up to date and this annual publication provides that service By being selective and having that selection carried out by experienced lawyers practitioners are pointed in the right direction It will also be of great use to HR professionals and trade union officials who have need to reference this legal area The title contains analysis and discussions on Irish law decisions of the superior courts Labour Court Equality Tribunal Employment Appeals Tribunal etc Irish legislation including the Workplace Relations Act 2015 and statutory instruments English law so far as relevant e g common law decisions EU law decisions of the Court of Justice of the European Communities and relevant Directives Regulations Data protection and freedom of information developments Other material such as Annual Reports of the EAT the Labour Court the Health Safety Authority the activities of NERA as well as decisions listed in other complementary areas of the law including taxation and pensions These have all been selected by experienced lawyers in the relevant fields This title is part of a series that is released yearly to reflect each year s particular case laws and decisions Religion, Equality and Employment in Europe Katayoun Alidadi, 2017-06-15 The management of religious and ideological diversity remains a key challenge of our time deeply entangled with debates about the nature of liberal democracy equality social cohesion minorities and nationalism security and foreign policy This book explores this challenge at the level of the workplace in Europe People do not surrender their religion of belief at the gates of their workplace nor should they be required to do so But what are the limits of accommodating religious belief in the workplace particularly when it clashes with other fundamental rights and freedoms Using a comparative and socio legal approach that emphasises the practical role of human rights anti discrimination law and employment protection this book argues for an enforceable right to reasonable accommodation on the grounds of religion and belief in the workplace in Europe In so doing it draws on the case law of Europe s two supranational courts three country studies Belgium the Netherlands and the UK as well as developments in the US and Canada By offering the first book length treatment of the issue it will be of significance to academics students policy makers business leaders and anyone interested in a deeper understanding of the potentials and limits of European and Western inclusion freedom and equality in a multicultural context Awarded an honourable mention from the International Academy of Comparative Law for the 2018 Canada Prize Religion, Migration, and Existential Wellbeing Moa Kindström Dahlin, Oscar Larsson, Anneli Winell, 2020-09-27 This book uses the very latest research to examine current interactions between religion migration and existential wellbeing In particular it demonstrates the role of religion and religious organizations in the social medical and existential wellbeing of immigrants within their host societies By focusing on the role and politics of religion and religious organisations as well as the religious identity and faith of individuals it highlights the connection between existential wellbeing integration and social cohesion The book brings together researchers from various disciplines taking on the challenge to elaborate on the theme of this book from different perspectives using different methods and theories with a wide selection of cases from various parts of the world The value of multidisciplinary research on the role of religion in a

globalised society locally nationally and internationally is important for understanding the composition and potential solutions to social and political problems Religious aspects and organisations are present in legal political and social forms of governance and form the basis for future research on e g secularisation democracy minorities human rights welfare healthcare and identity formation These and other related topics are discussed in this book This book is an up to date and multifaceted study of how religion engages with the mass movement of peoples As such it will be of great interest to any scholar of Religious Studies Migrant Studies Sociology of Religion Religion and Politics as well as Legal Studies with a human right focus

A Sociology of Religious Freedom Olga Breskaya, Giuseppe Giordan, James T. Richardson, 2024-09-27 In recent years the relevance of religious freedom has spread well beyond academia becoming a reference point for international relations multi level policy development as well as interfaith negotiations Meanwhile scholarship on religious freedom has flourished on the boundaries of sociology law comparative politics history and theology This book presents a systematic sociological analysis of religious freedom bringing together classical sociological theories and empirical perspectives developed during the last three decades It addresses three major questions involved in any sociology of religious freedom First considering its complex and controversial nature how can religious freedom be defined Second what are the recurrent sociological conditions and relevant social perceptions that will foster an understanding of religious freedom in varying political legal and socioreligious contexts And third what are the mechanisms of social implementation of religious freedom that contribute to making it a fundamental value in a society Olga Breskaya Giuseppe Giordan and James T Richardson suggest that a sociological definition of religious freedom requires us to take into account historical philosophical legal religious and political considerations of a given society and that the social dimensions of religious freedom are as important as the legal ones

