Exhibitors Directory The Star:

The Official Directory of the World's Columbian Exposition, May 1st to October 30th, 1893, 1893      Hollywood Vault
Eric Hoyt, 2014-07-03 Hollywood Vault is the story of how the business of film libraries emerged and evolved spanning the silent era to the sale of feature libraries to television Eric Hoyt argues that film libraries became valuable not because of the introduction of new technologies but because of the emergence and growth of new markets and suggests that studying the history of film libraries leads to insights about their role in the contemporary digital marketplace The history begins in the mid 1910s when the star system and other developments enabled a market for old films that featured current stars After the transition to films with sound the reissue market declined but the studios used their libraries for the production of remakes and other derivatives The turning point in the history of studio libraries occurred during the mid to late 1940s when changes in American culture and an industry wide recession convinced the studios to employ their libraries as profit centers through the use of theatrical reissues In the 1950s intermediary distributors used the growing market of television to harness libraries aggressively as foundations for cross media expansion a trend that continues today By the late 1960s the television marketplace and the exploitation of film libraries became so lucrative that they prompted conglomerates to acquire the studios The first book to discuss film libraries as an important and often underestimated part of Hollywood history Hollywood Vault presents a fascinating trajectory that incorporates cultural legal and industrial history      The Exhibitor, 1953 Some issues include separately paged sections Better management Physical theatre extra profits Review Servisection      Titanic
Kevin S. Sandler, Gaylyn Studlar, 1999 In 1997 James Cameron's Titanic became the first motion picture to earn a billion dollars worldwide These essays ask the question What made Titanic such a popular movie Why has this film become a cultural and film phenomenon What makes it so fascinating to the film going public      Grand Design Tino Balio, 1995
Covering a tumultuous period of the 1950s this work explores the divorce of movie studios from their theater chains the panic of the blacklist era the explosive emergence of science fiction as the dominant genre and the rise of television and Hollywood's response with widescreen spectacles      Women of Color, 2002-09 Women of Color is a publication for today's career women in business and technology      Go - Transport Times of the West, 1963      Exhibitors Daily Review, 1963
June Mathis Thomas J. Slater, 2025-04-08 Along with thousands of other girls who hoped to escape tedious employment and domesticity June Mathis 1887 1927 started acting as a young teen After more than a decade of stepping onto stages across the US she moved into the burgeoning film business and behind the camera to begin a prolific career as a screenwriter and producer for profound movies like The Four Horsemen of the Apocalypse 1921 and Blood and Sand 1922 With her expert use of melodrama and masterful technique Mathis would eventually become the first female head writer at Metro Pictures In June Mathis The Rise and Fall of a Silent Film Visionary Thomas J Slater illuminates Mathis's important and complicated life and work not only detailing her discovery of the silent movie superstar Rudolph Valentino and her involvement on the original screenplay for Ben Hur 1925 but also her prowess in all aspects of production Slater pulls from historical records as well as letters never before studied scripts and Mathis's handwritten will to build a robust narrative for someone who always had to struggle for success even though Photoplay acknowledged her as the most powerful woman in the motion picture industry in 1923 Slater discusses Mathis's artistic and moral failings as well as how her efforts such as overlooked collaborations with writer Katharine Kavanaugh and actress Alla Nazimova consistently challenged male dominance militarism and greed Despite her talent and achievements Mathis was pushed to the margins when the industry began removing women from spheres of influence Following a few months of freelancing she suffered a heart attack during a Broadway show and died at the age of forty Very quickly this woman whose ideas shaped American film for more than a decade was forgotten June Mathis portrays the cinematic legacy of this million dollar girl whose complex story ended too soon but remains relevant today When quality counts, 1995 Hidden Talent Tom Kemper, 2010 This is a history of Hollywood agents as they rose in the studio system in the late 1920s and early 1930s up through the 1940s demonstrating the central role they played in the classical Hollywood period Motor City Movie Culture, 1916-1925 Richard Abel, 2020-01-21 A study of how the film industry came to flourish in Detroit in the early years as locals were lured into the new picture theaters Motor City Movie Culture 1916-1925 is a broad textured look at Hollywood coming of age in a city with a burgeoning population and complex demographics Richard Abel investigates the role of local Detroit organizations in producing distributing exhibiting and publicizing films in an effort to make moviegoing part of everyday life Tapping a wealth of primary source material from newspapers spatiotemporal maps and city directories to rare trade journals theater programs and local newsreels Abel shows how entrepreneurs worked to lure moviegoers from Detroit's diverse ethnic neighborhoods into the theaters Covering topics such as distribution programming practices nonfiction film and movie coverage in local newspapers with entr'actes that dive deeper into the roles of key individuals and organizations this book examines how efforts in regional metropolitan cities like Detroit worked alongside California studios and New York head offices to bolster a mass culture of moviegoing in the United States RKO Betty Lasky, 1989 Traces the thirty year history of the Hollywood studio describes its most important films and looks at the various individuals who ran the company A Van Beuren Production Hal Erickson, 2020-10-01 Prolific American film producer Amedee J Van Beuren 1879-1938 did not start out in the film industry After a decade spent in business and advertising Van Beuren turned his intellect and creativity towards acquiring a foothold in film and began building his empire He is best known to animation fans for his bizarre cartoons of the 1920s and 1930s featuring such zanies as Molly Moo Cow Cubby Bear and Tom and Jerry not the cat and mouse duo But the majority of the 1,499 films produced by Van Beuren between 1918 and 1937 were live action short subjects travelogues comedies musicals sports reels and more His roster of star performers included Bert Lahr Shemp Howard Ethel Waters and indirectly Charlie Chaplin Van Beuren also made several feature films starring legendary big game
