Essays on Skepticism, Relativism, and Ethics in the Zhuangzi Paul Kjellberg, P. J. Ivanhoe, Chair Professor of East Asian and Comparative Philosophy and Religion and Director of the Center for East Asian and Comparative Philosophy (Ceacop) Philip J Ivanhoe, 1996-01-01 The Chinese philosophical text Zhuangzi was written by Zhuangzi in the fourth century BCE With humor and relentless logic Zhuangzi attacks claims to knowledge about the world especially evaluative knowledge of what is good and bad or right and wrong This book is about the man and the text Ethics in the Zhuangzi Xiangnong Hu, Yong Huang, 2024-10-16 This book delves into a broad range of hitherto unresolved issues related to Zhuangzi's ethics which include but are not limited to the fundamental question of whether Zhuangzi should be regarded as a moralist in the ordinary sense and what Zhuangzi's views on topics such as equality moral relativism good life intersubjective relations and social harmony really are The twelve contributors to this book deliberate on these issues in six debates centering on recent influential publications in the field In each debate the relevant publications will be first challenged by their critic and then defended by their author through which different and competing interpretations of Zhuangzi's ethical themes will directly confront each other These author meets critic debates will not only reflect what is currently at stake in discussing Zhuangzi's ethics but also engage and enrich the state of the field today This volume serves as a good companion to scholars as well as graduate level students who are interested in gaining philosophical and ethical insights from Zhuangzi and Chinese philosophy in general Dao Companion to the Philosophy of the Zhuangzi Kim-chong Chong, 2022-09-21 This comprehensive collection brings out the rich and deep philosophical resources of the Zhuangzi It covers textual linguistic hermeneutical ethical social political and philosophical issues with the latter including epistemological metaphysical phenomenological and cross cultural Chinese and Western aspects The volume starts out with the textual history of the Zhuangzi and then examines how language is used in the text It explores this unique characteristic of the Zhuangzi in terms of its metaphorical forms its use of humour in deriding and parodying the Confucians and paradoxically making Confucius the spokesman for Zhuangzi's own point of view The volume discusses questions such as Why does Zhuangzi use language in this way and how does it work Why does he not use straightforward propositional language Why is language said to be inadequate to capture the dao and what is the nature of this dao The volume puts Zhuangzi in the philosophical context of his times and discusses how he relates to other philosophers such as Laozi Xunzi and the Logicians Zhuangzi's Critique of the Confucians Kim-chong Chong, 2016-10-24 Looks at the Daoist Zhuangzi's critique of Confucianism The Daoist Zhuangzi has often been read as a mystical philosopher But there is another tradition beginning with the Han dynasty historian Sima Qian which sees him as a critic of the Confucians Kim chong Chong analyzes the Inner Chapters of the Zhuangzi demonstrating how Zhuangzi criticized the pre Qin Confucians through metaphorical inversion and parody This is indicated by the subtitle Blinded by the Human which is an inversion of the Confucian philosopher Xunzi's remark that Zhuangzi was blinded by heaven and did not know the human Chong compares Zhuangzi's Daoist thought to Confucianism as exemplified by Confucius Mencius and Xunzi By analyzing and comparing the different implications of concepts such as heaven heart mind and transformation Chong shows how Zhuangzi can be said to provide the resources for a more pluralistic and liberal philosophy than the Confucians

