New Horizons in English 2 ,2003 Community Theatre Eugene van Erven,2002-09-11 Community theatre is an important device for communities to collectively share stories to participate in political dialogue and to break down the increasing exclusion of marginalised groups of citizens It is practised all over the world by growing numbers of people Published at the same time as a video of the same name this is a unique record of these theatre groups in action Based on van Erven s own travels and experiences working with community theatre groups in six very different countries this is the first study of their work and the methodological traditions which have developed around the world The Postcolonial Animal Evan Mwangi,2019-09-06 Despite the central role that animals play in African writing and daily life African literature and African thinkers remain conspicuously absent from the field of animal studies The Postcolonial Animal African Literature and Posthuman Ethics demonstrates the importance of African writing to animal studies by analyzing how postcolonial African writing including folktales religion philosophy and anticolonial movements has been mobilized to call for humane treatment of nonhuman others Mwangi illustrates how African authors grapple with the possibility of an alternative to eating meat and how they present postcolonial animal consuming cultures as shifting toward an embrace of cultural and political practices that avoid the use of animals and minimize animal suffering The Postcolonial Animal analyzes texts that imagine a world where animals are not abused or used as a source of food clothing or labor and that offer instruction in how we might act responsibly and how we should relate to others both human and nonhuman in order to ensure a world free of oppression The result is an equitable world where even those who are utterly foreign to us are accorded respect and where we recognize the rights of all marginalized groups A History of Theatre in Africa Martin Banham,2004-05-13 This book aims to offer a broad history of theatre in Africa The roots of African theatre are ancient and complex and lie in areas of community festival seasonal rhythm and religious ritual as well as in the work of popular entertainers and storytellers Since the 1950s in a movement that has paralleled the political emancipation of so much of the continent there has also grown a theatre that comments back from the colonized world to the world of the colonists and explores its own cultural political and linguistic identity A History of Theatre in Africa offers a comprehensive yet accessible account of this long and varied chronicle written by a team of scholars in the field Chapters include an examination of the concepts of history and theatre North Africa Francophone theatre Anglophone West Africa East Africa Southern Africa Lusophone African theatre Mauritius and Reunion and the African diaspora African Books Catalogue Series ,2000 Children s literature in English and African languages transliterated summaries in English Eastern African Literatures Russell West-Pavlov,2018 The book offers an overview of Eastern African writing in English since the mid twentieth century It shows how proximate modes of literary communication arising out of residual but vibrant traditions of oral communication blend with contemporary media to produce hybrid genres
