Lawrence Hogue, 2009 Redefining postmodern American literature to include the voices of women and nonwhite writers Ideology and Aesthetics in American Literature and Arts Jaroslav Kušnír, 2012-01-31 This book includes contributions by African East and West European Asian and North American scholars which deal with and compare ideological and non ideological approaches to the analysis of literary artistic as well as popular works popular music mostly by American authors Most of the essays deal with a way various aspects of American identity are depicted represented treated ideologized and aestheticized in different literary genres forms of art and media The contributions offer multidisciplinary cross cultural and comparative perspectives and represent a diversity of scholarly voices ranging from the general discussion on the relationship between ideology and art Anton Pokriv k ideology and multiculturalism Cristina Garrig s They also give the analysis of poetry Pokriv k Obododima Oha postmodern fiction Pi Hua Ni Cristina Garrig s drama Zoe Detsi Diamanti Csaba Csap as well as the comparative analysis of the depiction of the identity of North American Indians in such different media as literature and film Michal Peprn k In addition to this the book includes the analysis of Black rap music Wojciech Kallas Postmodern Literature and Race Len Platt, Sara Upstone, 2015-02-19 Postmodernism Literature and Race explores the question of how dramatic shifts in conceptions of race in the late twentieth and early twenty first centuries have been addressed by writers at the cutting edge of equally dramatic transformations of literary form An opening section engages with the broad question of how the geographical and political positioning of experimental writing informs its contribution to racial discourses while later segments focus on central critical domains within this field race and performativity race and the contemporary nation and postracial futures With essays on a wide range of contemporary writers including Bernadine Evaristo Alasdair Gray Jhumpa Lahiri Andrea Levy and Don DeLillo this volume makes an important contribution to our understanding of the politics and aesthetics of contemporary writing Where "Indians" Fear to Tread? Fabienne C. Quennet, 2001 The two fields of contemporary Native American literature and culture exist in the tension between two literary traditions the Native oral and literary tradition and the modern Western mainstream literary influence In her North Dakota quartet Love Medicine 1984 The Beet Queen 1986 Tracks 1988 The Bingo Palace 1994 Native American mixedblood author Louise Erdrich b 1954 exemplifies where and how these traditions meet and interact A postmodern reading of the quartet shows that Native American authors and literary critics alike need not be afraid to tread into postmodernism since an interpretation from this perspective opens up the possibility of freeing Native American literature from the limiting label of ethnic or minority literature and of establishing it as a vital part of American literature This postmodern interpretation of Louise Erdrich s quartet offers a discussion of the theoretical issues involved in the context of ethnic writing and its relation to postmodernism as well as an analysis of her intricate narrative strategies in particular her use of multiple perspectives and of intertextual techniques The main part of the interpretation consists of a reading of postmodern concepts such as magical realism carnivalesque humor the relationship between reader and text gender roles and sexual identities history and textuality the trickster figure and games and chance as can be found in Louise Erdrich s North Dakota quartet Unsettling the Literary West Nathaniel Lewis, 2003-01-01 The test of western literature has invariably been Is it real Is it accurate Authentic The result is a standard anything but literary as Nathaniel Lewis observes in this ambitious work a wholesale rethinking of the critical terms and contexts and thus of the very nature of western writing Why is western writing virtually missing from the American literary canon but a frequent success in the marketplace The skewed status of western literature Lewis contends can be directly attributed to the strategies of the region s writers and these strategies depend consistently on the claim of authenticity A perusal of western American authorship reveals how these writers effectively present themselves as accurate and reliable recorders of real places histories and cultures but not as stylists or inventors The imaginative qualities of this literature are thus obscured in the name of authentic reproduction Through a study of a set of western authors and their relationships to literary and cultural history Lewis offers a reconsideration of the deceptive and often undervalued history of western American literature With unequivocal admiration for the literature under scrutiny Lewis exposes the potential for startling new readings once western writing is freed from its insistence on a questionable authenticity His book sets out a broader system of inquiry that points writers and critics of western literature in the direction of a new and truly sustaining literary tradition Native American Literature Helen May Dennis, 2006-11-22 Considering Native American literature within a modernist framework and comparing it with writers such as Woolf Stein T S Eliot and Proust results in a valuable and enriching context for the selected texts Radio Welten Michaela Hampf, Ursula Lehmkuhl, 2006

