Trade Zone Study:

New Strategic Research on China (Shanghai) Pilot Free Trade Zone, 2016 This book provides a detailed study of practices of China Shanghai Pilot Free Trade Zone Shanghai FTZ henceforth It aims to answer questions related to establishing the Shanghai FTZ and improving its practices such as the future of world s macro economy the Shanghai FTZ s position in Chinese and world economy government transition and international trade upgrading as well as financial sector opening up strategies and innovations By answering these questions implications for possible future policy developments are provided Though the operation of Shanghai FTZ is the main focus this book delves deeper into the question of how China will further reform its financial system in the future Similar to the Shenzhen Special Economic Zone which heralded China s economic transformation in the 1980s and 1990s the Shanghai FTZ may well be such a pioneer project pointing to the future economic path that China might tread Written by the foremost Chinese economists with some involved in the setup process of the Shanghai FTZ this book is a must read for anyone who is interested in the prospects of the Shanghai FTZ and the future direction of the Chinese economic development Provided by publisher Studies on China's Special Economic Zones 2 Yiming Yuan, 2019-09-20 The book provides an authoritative study on Special Economic Zones The scope of the articles will include new theories methods and discoveries in SEZ study and specifically provide recent achievements in Special Economic Zones The journal is aimed at economics undergraduates postgraduates economics researchers in social science institutions and the government Special Economic Zone mode provides an easy approach to complete modernization in developing countries like China the reader can get some important data source and major results in this area Trading Zones and Interactional Expertise Michael E. Gorman, 2010 A proposal for a new framework for fostering collaborations across disciplines addressing both theory and practical applications Cross disciplinary collaboration increasingly characterizes today s science and engineering research The problems and opportunities facing society do not come neatly sorted by discipline Difficulties arise when researchers from disciplines as different as engineering and the humanities work together and find that they speak largely different languages This book explores a new framework for fostering collaborations among existing disciplines and expertise communities The framework unites two ideas to emerge from recent work in STS trading zones in which scientific subcultures each with its own language develop the equivalents of pidgin and creole and interactional expertise in which experts learn to use the language of another research community in ways that are indistinguishable from expert practitioners of that community A trading zone can gradually become a new area of expertise facilitated by interactional expertise and involving negotiations over boundary objects objects represented in different ways by different participants The volume describes applications of the framework to service science business strategy environmental management education and practical ethics One detailed case study focuses on attempts to create trading zones that would help prevent marine bycatch another investigates trading zones formed to market the female condom to women in Africa another describes how humanists embedded in a nanotechnology laboratory gained interactional expertise resulting in improved research results for both humanists and nanoscientists Contributors Brad Allenby Donna T Chen Harry Collins Robert Evans Erik Fisher Peter Galison Michael E Gorman Lynn Isabella Lekelia D Jenkins Mary Ann Leeper Roop L Mahajan Matthew M Mehalik Ann E Mills Bolko von Oetinger Elizabeth Powell Mary V Rorty Jeff Shrager Jim Spohrer Patricia H Werhane Area Studies, Business and Culture Horst Kopp, 2003 As the level of globalization in business relationships rises the importance of questions and problems pertaining to intercultural communication increases more and more This gives rise to new tasks for the social sciences which can only be successfully performed through interdisciplinary cooperation in the sense of area studies Between 1995 and 2002 for area the Bavarian research network for area studies drew together numerous members of the scientific community who are specialized in the social sciences to pursue previously unresearched topics in areas of overlap of business and culture as exemplified in non European regions The most important results are collated here Foreign Trade Zones United States.
