Challenging Inclusive Education Policy and Practice in Africa

,2018-11-26 It is a fundamental right for all children to be given access to quality education to ensure they reach their full potential as individuals a right which is reflected in international law in Article 26 of the Universal Declaration of Human Rights and supported by the Education for All Agenda 1990 and the United Nations Convention on the Rights of People with Disabilities and Optional Protocol 2006 Nation states across Africa have signed up to these protocols and remain committed to ensuring education for all children The progress globally however in the past 25 years including in Africa has been slow UNESCO 2015 Questions remain on why this is so and what can be done about it This book brings together researchers education policy makers and academics from the African community What is unique about this text is that it includes local insights narrated and critiqued by local professionals This book presents a wide range of African countries across the continent to provide a critical overview of the key issues affecting developments It questions the origins of ideas and definitions around inclusive education and the impact it has made on policy and ultimately practice within local socio cultural and economic communities both urban and rural It highlights positive developments as well as challenges and provides a deep understanding of why the process of implementing inclusive education is so complex in the African continent It provides an understanding of what is needed to develop a more sustainable model of inclusive education across the continent and within specific countries

Intersection of Adolescent Sexual, Reproductive, and Mental Health in Sub-Saharan Africa

Negussie Boti Sidamo,Zacharie Tsala Dimbuene,Sultan Hussen Hebo,Stephen Chukwudeh,2025-06-18 Adolescence is a crucial stage of development in which young people experience a wide range of emotional social and physical changes One significant aspect of this period is the exploration and emergence of reproductive health and behaviours Alongside this mental health and well being are increasingly recognized as vital components of overall adolescent health and development The intersection of adolescent sexual reproductive and mental health is complex dynamic and multifaceted with numerous social cultural and biological factors influencing these domains Addressing this intersection remains a critical area of research policy and practice to promote healthy adolescent development and empower young people with the knowledge and skills necessary to make informed decisions about their sexual reproductive and mental health In sub Saharan Africa adolescents have greater risk factors and low access to health services that make them prone to such problems This underscores the need to consider an integrated approach to address the sexual reproductive and mental health problems of adolescents living in sub Saharan Africa These insights are pivotal for identifying novel approaches that are highly effective and well tolerated for integrated services to improve the relief of adolescents living in sub Saharan Africa from sexual reproductive and mental health problems

