Winter, Steven C. Hawthorne, 1981-12 Perspectives on the World Christian Movement Darrell R. Dorr, D. Bruce Graham, Bruce A. Koch, 2009 Perspectives on the World Christian Movement presents a multi faceted collection of readings exploring the biblical historical cultural and strategic dimensions of world evangelization Writings from more than 150 mission scholars and practitioners over 60 of them new to this edition portray the history and anticipate the potential of the global Christian movement Every one of the 170 articles and side bars offers practical wisdom enabling Christians to labor together in bold biblical hope to finish the task of seeing that Christ is named and followed among all the peoples of the earth The Fourth Edition contains over 60 articles and sidebars that are new to this edition Many articles have been updated and revised Perspectives on the World Christian Movement, 1999 Perspectives on the World Christian Movement Steven C. Hawthorne, 2009-01 Brazilian Evangelical Missions in the Arab World Edward L. Smither, 2012-07-20 From a mission field to a missions sender These words capture the story of the Brazilian evangelical church which has gone from receiving missionaries in the nineteenth and twentieth centuries to becoming a movement that presently sends out more global laborers than the churches of England or Canada do After narrating Brazil s missional shift in this volume Smither addresses one fascinating element of the story Brazilian evangelical efforts in the Arab world How have Brazilians adapted culturally among Arabs how have they approached ministry and how have they cultivated a theology of mission in the process Brazilian Evangelical Missions in the Arab World gives the reader insights from one emerging missions movement with an eye toward a more comprehensive view of the global church Mobilizing Movements Murray Moerman, 2021-02-26 Accelerating Movements As record numbers of people around the world respond to Christ a need for community structure and leadership is emerging Disciple making and church planting must extend to the most remote areas of every people group and nation to assist individuals as they come to Christ Lasting movements build on specific traits and strategies in both teams and leadership including divine passion that lasts beyond whims and hardships Murray Moerman provides realistic expectations of what it takes to facilitate a movement and how to gain the support of various partners needed for long term success resulting in whole nation church planting saturation Based on years of research Mobilizing Movements contains both practical and spiritual elements You will find insights and models from several continents for macro whole nation strategies and micro personal disciple making Features include Key components of healthy movements Nine accelerants for movements Analysis of seven challenging contexts in which movements can still flourish Practical strategies scalable to your capacity and context Writing for novices as well as practitioners Moerman casts a vision for completing the Great Commission and invites us to mobilize movements Engaging Neighbors and Nations Tim Silberman, 2024-03-27 Evangelical churches are widely known for their commitment to mission locally and to the ends of the earth However in the last century there have been profound theological and sociological changes that have impacted mission practice Church and mission leaders have encouraged Christians to respond to the need for mission locally especially as church decline accelerates in much of the Western world Yet others are concerned that global mission involvement is being neglected in many local churches This study explores the factors influencing local church participation in mission both locally and around the world Through an in depth analysis of the practices and perspectives among evangelical churches in Australia the author identifies a range of theological missiological and organizational influences on mission practice Though beliefs about the church the world and mission are important understanding organizational principles social capital and the power of relational networks provides invaluable insights into church mission practice This book is for those who long to see local churches committed to engaging both their neighbors and the nations in mission growing our understanding of how to encourage helpful church practices for the sake of Christ Inaugurations Stanley E. Porter, 2017-09-25 The inaugural lecture is a tradition that has been practiced in western universities for centuries These lectures originated in the great universities of continental Europe spread to Great Britain and then to North America The tradition has now been appropriated further by universities around the world and especially of late in majority world countries The inaugural lecture is a form of academic discourse in which the recipient of a suitable academic honor usually the bestowal of a form of professorial appointment offers a public lecture in recognition of the event McMaster Divinity College follows in this academic tradition by attaching public inaugural lectures to the appointment of scholars to professorial positions and in particular to those appointed to endowed and named professorial chairs within the institution McMaster Divinity College currently has six such endowed named chairs held by its faculty This volume contains the six lectures by those in these six chairs representing the fields of preaching theology pastoral studies Christian worldview ministry studies and Christian history Each of these inaugural lectures is a contribution to scholarship in the field and a token of the inaugural professorial lecture The SAGE Handbook of Qualitative Research in the Asian Context Safary Wa-Mbaleka, Arceli Rosario, 2022-05-05 Qualitative research is growing in Asia and globally In an Asian context this requires an awareness of a completely different set of norms practices and expectations than those covered by books from a western perspective This handbook truly celebrates these differences Spanning the full research process from philosophy and ethics to design and methods and through data collection management analysis and dissemination it focuses specifically on the practicalities needed to conduct effective and culturally responsive research in the Asian context This handbook extends beyond researchers actually in Asia and also speaks to researchers working with Asian participants researching in Asian immigrant neighbourhoods and studying the larger global topics like socioeconomic challenges climate change or technological advancement This is the first book to focus specifically on qualitative research in the Asian context and includes diverse contributors from Asia such as the Philippines Singapore Thailand India Oman China South Korea Indonesia Kazakhstan Hong Kong and from other continents such as North America South America Africa Europe and Oceania Section 1 Foundations of Qualitative Research in Asia Section 2 Qualitative Research Designs Section 3 Best Practices in Dealing with Qualitative Research Data Section 4 Other Qualitative Research Topics Word and Power Gareth W. D.