European Union Law Damian Chalmers, Gareth Davies, Giorgio Monti, Veerle Heyvaert, 2024-03-28 This new edition sets out an account of EU law that includes not only that law s established features but captures its development in recent years and the challenges facing the European Union With dedicated new chapters on climate change data protection free movement of capital and the EU s relations with other European States topics such as the Union s response to covid 19 and the Ukraine crisis are addressed in detail As with previous editions the new edition integrates case law legislation academic materials and wider policy contributions in a way that broadens students understanding of the law and prompts greater critical reflection on the limits challenges and possibilities of EU law It seeks to set out EU law not so much as a series of laws to be learned but as something that stimulates heavy debate about some of the most contentious and significant issues of our time

Private Security and Identity Politics Jutta Joachim, Andrea

Schneiker,2018-07-18 This book examines the self representation and identity politics of Private Military and Security Companies PMSCs PMSCs have become increasingly important over the past few decades While their boom is frequently explained in functional terms such as their cost efficiency and effectiveness this book offers an alternative explanation based on an analysis of the online self presentations of forty two US and UK based companies PMSCs are shaping how they are perceived and establishing themselves as acceptable and legitimate security actors by eclectically appropriating identities more commonly associated with the military businesses and humanitarian actors Depending on their audience and clients needs they can be professional hero warriors or promise turn key security solutions based on their exceptional expertise or in a similar way to humanitarians reassure those in need of relief and try to make the world a better place Rather than being merely public relations the self referential assertions of PMSCs are political Not only do they contribute to a normalization of private security and reinforce an already ongoing blurring of lines between the public and private sectors they also change what we deem to be security and a security actor This book will be of much interest to students of private military companies critical security studies military studies security studies and IR Freedom of Religion, Minority Rights and the Law

Aleksandra Gliszczynska-Grabias,Aviad Hacoen,2025-08-08 This book provides an in depth scholarly reflection on the challenges that arise in guaranteeing religious freedom and protection of the rights of religious minorities in law and practice Currently the protection of religious minorities constitutes one of the foundations of the international human rights protection systems and is provided for in the constitutions of all democratic states The volume identifies analyses and assesses the legal status of religious freedom and protection of religious minorities with special focus on Jewish and Muslim minorities in the European and Israeli legal environments It compares the discourses on the scope and boundaries of religious freedom with the actual treatment of religious freedom in legal regulations the case law and in practice by the general society The book employs the resources of comparative law and national and international law as well as legal theory Extensive use is also made of decisions of the international courts including the European Court of Human Rights and the Court of Justice of the European Union The book will be a valuable resource for academics researchers and policymakers working in the areas of law and religion international human rights law comparative constitutional law and religious studies

In and Out: Rights of Migrants in the European Space Francesco Lo Piccolo,Annalisa Mangiaracina,Giuseppe Paternostro,Vincenzo Todaro,2024-05-21 This book examines contemporary migratory movements starting from the European zone but with an extension to other territorial contexts as well with research orientation that focuses on the account of the migratory experiences collected in the research activity of the different authors according to a multidisciplinary dimension Starting from these key topics the authors articulated and further developed its reflections through its own experiences at the national and international level taking root within the current scientific debate on migration The interdisciplinary approach and the different and innovative ways of analysing in depth the thematic contents of the migration phenomenon have made it possible to identify some key research questions The relative answers find space in the articulated and complex system of contributions that is developed within this book and in particular in the three thematic parts into which it is divided The first one deals with the theme of migration confronted with issues related to the right to the city and the right to housing the second one deals with issues related to human rights finally the third one focuses on the different narratives of migrants life experiences and aspects related to the linguistic representation of the urban space

Nuclear Regulatory Commission Oversight United States. Congress. Senate. Committee on Environment and Public Works. Subcommittee on Clean Air and Nuclear Safety,2014 The European Court of Human Rights and the Freedom of Religion or Belief Jeroen Temperman,T. Jeremy Gunn,Malcolm D. Evans,2019-01-04 As the tensions involving religion and society increase the European Court of Human Rights and the Freedom of Religion or Belief is the first systematic analysis of the first twenty five years of the European Court s religion jurisprudence The Court is one of the most significant institutions confronting the interactions among states religious groups minorities and dissenters In the 25 years since its first religion case Kokkinakis v Greece the Court has inserted itself squarely into the international human rights debate regarding the freedom of religion or belief The authors demonstrate the positive contributions and the significant flaws of the Court s jurisprudence involving religion society and secularism