On Results of the Reform in Ethiopia's Language and Education Policies

Catherine Griefenow-Mewis,2009 This publication reflects the results of the Ethiopian education reform as well as the exceptional efforts that multiethnic Ethiopia undertakes in order to cope with the challenges arising from the population explosion More than 55 per cent of the 77 million Ethiopians are under the age of 18 years The great social and political changes started in Ethiopia at the beginning of the 1990s have resulted in the substitution of the educational system based on Amharic and English by one which uses a multilingual approach According to the Ministry of Education 22 out of the 84 languages spoken in Ethiopia are now used as media of instruction in primary schools The book presents the lectures delivered at the workshop On the Results of the Reform in Ethiopia s Language and Education Policy held at Addis Ababa University in April 2006 by Ethiopian education experts and a German research team Their contribution has facilitated a subsumption into the historical context and has given insight into the analyses of the use of 8 Ethiopian languages in primary schools in different regions of the country Ethiopian Journal of Education ,2005 The Archaeology of the Jesuit Missions in Ethiopia (1557-1632) Victor M. Fernández,Jorge De Torres,Andreu Martínez d'Alòs-Moner,Carlos Cañete,2017-07-31 One of the earliest and most ambitious projects carried out by the Society of Jesus was the mission to the Christian kingdom of Ethiopia which ran from 1557 to 1632 In about 1621 crucial figures in the Ethiopian Solomonid monarchy including King Susenyos were converted to Catholicism and up to 1632 imposing missionary churches residences and royal structures were built This book studies for the first time in a comprehensive manner the missionary architecture built by the joint work of Jesuit padres Ethiopian and Indian masons and royal Ethiopian patrons The work gives ample archaeological architectonic and historical descriptions of the ten extant sites known to date and includes hypotheses on hitherto unexplored or lesser known structures International Handbook of Curriculum Research William F. Pinar,2013-10-15 Continuing its calling to define the field and where it is going the Second Edition of this landmark handbook brings up to date its comprehensive reportage of scholarly developments and school curriculum initiatives worldwide providing a panoramic view of the state of curriculum studies globally Its international scope and currency and range of research and theory reflect and contribute significantly to the ongoing internationalization of curriculum studies and its growth as a field worldwide Changes in the Second Edition Five new or updated introductory chapters pose transnational challenges to key questions curriculum research addresses locally Countries absent in the First Edition are represented Chile Colombia Cypress Ethiopia Germany Iran Luxembourg Nigeria Peru Poland Portugal Singapore South Africa Spain and Switzerland 39 new or updated chapters on curriculum research in 34 countries highlight curriculum research that is not widely known in North America This handbook is an indispensable resource for prospective and practicing teachers for curriculum studies scholars and for education students around the world Educational Documentation and Information ,1974 Bulletin of the International Bureau of Education ,1974 Curriculum Innovation at the Second Level of Education Brian Holmes,1974 Resources in Education ,2001 Fundamentals of Civic and Ethical Education Kassaye Amare Engida,2006 Multilingual Education and Sustainable Diversity Work Tove Skutnabb-Kangas,Kathleen Heugh,2013-06-17 This very original inspirational book globalises our understanding of languages in education and changes our understanding of bilingual and multilingual education from something mostly western to being truly transnational it spotlights the small celebrates African and Asian cases of multilingual classrooms and demonstrates that such education is universally successful Colin R Baker Pro Vice Chancellor Bangor University Bangor Wales UK A norm setting work on multilingual education which combines theoretical perspectives with practical experience from different parts of the globe this book demonstrates convincingly not only that multilingual education works but also that for most developing countries there is no viable alternative Ayo Bamgbose Professor Emeritus University of Ibadan Nigeria This excellent volume brings to light the fascinating lived experiences of multilingual education in linguistically rich but resource impoverished countries and offers important lessons from which we can all learn Amy B M Tsui Professor Pro Vice Chancellor Vice President The University of Hong Kong Hong Kong This is a book of hope and inspiration Documenting the significant shift that is taking place in countries around the world in the status and legitimacy of mother tongue based multilingual education it represents a giant step towards a tipping point where mother tongue based multilingual education will be normalized as the preferred and in fact common sense option for educating the children of the world Jim Cummins The University of Toronto Canada This important book challenges us to think about multilingual education from a different angle this time putting the periphery at the center The effect is one of destabilizing old visions and imagining new worlds where multilingual education provides the backdrop for generous understandings of all peoples Ofelia Garc a Program in Urban Education Graduate Center The City University of New York USA There are regrettably few detailed accounts of successful elementary school instruction in the pupils home language which makes this book with its surprising examples especially Ethiopia and Nepal but other third world cases so relevant Students of language education policy will learn a great deal about the possibility of multilingual education from the chapters of this important book Bernard Spolsky Professor Emeritus Bar Ilan University Israel At least half of today s languages are marginalised and endangered and the attention of the world needs to be focused on these minor and minority languages together with the value of multilingualism If the book succeeds in enhancing the consciousness of the world towards predicaments of the third world then its efforts will have been amply rewarded Debi Prasanna Pattanayak Former Director Central Institute of Indian Languages India Drawing on the most powerful and compelling research data to date and connecting this research to linguistic human rights this book explores the conditions and practices of robust bilingual and multilingual educational innovations in both system wide and minority settings and what it is that makes these viable It demonstrates how in countries where educational practices are inclusive of linguistic diversity and responsive to local conditions and community participation implementation of bilingual education even within limited budgetary investment can be successful Papers and Proceedings. Technical Meeting - International Union for Conservation of Nature and Natural Resources International Union for Conservation of Nature and Natural Resources,1971 Language in Ethiopia Marvin Lionel Bender,1976 This comprehensive study is the result of research by an interdisciplinary team of international scholars all with a particular interest in Ethiopia The first part of the book contains an important classification of Ethiopian languages looks at their distribution and studies some special language situations The second part describes the official status of languages the effects of migrations urbanization and education and discusses the spread of Amharic and patterns of bilingualism The third part analyses in detail the organization of language teaching and teacher training in Ethiopia