Stewart,2015-02-16 Historically the Reformed and Charismatic streams have seemed to be almost mutually exclusive In recent years this exclusivity has been being challenged by a new generation of Reformed thinkers This work aims at considering the contribution of John Wimber the late leader of the Vineyard Churches to contemporary theological reflection within the Reformed tradition Taking into account John Wimber s unique theology of the radical middle which is somewhere between Pentecostal and Evangelical this book asks whether Wimber may be a possible alternative source for the contemporary Reformed Churches as they approach ministry and mission in the twenty first century Written from a confessional Presbyterian context in Northern Ireland Word and Power places Wimber in his theological context and asks whether Wimber s view of power evangelism discipleship formation and ministry training might be a model that Reformed Churches and Presbyterians in particular could adopt for their ecclesiology today Diaspora Christianities Sam George,2019-01-15 South Asians make up one of the largest diasporas in the world and Christians form a relatively large share of it Christians from the Indian subcontinent have successfully transplanted themselves all over the globe and many from different faith backgrounds have embraced Christianity at overseas locations This volume includes biblical reflections on diasporic life charts the historical and geographical spread of South Asian Christianity and closes with a call to missional living in diaspora It analyzes how migrants revive Christianity in adopted host nations and ancestral homelands This book portrays the fascinating saga of Christians of South Asian origin who have pitched their tents in the furthest corners of the globe and showcases triumphs and challenges of scattered communities It presents the contemporary religious experiences from a plethora of discrete perspectives It deals with issues such as community history struggles of identity and belonging linkage of religious and cultural traditions preservation and adaptation of faith practices ties between ancestral homeland and host nation and diasporic moral dilemmas in diaspora This book argues that human scattering amplifies diversity within Christianity and for the need for heterogeneous unity amidst great diversities All Creation Groans Daniel W. O'Neill,Beth

Snodderly,2021-05-18 In a suffering world reeling from global pandemics and health disparities it is high time to think theologically about the devastating experience of disease and to address our God inspired responsibility to understand its origins and engage in its management In a fragmented world we need a unifying and integrated perspective on people in communities embedded in a fractured ecology In an academic world blind to the spiritual world and imbalanced toward technical solutions the global church must articulate a contemporary metanarrative that is moral practical and deeply transformational All Creation Groans brings together multiple perspectives for a compelling global health approach to the pathologies of the world as a part of the missio Dei The authors paint a unifying perspective on God s healing intentions in creation redemption and consummation and the opposing nature corrupting effects of the rebellion of created moral agents It is a fresh call for the global church to engage in aligning with God s healing action for eternally sustainable global health

Proclaiming the Gospel, Engaging the World Michael Bräutigam,Peter G. Riddell,Justin T. T. Tan,2021-01-21 In 2020 Melbourne School of Theology celebrates its one hundredth anniversary Proclaiming the Gospel Engaging the World is a collection of essays that showcases the rich history of the Melbourne Bible Institute the Bible College of Victoria and the Melbourne School of Theology three names but a single proud tradition of serving Christ This volume contains papers by present and past members of the MBI BCV MST family The papers are organized around four themes historical review theological spiritual approaches biblical perspectives and cultural perspectives This volume contributes towards remembering the past while also looking forward to the future getting a clearer sense of how we participate in God s mission in Australia and the world

Political Pentecostalism Leandro L. B. Fontana,Markus Luber,2021-08-13 The last decade has witnessed fundamental shifts in the relationship between religion and politics In this light religious symbols motifs justifications and practices are increasingly noticeable in political discourses as well as agendas particularly in the Global South with Pentecostal Christians standing out as salient actors Performative practices enacted in political contexts such as the anointing of state authorities prophecies warfare prayers etc have drawn the attention of numerous scholars worldwide The four surveys contained in this volume account for these developments in Africa Asia and Latin America and synoptically engage with the following question Can any meaningful nexus connecting multiple and apparently isolated nodes of Pentecostal engagement in the political sphere around the globe be identified In addition they do the groundwork for drawing parallels on a global level on the basis of which new light can be shed on fundamental changes in Pentecostal actorhood and self understanding Thus local developments and ethnographic studies are for the first time reflected upon from a global perspective

Crossing Cultures with Jesus Katie J. Rawson,2015-11-04 You can be a missionary by crossing an ocean or by crossing the street Filled with compelling stories practical resources and relational tools this guide from veteran crosscultural minister Katie Rawson shows how we can witness the way Jesus did entering into people s worlds and drawing them into God centered community

Equipping for Global Mission Linda P. Saunders,Gregory Mathias,Edward L.

Smither,2024-08-13 From Cognitive Teaching to Connected Learning Given the landscape of global Christianity and the variety of approaches to theological and missiological training today how do we equip the global church for the mission of God Should mission organizations or sending churches conduct their own in house training What is the role of Bible colleges and seminaries in equipping for mission today What about informal approaches to theological and ministry training Equipping for Global Mission offers insights from seasoned scholars and practitioners Beginning with theological convictions and practical reflections our authors make a case for what equipping for mission could look like in the present global church Case studies from India China North America and Britain further challenge the reader to reflect on this critical issue The full scope of educating for mission is far too broad of a task for any single organization This is why the contributors serve the church so well by enlarging a much needed conversation This book is a clarion call to all who care about missions and the global church Join world leaders in reshaping missions education today by using the practical and strategic wisdom in these pages

Biblical Missions Thomas Nelson,2025-02-25 Biblical Missions Principles Priorities and Practices brings together experienced and biblically focused missions voices to equip evangelical students worldwide for a faithful gospel witness today This comprehensive textbook produced by The Master s Academy International TMAI a non profit organization and part of the John MacArthur family of ministries is designed to equip pastors and church leaders around the world in biblical missiology and practice The book combines 100 voices from 60 nations of origin or service to not only address the principles of biblical missions theory but also offer recommendations for faithful field applications both within historically missions sending countries as well as in Majority World countries that are reaching their surrounding regions with the gospel Local churches around the world as well as like minded Christian colleges seminaries and missions organizations are invited to follow these proven pathways to fulfill the Great Commission faithfully
