Study the human mind

Our Promise to You

Psychology is an exciting field focusing on the study of the human mind and behavior. Some students pursue psychology simply because they're interested in people and what makes them tick. Others pursue the major to prepare for a career in psychology or social work.

Get Involved

The Wesleyan Fellows program will enrich your college experience and enhance your career opportunities. This grant-based work study program encourages creative thinking and resourceful problem-solving. You will gain valuable knowledge and skills with a Wesleyan professor or an off-campus supervisor as your mentor. For more information on Wesleyan Fellows, visit kwc.edu/wesleyan-fellows.

Exceptional Preparation

A psychology major provides students with an excellent background for applying to graduate school in psychology and ultimately becoming a practicing psychologist. A bachelor's degree in psychology is also excellent preparation for careers in fields such as business, law and social work.

Practical Experiences

We have well established relationships with many agencies in Owensboro and surrounding communities so our students can gain practical experience and better prepare for life after Kentucky Wesleyan College. Options include:

- Undergraduate research experiences
- Research project in senior capstone course
- Psychology Club Psych Bowl Competition
- Practicums at organizations such as River Valley Behavioral Health, OASIS, New Beginnings, Boulware Center and Mary Kendall Home
