Fink, 2023-11-23 Ethiopia though remaining one of the least urbanised countries in the world has taken impressive actions to transform the state into a more industrialized nation Several industrial parks have been built in recent years throughout the whole country The textile sector is one of these sectors The textile industry is expected to provide employment for hundreds of thousands and thus improve people's living conditions and contribute to the development of the country Major reason for Asian investors to shift their focus to Ethiopia are extremely low wages and the lower production costs involved The Ethiopian textile industry has to deal with high rates of labor turnover and absenteeism From the perspective of the mostly international managers the reason for turnover and absenteeism is often attributed to the mindset of the predominantly female workforce A research project financed by the German Bundesministerium für wirtschaftliche Zusammenarbeit und

Separation of Powers in African Constitutionalism Charles M. Fombad, 2016-03-03 The new series Stellenbosch Handbooks in African Constitutional Law will engage with contemporary issues of constitutionalism in Africa filling a notable gap in African comparative constitutional law Separation of Powers in African Constitutionalism is the first in the series examining one of the critical measures introduced by African constitutional designers in their attempts to entrench an ethos of constitutionalism on the continent Taking a critical look at the different ways in which attempts have been made to separate the different branches of government the Handbook examines the impact this is having on transparent and accountable governance Beginning with an overview of constitutionalism in Africa and the different influences on modern African constitutional developments it looks at the relationship between the legislature and the executive as well as the relationship between the judiciary and the political branches Despite differences in approaches between the different constitutional cultures that have influenced developments in Africa there remain common problems One of these problems is the constant friction in the relationship between the three branches and the resurgent threats of authoritarianism which clearly suggest that there remain serious problems in both constitutional design and implementation The book also studies the increasing role being played by independent constitutional institutions and how they complement the checks and balances associated with the traditional three branches of government

The Confederation of Ethiopian Labour Unions (C.E.L.U.) and Its First General Strike (March 7-11, 1974) Emmanuel Fayessa Negassa, 1977 The Political Economy of Apparel Exporting Industrial Parks in Ethiopia Mohammed Seid Ali, 2024-07-14 This book discusses the maxim of industrialization with a human face or social upgrading which currently dominates the academic and actual policy discourses particularly in late comer economies of the Global South such as Ethiopia To understand industrialization with social upgrading in the current context of economic globalization characterized by the Global Value Chain GVC the book adopts the Human Rights HR perspective to labour relations and employs the Corporate Social Responsibility CSR approach to analyze the labour compliance of apparel exporting firms and their respective global brand buyers operating in Ethiopia's industrial parks The findings reveal that Ethiopia's post 2005 state led industrialization development path which has firmly embraced strong business-state alliances has curbed the power of labour Further global brands flawed CSR and poor purchasing practices have contributed to the ongoing labour abuses in the country's industrial parks If the government does not consciously respond to the race to the bottom the cold current of economic globalization that dominates the global apparel value chain local industrial workers in Ethiopian industrial parks

The Gender Imperative Betty A. Reardon, Asha Hans, 2012-12-06 The book asserts that human security derives from the experience and expectation of human well being which depends on four essential conditions a life sustaining environment the meeting of essential physical needs respect for the identity and dignity of persons and groups protection from avoidable harm and expectations of remedy from them The book demonstrates their integral relationship to human security Patriarchy being the germinal paradigm from which most major human institutions such as the state the economy organised religions and social relations have evolved the book argues that fundamental inequalities must be challenged for the sake of equality and security The fundamental point raised is that expectation of human well being is a continuing cause of armed conflict which constitutes a threat to peace and survival of all humanity and human security cannot exist within a militarised security system The editors of the book bring together 14 essays which critically examine militarised security in order to find human security pathways show ways in which to refute the dominant paradigm indicate a clear gender analysis that challenges the current system and suggests alternatives to militarised security With a mix of female and male feminist scholar activists as contributors the book makes an important contribution to a new discourse on human security
