

Living the Dream

"There's the island, ahead," called the navigator as I steered our boat down the Caribbean waters. We were freer than we'd ever been in our lives, and living on freshly caught fish, tropical fruits and whatever secret recipe each bartender uses to make his island's signature rum punch.

A WEEK LATER WE'D BE BACK AT OUR OFFICE DESKS, but for now we used whatever time we had to enjoy the island's abundant resources, and we had a great time.

The more I read about the island, the more I wanted to go. I'd heard that the island was a great place to live, and I'd heard that the island was a great place to live. I'd heard that the island was a great place to live, and I'd heard that the island was a great place to live. I'd heard that the island was a great place to live, and I'd heard that the island was a great place to live.

In a nutshell, the island was a great place to live. I'd heard that the island was a great place to live, and I'd heard that the island was a great place to live. I'd heard that the island was a great place to live, and I'd heard that the island was a great place to live.

To see the island, I'd heard that the island was a great place to live. I'd heard that the island was a great place to live, and I'd heard that the island was a great place to live. I'd heard that the island was a great place to live, and I'd heard that the island was a great place to live.

I'd heard that the island was a great place to live. I'd heard that the island was a great place to live, and I'd heard that the island was a great place to live. I'd heard that the island was a great place to live, and I'd heard that the island was a great place to live.
