the contemporary. The Encyclopedia of Islamic Civilization and Religion covers the full range of Islamic thought in historical depth but it also provides substantial coverage of contemporary trends across the Muslim world. With well over a thousand entries on Islamic theology, history, arts, science, law and institutions and coverage of Islam in individual countries and cities around the world, the Encyclopedia of Islamic Civilization and Religion provides an extremely rich resource for students and researchers in religious studies and Middle Eastern studies. Entries are cross-referenced and bibliographies are provided. There is a full index. Routledge published The Quran: An Encyclopedia in 2005, an excellent companion to the Encyclopedia of Islamic Civilization and Religion      Sufism

in Punjab Surinder Singh, Ishwar Dayal Gaur, 2023-12-01 This anthology is a collective endeavor of scholars from India and Pakistan devoted to Sufi mystics literature and shrines with a detailed introduction The essays explore the methods adopted by the Punjab Sufis to popularize the mystic ideology and praxis in the medieval socio cultural milieu These writings also delve into the different genres of Sufi literature both in the elite and vernacular languages intending to appreciate the nuances of Punjab Sufism Apart from the architectural features of the Sufi shrines the anthology attempts to illumine the organic linkages between these institutions and the Punjabis and thus underscore the Sufi non communitarian devotion as a primary ingredient of the Punjabi cultural fusion This title is co published with Aakar Books Print editions not for sale in South Asia India Sri Lanka Nepal Bangladesh Pakistan and Bhutan What China and India Once Were Benjamin

Elman, Sheldon Pollock, 2018-09-25 In the early years of the twenty first century China and India have emerged as world powers In many respects this is a return to the historical norm for both countries For much of the early modern period China and India were global leaders in a variety of ways In this book prominent scholars seek to understand modern China and India through an unprecedented comparative analysis of their long histories Using new sources making new connections and reexamining old assumptions noted scholars of China and India pair up in each chapter to tackle major questions by combining their expertise What China and India Once Were details how these two cultural giants arrived at their present state considers their commonalities and divergences assesses what is at stake in their comparison and more widely questions whether European modernity provides useful contrasts In jointly composed chapters contributors explore ecology polity gender relations religion literature science and technology and more to provide the richest comparative account ever offered of China and India before the modern era What China and India Once Were establishes innovative frameworks for understanding the historical and cultural roots of East and South Asia in global context drawing on the variety of Asian pasts to offer new ways of thinking about Asian presents Anatomy of Dissent in Islamic Societies A. Souaiaia, 2013-12-17

Anatomy of Dissent in Islam is an interdisciplinary study of political and legal dissent in Islamic civilization from the seventh century on 7th century Using Ibadism as a case study this work explores the events and teachings that shaped legitimacy and rebellion orthodoxy and sectarianism and law and culture in Islamic societies The New Cambridge History of Islam: Volume 3, The Eastern Islamic World, Eleventh to Eighteenth Centuries David O. Morgan, Anthony Reid, 2010-11-04 This volume traces the second great expansion of the Islamic world eastwards from the eleventh century to the eighteenth As the faith crossed cultural boundaries the trader and the mystic became as important as the soldier and the administrator Distinctive Islamic idioms began to emerge from other great linguistic traditions apart from Arabic especially in Turkish Persian Urdu Swahili Malay and Chinese The Islamic world transformed and absorbed new influences As the essays in this collection demonstrate three major features distinguish the time and place from both earlier and modern experiences of Islam Firstly the steppe tribal peoples of central Asia had a decisive impact on the Islamic lands Secondly Islam expanded along the trade routes of the Indian Ocean and the South China Sea Thirdly Islam interacted with Asian spirituality including Hinduism Sikhism Buddhism Taoism and Shamanism It was during this period that Islam became a truly world religion

Reason and Politics in Medieval Islamic Thought Ovamir Anjum, 2008      Christianity in India Robert Eric Frykenberg, 2008-06-26 This study explores historical understandings of Christian communities cultures and institutions within the Indian world from their beginnings to the present time Frykenberg focuses on trans cultural interactions within Hindu and Muslim environments uncovering complexities as Christianity intermingled with indigenous cultures      India's Islamic Traditions, 711-1750 Richard Maxwell Eaton, 2003 This volume part of the Themes in Indian History series contains 17 essays on various aspects of Islamic traditions in South Asia spanning the course of 800 years plus an Introduction by the editor a well known expert in this field The essays cover a wide range of topics and provides a comprehensive summary of the rich diversity and cultural syncretism which are the hallmarks of the Islamic traditions in India It will become a standard text on the subject of Indian Islam      When Sun Meets Moon Scott Kugle, 2016-05-02 The two Muslim poets featured in Scott Kugle's comparative study lived separate lives during the eighteenth and early nineteenth centuries in the Deccan region of southern India Here they meet in the realm of literary imagination illuminating the complexity of gender sexuality and religious practice in South Asian Islamic culture Shah Siraj Awrangabadi 1715 1763 known as Sun was a Sunni who after a youthful homosexual love affair gave up sexual relationships to follow a path of personal holiness Mah Laqa Bai Chanda 1768 1820 known as Moon was a Shi'i and courtesan dancer who transferred her seduction of men to the pursuit of mystical love Both were poets in the Urdu language of the ghazal or love lyric often fusing a spiritual quest with erotic imagery Kugle argues that Sun and Moon expressed through their poetry exceptions to the general rules of heteronormativity and gender inequality common in their patriarchal societies Their art provides a lens for a more subtle understanding of both the reach and the limitations of gender roles in Islamic and South Asian culture and underscores how the arts of poetry music and dance are integral to Islamic religious life Integrated throughout are Kugle's translations of Urdu and Persian poetry previously unavailable in English      India's Bangladesh Problem Navine Murshid, 2023-04-06 An innovative analysis of the experience of Bengali Muslims on the Indian side of the India Bangladesh border      The Rise of Islam and the Bengal Frontier, 1204-1760 Richard Maxwell Eaton, 1993 In all of the South Asian subcontinent Bengal was the region most receptive to the Islamic faith This area today is home to the world's second largest Muslim ethnic population How and why did such a large Muslim population emerge there And how does such a religious conversion take place Richard Eaton uses archaeological evidence monuments narrative histories poetry and Mughal administrative documents to trace the long historical encounter between Islamic and Indic civilizations Moving from the year 1204 when Persianized Turks from North India annexed the former Hindu states of the lower Ganges delta to 1760 when the British East India Company rose to political dominance there Eaton explores these moving frontiers focusing especially on agrarian growth and religious change
