Jadhav, 2015-12-19 In this Research Topic we provide a comprehensive overview of current public health leadership research focusing on understanding the impact of leadership on the delivery of public health services By bringing together ground breaking research studies detailing the development and validation of leadership activities and resources that promote effective public health practice in a variety of settings we seek to provide a basis for leading public health organizations We encouraged contributions that assess the effectiveness of public health leaders as well as critical discussions of methods for improving the leadership of public health organizations at all levels Both ongoing and completed original research was welcome as well as methods hypothesis and theory and opinion papers The effective practice of public health leadership is a key concept for public health practitioners to clearly understand as the 21st century unfolds Following the significant lapses of leadership in the for profit world leaders in governmental and not for profit agencies are required to learn by their failed examples A major task facing all current and prospective public health practitioners is developing the required leadership skills in order to be effective twenty first century leaders As a consequence of the rapidly evolving health of the public as well as the development of the discipline and practice of public health understanding the principles and attributes of leadership are now required of all public health practitioners Leadership can be described in a variety of ways

Leadership in public health requires skillful individuals meeting the health challenges of communities and the population as a whole. Leadership may be defined as a process that occurs whenever an individual intentionally attempts to influence another individual or group regardless of the reason in an effort to achieve a common goal which may or may not contribute to the success of the organization. Thus, leadership is a process involving two or more people. The nature of leadership is an important aspect of the concept as a whole. Submissions relating public health leadership to the management of public health organizations were welcomed. This Research Topic provided the opportunity for authors to consider the concept of leadership from a variety of approaches. Original research papers considering a variety of leadership theories provide methodological approaches to the topic. Hypothesis and theory papers provide the basis for application of leadership to public health practice. Opinion papers provide the opportunity to develop thinking concerning practice of public health leadership.

Sports Ministry David B. Lewis, David Irby, William Galipault, Wayne Rasmussen, 2023-01-09 The hope of the Gospel is a universal message and sports are arguably the universal language. Sharing the former through the latter is a powerful combination for changing lives. And for students with a heart for both the field of sports ministry presents compelling career opportunities. Until now there has never been a college textbook devoted to the subject. With the arrival of Sports Ministry college and university instructors have a dedicated text for educating students on the how-to process of developing viable sports ministry programs that share the Word and positively influence the world in which we live. The book begins with a description of what sports ministry is and a historical overview of the sports ministry movement including stories of prominent individuals and organizations past. Students will learn about the many sports ministries serving today at the local, national, and international levels such as the Fellowship of Christian Athletes, Athletes in Action, and Missionary Athletes International. Through each chapter's Sports Ministry in Action and Interview With a Professional sidebars, students will get a glimpse into the lives and ministries of individuals and organizations working in sports ministry and learn about the career opportunities available in the field. The underpinnings of sports ministry are evangelism and discipleship and to that end students will learn various methods for Gospel communication within the sports context The book also deliberates the intersection of sports and faith weighing the positive and negative aspects of competition and whether competitive sport is compatible with faith Included are six principles for making decisions regarding sport participation and a three step process for using biblical precepts to determine ethical behavior in sport Chapters dedicated to finances facilities and legal considerations inform students on the corporate aspects of running a sports ministry program These include the five main approaches for securing financial resources a framework for planning and selecting the right facility and strategies for mitigating risk The final section of the book looks at the implementation of sports ministry programs locally and internationally Four common types of local church based events are discussed onsite community jaunt event and short term missions with examples of each included Students will gain an understanding of key administrative responsibilities for organizing international missions The cross cultural nature of sports ministry both locally and abroad requires students to cultivate an awareness of and respect for other cultures to foster friendship evangelism essential to any successful sports ministry Sports Ministry is the definitive resource for building an effective sports ministry program When done right sport is a powerful platform that God will use to transform lives for His eternal purposes With Sports Ministry students will gain the knowledge and tools to share their faith and offer hope to others through the universal language of sport
