The Algorithmic Age of Personality James Yékú, 2025-05-01 As the affordances of authorship and reading practices on social media become deeply mediated by algorithmic curation they encourage closer attention to the author's personality as fundamental to literary production The Algorithmic Age of Personality African Literature and Cancel Culture challenges any lingering utopianism in the role of digital media in African cultural productions by exploring how algorithms engender a culture of outrage conflict and personality driven and ego battles that distract from aesthetic and ethical evaluations of literary texts In Y k's careful attention to how contemporary African literary practices are significantly marked by the extractivist and affective logics of social media algorithms he articulates the current state of debating in the critical universe of African literature and connects this to the phenomenon of cancel culture Rather than a Manichean understanding of cancel culture Y k illustrates how the politics of both conservative and liberal polarization shape what can and cannot be said in online commentaries on African literary forms The outcome is a work that situates postcolonial classics by Chinua Achebe and Joseph Conrad in online debates on cancel culture and decolonization while responding to social media discussions on Western literary prizes ethnicity and sexuality involving writers like Soyinka Ng g Wainaina and Adichie Routledge Handbook of African Literature Moradewun Adejunmobi, Carli Coetzee, 2019-03-13 The turn of the twenty first century has witnessed an expansion of critical approaches to African literature The Routledge Handbook of African Literature is a one stop publication bringing together studies of African literary texts that embody an array of newer approaches applied to a wide range of works This includes frameworks derived from food studies utopian studies network theory eco criticism and examinations of the human animal interface alongside more familiar discussions of postcolonial politics Every chapter is an original research essay written by a broad spectrum of scholars with expertise in the subject providing an application of the most recent insights into analysis of particular topics or application of particular critical frameworks to one or more African literary works The handbook will be a valuable interdisciplinary resource for scholars and students of African literature African culture postcolonial literature and literary analysis Chapter 4 of this book is freely available as a downloadable Open Access PDF at <http://www.taylorfrancis.com> under a Creative Commons Attribution Non Commercial No Derivatives CC BY NC ND 4.0 license pandemics Offering a realistic picture of the post COVID 19 era in Zimbabwe the book will be a key resource to students and researchers across the fields of political communication science communication decolonial discourse language and culture as well as African Studies more broadly Lozikeyi Dlodlo Marieke Clarke, Pathisa Nyathi, 2010 In 1999 a defiant 76 year old Mr Stanley Mhlanga confronted the Zimbabwean Forestry Commission He claimed that Queen Lozikeyi had given his people the land from which they had been evicted Who was this woman an inspiration to an old man 80 years after her death Queen Lozikeyi was the senior queen of Lobhengula king of the Ndebele people in what is now Zimbabwe Her early life has been wreathed in mystery but now at last her story can be told This book is one of the first studies of a woman who led her people while the British colonial power occupied her country She was the intellect behind one of the most effective anti colonial revolts Queen Lozikeyi continues to be an inspiration to Zimbabweans today Queen Lozikeyi as an Ndebele royal woman interited a strong constitutional position from Nguni royal foremothers in Zululand This study shows how Lobhengula s senior queen and other Ndebele royal women uses their power The Music of Mzilikazi Khumalo Thomas Pooley, Naomi André, Innocentia Mhlambi, Donato Somma, 2024-07-11 Mzilikazi Khumalo 1932 2021 an iconic figure in choral music in South Africa rose to prominence as one of Africa s leading composers of art music This is a work of music history Biographical essays on Khumalo s major works including those for choir orchestra and opera are complemented by contextual studies of his compositions and arrangements as well as reflections on his roles as editor conductor and music director Specifically in the context of South Africa s cultural and political transition from Apartheid to democracy Khumalo s key role in establishing the Nation Building Massed Choir Festival a multi racial institution that forged an inclusive space for music in the 1980s is discussed as evidence of his importance and relevance in South African culture Khumalo s major works are studied in relation to contemporary art music choral composition and traditional song These are UShaka KaSenzangakhona 1996 an African epic and Princess Magogo KaDinuzulu 2002 one of the first indigenous African operas Khumalo s artistic collaborators provide insight into their experiences working on these major projects documenting the relationships the composer cultivated with his peers This volume addresses a lacuna in the literature on South African art music which until recently tended to focus on works in the classical tradition and shows that Khumalo is a composer without peer in his synthesis of classical and choral traditional and contemporary Journal of the Royal Anthropological Institute Royal Anthropological Institute of Great Britain and Ireland, 1895 Reading Writing Right Jeremy Punt, Marius J Nel, 2018-10-18 In a collection of essays former students colleagues and friends of Prof Elna Mouton honour her life career and scholarly contributions upon her retirement from Stellenbosch University The various essays interact with Prof Mouton s concern for biblical hermeneutics ethics and the interactions and connections between the two ultimately illustrating the width and variety of interest that her work stimulated and which it interacted with The Journal of the Royal Anthropological Institute , 1895 Historical Dictionary of Women in Sub-Saharan Africa Kathleen

