Ga Bible Ghana:

New Testament Miracle Stories in Ghanaian Mother-Tongues Abraham Boateng, 2024-08-05 This book examines the translations of selected miracle stories from the Hebrew Bible Septuagint LXX and the Greek New Testament into selected Ghanaian mother tongues considering possible shifts of meaning that occur in translating 1 Kings 18:25-38, Mark 9:14-29 and Luke 7:11-17 are used as case studies. The author draws out semiotic hermeneutical nuances of these texts as they are understood in the Ghanaian context and addresses questions in the field of Biblical studies concerning the relevance of intercultural hermeneutics for current trends in Ghanaian Christianity. Particularly important is the high premium placed on miracles in present day Ghanaian spirituality making a careful analysis of these stories particularly relevant for the Ghanaian audience. The study also explores several factors that influence the translation process and have a bearing on the reception and use of the text. It follows the growing calls for a shift in African Biblical hermeneutics from the theological heritage of Europe and America to the emerging theological trajectories of Africa. This post colonial shift re-examines the translated text moving from what the text might have meant to what the text might mean in Africa. Biblical, Traditional, and Theological Framework for Understanding Christian Prophetism in Ghana Today Daniel Nii Aboagye Aryeh, 2019-01-03 The basis for this project is to verify and determine the extent to which contemporary prophetic ministry in Ghana appropriates prophetism in the early church. Corpus Paulinum and traditional prophetism in Ghana. The spirit of prophecy which was believed to have ceased in Judaism and during the intertestamental period has now been restored at the inauguration of Christianity. Notwithstanding Paul gave stipulations for prophets and prophecy in the church in 1 Corinthians 14. This confirms that prophecy was a common phenomenon in the early church and Pauline communities. Contemporary prophetic ministry in Ghana claimed to have conformed to Pauline stipulations concerning prophets and prophecy in the church but what is their level of conformity? Contemporary prophetic ministry is becoming popular due to its appeal and compatibility with religious worldviews and its pragmatic outlook that resonates with the Ghanaian phenomenon of religion. As an adherent of the Akan traditional religion would go to a religious intermediary for ebisa literally to inquire or ask into present or future happenings contemporary prophets have positioned themselves to be agents of ebisa in Ghanaian Christianity. This book explores biblical and traditional understandings of prophetism that have influenced contemporary Christian understanding of prophets and prophecy in the church. The Lord's Prayer in the Ghanaian Context Michael Wandusim, 2021-10-25 This study explores the reception history of the Lord's Prayer in the Ghanaian context. After presenting the current state of research in the Lord's Prayer from an exegetical perspective this book discusses a wide field of hermeneutical approaches such as inculturation, biblical hermeneutics, mother tongue biblical hermeneutics, African feminist biblical hermeneutics, liberation biblical hermeneutics and post colonial biblical hermeneutics. Taking the discussions of these approaches together it was realised that the general hermeneutical setting in Ghana and Africa as whole is reader centred i.e. the readers play an active role in the hermeneutical process and the results of the hermeneutical process are aimed at the readers contexts and the transformation of those contexts Daily Graphic Yaw Boadu-Ayeboah,2006-06-06 Ghana in Pictures Yvette La Pierre,2004-01-01 Introduces through text and photographs the land history government people and economy of Ghana

Ethnicity in Ghana NA NA, 2016-04-30 Although African ethnicity has become a highly fertile field of enquiry in recent years most of the research is concentrated on southern and central Africa and has passed Ghana by This volume extends many of the distilled insights but also modifies them in the light of the Ghanaian evidence The collection is multidisciplinary in scope and spans the pre colonial colonial and post colonial contexts A central contention of the volume is that while there were significant regional variations ethnicity was not purely a colonial invention The boundaries of we groups have constantly mutated from pre colonial times while European categorization owed much to indigenous ways of seeing The contributors explore the role of European administrators and recruitment officers as well as African cultural brokers in shaping new identities The interaction of gender and ethnic consciousness is explicitly addressed The volume also examines the formulation of the national question in Ghana today in debates over language policy and conflicts over land and chieftaincy

Biblical Hermeneutics in Context and the Struggle for Meaning Aliou Cisse Niang,Andrew M. Mbuvi,Alice Yafeh-Deigh,Tinyiko Maluleke,Kenneth Ngwa,2024-10-24 The meaningful juxtaposition of academics experts with the day to day lives of nonacademics nonexperts has animated Gerald O West s work from the beginning Seeking to bridge this chasm West s approach of reading the Bible with the ordinary people typically marginalized communities became a core practice not only of his church work but of his scholarship West has been a strong proponent of taking seriously the ordinary reader as a viable and legitimate contributor to our understanding of biblical interpretation Not only does this undo the ivory tower elitism that tends to pervade academic halls of learning but it also reflects a form of scholarly humility that has been a mainstay of West s and should be perpetuated more broadly in biblical scholarship Religion and the Inculturation of Human Rights in

Ghana Abamfo Ofori Atiemo,2013-04-11 It has been maintained that the secular nature of modern human rights makes them incompatible with the religious orientation of African and non Western societies However in view of the resilience of religion in the global and local public sphere it is important to explore how religion can contribute to the promotion and enjoyment of human rights Based on fieldwork conducted in Ghana Abamfo Ofori Atiemo here establishes a convergence between human rights and local religious and cultural values in African societies He argues that human rights represent universal dream values This allows for a cultural embedding of human rights in Ghana and other non Western societies He argues that dream values are usually presented in religious language and proclaimed for example by prophets and seers or expressed in certain forms of taboo proverbs or legal norms He employs the concept of inculturation adaptation of the way Church teachings are presented to non Christian cultures as a hermeneutical tool for developing a model to understand the encounter between universal human rights and local cultures Offering a new model for explaining the relation between religion and human rights Religion and the Inculturation of Human Rights in Ghana offers a novel perspective on the links between global trends and local cultures underpinned by strong currents of religious ideas
