

2nd year bachillerato. Impersonal passive exercises.

la Voz Pasiva Impersonal es un tipo de construcción utilizado con gran frecuencia por los medios de comunicación, sobre todo en la redacción de noticias.

A diferencia de la Voz Pasiva Personal, donde el objeto directo de la oración activa pasa a ocupar el lugar de sujeto en la oración pasiva -para lo cual es necesario un verbo transitivo-, en la Voz Pasiva Impersonal, al utilizar verbos intransitivos como acción principal, no existe objeto que pueda cumplir esa función y es necesario seguir la siguiente estructura:

SUJETO	VERBO TO BE	PASADO PARTICIPIO
--------	-------------	-------------------

Veamos algunos ejemplos:

It is said	Se dice
It is known	Se sabe
It is supposed	Se supone
It is considered	Se considera
It is reported	Se informa
It is thought	Se piensa
It is decided	Se decide

Ahora veamos ejemplos concretos sobre su desarrollo:

People believe that the strike will continue for a week.
It is believed that the strike will continue for a week.

The police reported that there was a bomb on the plane.
It was reported that there was a bomb on the plane.

También es preciso mencionar que en muchas ocasiones una tercera construcción es posible colocando el sujeto de la oración subordinada al comienzo de la oración; el verbo de percepción en voz pasiva y el resto de la frase se añade utilizando el infinitivo del verbo precedido por la partícula "TO", teniendo en cuenta que algunos verbos auxiliares y "THAT" no se colocan:

- He says that the Governor had inaugurated the bridge the last year.
- It is said that the Governor had inaugurated the bridge the last year.
- The Governor is said to have inaugurated the bridge the last year.

- Everyone think that the ship will arrive tomorrow morning.
- It is said that the ship will arrive tomorrow morning.
- The ship is said to arrive tomorrow morning.