The Postmodernism Debate in Latin America John Beverley, Michael Aronna, José Oviedo, 1995-05-05 Postmodernism may seem a particularly inappropriate term when used in conjunction with a region that is usually thought of as having only recently and then unevenly acceded to modernity Yet in the last several years the concept has risen to the top of the agenda of cultural and political debate in Latin America This collection explores the Latin American engagement with postmodernism less to present a regional variant of the concept than to situate it in a transnational framework Recognizing that postmodernism in Latin America can only inaccurately be thought of as having traveled from an advanced capitalist center to arrive at a still dependent neocolonial periphery the contributors share the assumption that postmodernism is itself about the dynamics of interaction between local and metropolitan cultures in a global system in which the center periphery model has begun to break down These essays examine the ways in which postmodernism not only designates the effects of this transnationalism in Latin America but also registers the cultural and political impact on an increasingly simultaneous global culture of a Latin America struggling with its own set of postcolonial contingencies particularly the crisis of its political left the dominance of neoliberal economic models and the new challenges and possibilities opened by democratization With new essays on the dynamics of Brazilian culture the relationship between postmodernism and Latin American feminism postmodernism and imperialism and the implications of postmodernist theory for social policy as well as the text of the Declaration from the Lacandon Jungle of the Zapatista National Liberation Army this expanded edition of boundary 2 will interest not only Latin Americanists but scholars in all disciplines concerned with theories of the postmodern Contributors Xavier Alb Jos Joaqu n Brunner Fernando Calder n Enrique Dussel N stor Garc a Canclini Mart n Hopenhayn Neil Larsen the

Womack, Robert Allen Warrior, 2006 A study of Native literature from the perspective of national sovereignty and self determination Postcolonial literature and the biblical call for justice, 1994 These writers from postcolonial lands express readings of individual biblical texts as well as theoretical discussion of such issues as the challenge biblical justice makes to poststructuralism the tensions in synthesizing Christianity and indigenous cultures and the ethical dilemmas faced by writers opposing injustice Postmodernism and After Regina Rudaitytė, 2009-05-05 The present collection of academic articles is an attempt to reflect on new openings and recent developments in literature literary theory and culture which seem to point beyond postmodernism and register a return to traditional concepts theoretical premises and authorial practices Interestingly enough forty years after the publication of John Barth s seminal essay The Literature of Exhaustion 1967 the book is trying to diagnose the exhaustion of postmodernism which was predicted by David Lodge already two decades ago It also attempts to trace the signs in contemporary literature indicating that postmodernism is past its heyday that it is losing or has lost its shine fascination and attraction and that writers have been turning to the old or pre modern forms practices and strategies Herbert Grabes comprehensive and illuminating article From the Postmodern to the Pre Modern More Recent Changes in Literature Art and Theory which opens and sets the tone for this collection of essays is a major assessment of new developments in literary culture focusing on the evolution of the postmodern to the premodern mode it also highlights the role and current popularity of cultural studies and cultural history theoretical movements which have been prevailing for some time now after the end of deconstruction The articles assembled in this collection are on diverse thematics and written from diverse theoretical perspectives they differ in scope and methodology and their focus ranges from the postmodern intertextual aspect to the open questioning of it and to more recent developments in the literary culture Focusing on literary icons like A S Byatt John Banville Margaret Atwood Umberto Eco Vladimir Nabokov but also extending into a less known regions geographically as well they invite reconsideration and reconceptualization of such key notions as truth meaning production textuality and literary interpretation This book aims at opening fresh discussion debate and reflection on the new age reaching beyond postmodernism and the budding literary mode whatever labels we might stick to it Landscapes of the New West Krista Comer, 1999 In the early 1970s empowered by the civil rights and women s movements a new group of women writers began speaking to the American public Their topic broadly defined was the postmodern American West By the mid 1980s their combined works made for a bona fide literary groundswell in both critical and commercial terms However as Krista Comer notes despite the attentions of publishers the media and millions of readers literary scholars have rarely addressed this movement or its writers Too many critics Comer argues still enamored of western images that are both masculine and antimodern have been slow to reckon with the emergence of a new far more feminine postmodern multiracial and urban west Here she calls for a redesign of the field of western cultural studies one that engages issues of gender and race and is more self conscious about space itself_ especially that cherished symbol of western authenticity open landscape Surveying works by Joan Didion Wanda Coleman Maxine Hong Kingston Leslie Marmon Silko Barbara Kingsolver Pam Houston Louise Erdrich Sandra Cisneros and Mary Clearman Blew Comer shows how these and other contemporary women writers have mapped new geographical imaginations upon the cultural and social spaces of today s American West
