Essentials Of Business Law 9th Edition Chegg Com:

The Economist ,1964 Arts & Humanities Citation Index ,1987 A multidisciplinary index covering the journal literature of the arts and humanities It fully covers 1 144 of the world s leading arts and humanities journals and it indexes individually selected relevant items from over 6 800 major science and social science journals Essentials of Business Law Anthony Liuzzo,Ruth C. Hughes,2025 The new twelfth edition of the Essentials of Business Law program is a practical concise and broad based introduction to the vibrant field of business law While continuing to offer all of the features that have made the ten prior editions successful this new edition includes a chapter on the areas of law affected by social media updated content and enhanced support materials Both the traditional areas of law such as contracts and property and the emerging areas of law such as e commerce and environmental are covered in short informative chapters written to capture the essence of each topic The objective of the text throughout its coverage is ease ease of use ease of teaching ease of assessment and ease of understanding It has been developed for those seeking a more fundamental overview of the concepts and principles that are vital to the understanding of business law Essentials of business law Ewan MacIntyre,2018-03-27 Essentials of Business Law is well regarded for its clear yet succinct exposition of core principles and key cases across the essential legal topics relevant to business students This new edition has been significantly updated and deals fully and comprehensively with the Consumer Rights Act 2015 The Essentials of Business Law Francis Marion Burdick,2013-09 This historic book may have numerous typos and missing text Purchasers can usually download a free scanned copy of the original book without typos from the publisher Not indexed Not illustrated 1907 edition Excerpt if he wishes to pass title to the buyer but gives him the right to pass it back to the seller So long as title remains in the buyer he must bear the loss if the property is accidentally destroyed In case of a sale on approval the loss would fall on the seller if it occurred before the article had been approved by the buyer 401 Rule Fourth Subsequent appropriation of the goods to the contract The foregoing rules it will be observed apply chiefly to things which are in existence when the contract is made We now pass to the rule applicable to contracts for the sale of future or unascertained goods that is of goods which can not be specified or set aside at the time of the contract but which are to come into existence or to be appropriated to the contract at a future day For example a manufacturer agrees to make and ship certain goods within a specified period or a dealer takes an order for goods which he is to purchase from others and apply to the contract In such a case the law presumes title to pass as soon as the agreed articles have been unconditionally appropriated to the contract by either party with the assent of the other This rule it will be noticed involves three elements If either is lacking title will not be presumed to pass First the goods must be such as the contract calls for If the contract is for No 1 wheat the seller does not perform the contract by offering No 2 wheat and an unconditional appropriation of such wheat will not pass title to the buyer Second the appropriation must be unconditional If the seller ships No 1 wheat to the buyer and takes a bill of lading from the common carrier which states that the wheat is to