The Poetic Character of Human Activity Wendell John Coats Jr., Chor-yung Cheung, 2012-07-21 The Poetic Character of Human Activity is a collection of essays by two Oakeshott scholars most of which explores the meaning of Oakeshott's pregnant phrase the poetic character of human activity by comparing and contrasting this idea with similar and opposing ones in particular those of the Taoist thinker Zhuangzi Chuang Tzu and his Western interpreter A C Graham Oakeshott's deep appreciation of the poetic and non instrumental character of human activity led him to develop an interest in the works of Zhuangzi and Confucius Comparison of shared themes between Oakeshott and these two Chinese thinkers facilitates appreciation of his elegant analytic style and his resort to use of metaphors and story telling when conveying some of his most profound insights The collection also contains essays contrasting Oakeshott's idea of the creative in human experience with views of among others Plato Leo Strauss and Eric Voegelin Oakeshott used the phrase the poetic character of human activity arguably the animating center of his entire thought to refer to the creative character of human experiential reality that is to the fact that the form the how and content the what of all human experience and activity arise simultaneously and fluidly and can be separated only at the expense of theoretical coherence and practical skill The various essays in this collection explore the meaning of this claim and its ramifications for the proper role of critical intellect in especially philosophy morality learning and governance There is also some brief contrast of Oakeshott with John Rawls Alasdair MacIntyre Charles Taylor and Quentin Skinner

Ritual and Religion in the Xunzi T. C. Kline III, Justin Tiwald, 2014-06-12 Xunzi a founding figure in the Confucian tradition is one of the world's great philosophers and theorists of religion For much of the last century his work has been seen largely as critical of religion particularly the popular beliefs and invocations of supernatural forces that underpin so many religious rituals Contributors to this volume challenge this view and offer a more sophisticated picture of Xunzi He emerges not as critic but rather as an adherent of religion who seeks to give religious practices meaning even though many religious beliefs are mistaken or self serving Each essay offers a powerful illustration of Xunzi as both a religious devotee and as a philosopher of religion drawing on a wide array of disciplines and methodologies

The Oneness Hypothesis Philip J. Ivanhoe, Owen Flanagan, Victoria S. Harrison, Eric Schwitzgebel, Hagop Sarkissian, 2018-06-26 The idea that the self is inextricably intertwined with the rest of the world the oneness hypothesis can be found in many of the world's philosophical and religious traditions Oneness provides ways to imagine and achieve a more expansive conception of the self as fundamentally connected with other people creatures and things Such views present profound challenges to Western hyperindividualism and its excessive concern with self interest and tendency toward self centered behavior This anthology presents a wide ranging interdisciplinary exploration of the nature and implications of the oneness hypothesis While fundamentally inspired by East and South Asian traditions in which such a view is often critical to their philosophical approach this collection also draws upon religious studies psychology and Western philosophy as well as sociology evolutionary theory and cognitive neuroscience Contributors trace the oneness hypothesis through the works of East Asian and Western schools including Confucianism Mohism Daoism Buddhism and Platonism and such thinkers as Zhuangzi Kant James and Dewey They intervene in debates over ethics cultural difference identity group solidarity and the positive and negative implications of metaphors of organic unity Challenging dominant views that presume that the proper scope of the mind stops at the boundaries of skin and skull The Oneness Hypothesis shows that a more relational conception of the self is not only consistent with contemporary science but has the potential to lead to greater happiness and well being for both individuals and the larger wholes of which they are parts Partial

Values Kevin DeLapp,2018-03-12 When if ever is it permissible to afford special consideration to friends and family How can we strive to be objective in our thinking and is this always a feasible or appropriate aim This book examines the categories of impartiality and objectivity by showing how they frame certain debates in epistemology moral psychology and metaethics arguing that many traditional conceptions of objectivity fail to capture what is important to our identities as knowers social beings and moral agents A new thesis of perspectival realism is offered as a critique of strong objectivity but in a way that avoids radical subjectivism or relativism Locally situated identities can provide their own criteria of epistemic and moral justification and we may aspire to be impartial in a way that need not sacrifice particular perspectives and relationships Arguments throughout the book draw heavily on resources from classical Chinese philosophy and significant attention is given to applications of arguments to concrete issues in applied ethics cross cultural anthropology and political science

The Routledge Companion to Virtue Ethics Lorraine Besser-Jones, Michael Slote, 2015-02-20 Virtue ethics is on the move both in Anglo American philosophy and in the rest of the world This volume uniquely emphasizes non Western varieties of virtue ethics at the same time that it includes work in the many different fields or areas of philosophy where virtue ethics has recently spread its wings Just as significantly several chapters make comparisons between virtue ethics and other ways of approaching ethics or political philosophy or show how virtue ethics can be applied to real world problems