Sheldon,2016-03-04 African women s history is a vast topic that embraces a wide variety of societies in over 50 countries with different geographies social customs religions and historical situations Africa is a predominantly agricultural continent and a major factor in African agriculture is the central role of women as farmers It is estimated that between 65 and 80 percent of African women are engaged in cultivating food for their families and in the past that percentage was likely even higher Thus one common thread across much of the continent is women s daily work in their family plot This second edition of Historical Dictionary of Women in Sub Saharan Africa contains a chronology an introduction appendixes and an extensive bibliography The dictionary section has over 700 cross referenced entries on individual African women in history politics religion and the arts on important events organizations and publications and on topics important to women in general marriage fertility employment and to African women in particular market women child marriage queen mothers This book is an excellent access point for students researchers and anyone wanting to know more about the Women in Africa African Women Kathleen Sheldon,2017-04-24 African women s history is a topic as vast as the continent itself embracing an array of societies in over fifty countries with different geographies social customs religions and historical situations In African Women Early History to the 21st Century Kathleen Sheldon masterfully delivers a comprehensive study of this expansive story from before the time of records to the present day She provides rich background on descent systems and the roles of women in matrilineal and patrilineal systems Sheldon s work profiles elite women as well as those in leadership roles traders and market women religious women slave women women in resistance movements and women in politics and development The rich case studies and biographies in this thorough survey establish a grand narrative about women s roles in the history of Africa The Journal of the Anthropological Institute of Great Britain and Ireland ,1895 Journal of the Royal Anthropological Institute of Great Britain and Ireland ,1895 Healing Traditions Karen Elizabeth Flint,2008 Healing Traditions offers a historical perspective to the interactions between South Africa s traditional healers and biomedical practitioners It provides an understanding that is vital for the development of medical strategies to effectively deal with South Africa s healthcare challenges Colburn's United Service Magazine and Naval Military Journal ,1880 The Private Diaries of Alison Uttley Denis Judd,2011-07-12 Popular childrens author Alison Uttley Little Grey Rabbit and Sam Pig spent over 40 years writing diaries Professor Denis Judd who knew Alison and has previously written her biography reveals a different side to the writer whose husband committed suicide and whose close relationship with her son is recorded in detail But the magic of the author rings through on every page as she writes about her daily life in Berkshire the red lipped fisherwife near neighbor better known as Enid Blyton and her tempestuous relationship with her illustrators She also writes endearingly about the changing seasons reflecting much of her adult writing These beautifully written diaries have been skillfully edited by Denis Judd one of the Trustees of her Estate and a renowned biographer in his own right Wonderfully written with a truly nostalgic look at days long gone this is a must read not just for fans of Alison Uttley s work but for anyone who enjoys good writing Gendering Ethnicity in African Women's Lives Jan Bender Shetler, 2015-05-05 The elegists ancient Rome's most introspective poets filled their works with vivid first person accounts of dreams Emma Scioli examines these varied and visually striking textual dreamscapes arguing that the poets exploited dynamics of visual representation to share with readers the intensely personal experience of dreaming Democracy as Death Jason Hickel, 2015-03-07 The revolution that brought the African National Congress ANC to power in South Africa was fractured by internal conflict Migrant workers from rural Zululand rejected many of the egalitarian values and policies fundamental to the ANC's liberal democratic platform and organized themselves in an attempt to sabotage the movement This anti democracy stance which persists today as a direct critique of freedom in neoliberal South Africa hinges on an idealized vision of the rural home and a hierarchical social order crafted in part by the technologies of colonial governance over the past century In analyzing this conflict Jason Hickel contributes to broad theoretical debates about liberalism and democratization in the postcolonial world Democracy as Death interrogates the Western ideals of individual freedom and agency from the perspective of those who oppose such ideals and questions the assumptions underpinning theories of anti liberal movements The book argues that both democracy and the political science that attempts to explain resistance to it presuppose a model of personhood native to Western capitalism which may not operate cross culturally