A Buddha Land in This World Lajos Brons, 2022 In the early twentieth century Uchiyama Gud Seno o Gir Lin Qiuwu and others advocated a Buddhism that was radical in two respects Firstly they adopted a more or less naturalist stance with respect to Buddhist doctrine and related matters rejecting karma or other supernatural beliefs And secondly they held political and economic views that were radically anti hegemonic anti capitalist and revolutionary Taking the idea of such a radical Buddhism seriously A Buddha Land in This World Philosophy Utopia and Radical Buddhism asks whether it is possible to develop a philosophy that is simultaneously naturalist anti capitalist Buddhist and consistent Rather than a study of radical Buddhism then this book is an attempt to radicalize it The foundations of this radicalized radical Buddhism are provided by a realist interpretation of Yog c ra elucidated and elaborated with some help from thinkers in the broader Tiantai Tendai tradition and American philosophers Donald Davidson and W V O Quine A key implication of this foundation is that only this world and only this life are real from which it follows that if Buddhism aims to alleviate suffering it has to do so in this world and in this life Twentieth century radical Buddhists as well as some engaged Buddhists came to a similar conclusion often expressed in their aim to realize a Buddha land in this world Building on this foundation but also on Mah y na moral philosophy this book argues for an ethics and social philosophy based on a definition of evil as that what is or should be expected to cause death or suffering On that ground capitalism should be rejected indeed but utopianism must be treated with caution as well which raises questions about what it means from a radicalized radical Buddhist perspective to aim for a Buddha land in this world Lajos Brons is a Dutch philosopher and social scientist living in Japan After receiving a PhD from the University of Groningen in the Netherlands for a dissertation on an aspect of the history and philosophy of the social sciences he gradually moved further and further into philosophical territory Currently Lajos is teaching logic ethics and philosophy at a university in Tokyo His research interests are divided over two broad areas in philosophy one is in the overlap of meta ethics and social political philosophy the other is in the intersection of philosophy of language metaphysics and epistemology Research in the former focuses on the relations between death suffering and compassion Research in the latter concerns the relations between language thought and reality and is heavily influenced by the philosophies of Donald Davidson and W V O Quine and by Buddhist philosophy More information about publications and research interests as well as Lajos s blog can be found at www.lajosbrons.net

Heaven and Earth Are Not Humane Franklin Perkins, 2014-05-23 That bad things happen to good people was as true in early China as it is today Franklin Perkins uses this observation as the thread by which to trace the effort by Chinese thinkers of the Warring States Period c 475 221 BCE a time of great conflict and division to seek reconciliation between humankind and the world Perkins provides rich new readings of classical Chinese texts and reflects on their significance for Western philosophical discourse

John Dewey and Confucian Thought Jim Behuniak, 2019-07-24 In this conclusion to his two volume series Jim Behuniak builds upon the groundbreaking work begun in John Dewey and Daoist Thought in arguing that Chinese natural philosophy is the proper hermeneutical context in which to understand early Confucianism First he traces Dewey s late period cultural turn in more detail and then proceeds to assess Dewey s visit to China in 1919 21 as a multifaceted intra cultural episode one that includes not only what Dewey taught his Chinese audiences but also what he learned in China and what we stand to learn from this encounter today Dewey in China provides an opportunity to continue establishing specific philosophical relationships between Dewey and Confucian thought for the purpose of getting ourselves back in gear with contemporary thinking in the social and natural sciences To this end Behuniak critically assesses readings of early Chinese thought reliant on outdated Greek medieval assumptions paying particular attention to readings of early Confucianism that rely heavily on Western virtue ethics such as the Heaven s plan reading Topics covered include education tradition ethics the family human nature and religiousness thus engaging Dewey with themes generally associated with Confucian thought
