Why The Church Luigi Giussani:

Why the Church? Luigi Giussani, 2001-03-02 Giussani begins by focusing on the Church as a community composed of people who are aware of themselves as defined by the gift of the Spirit from which they derive a new conception of existence the fruit of conversion He then describes the Church's developing self awareness of its dual elements of the human and divine Concerned with verifying the Church's claim to embody Christ Giussani situates the locus of verification in human experience arguing that a different type of life is born in those who try to live the life of the Church Why the Church is a seminal study that will engage both the scholar and the general reader Faith Comes from What Is Heard: An Introduction to Fundamental Theology Lawrence Feingold, 2016-07-01 Faith Comes from What Is Heard An Introduction to Fundamental Theology informs both the heart and mind as it brings together dogmatic and biblical theology the Thomistic tradition the teachings of the Fathers of the Church and the contemporary Magisterium Drawing heavily upon the works of St Thomas Aquinas Bl John Henry Newman Joseph Ratzinger and St John Paul II the author examines the foundations of Catholic theology or Fundamental Theology which is theology's reflection on itself as a discipline its method and its foundation in God's Revelation transmitted to us through Scripture and Tradition Although Faith Comes from What Is Heard is useful for all Catholics who want to understand the foundations of their faith it is specifically designed to serve as a textbook for courses in Fundamental Theology in seminaries and in graduate and undergraduate programs in theology It can also serve as a textbook for introductory theology and Scripture courses The topics covered in Faith Comes from What Is Heard include Revelation and Faith Theology Tradition and the Magisterium Biblical Hermeneutics the Historicity of the Gospels and Biblical Typology

Generative Thought Elisa Buzzi, 2003 Luigi Giussani born in 1922 is one of the most influential thinkers and leaders in the Catholic world today He is the founder of the Catholic lay movement Communion and Liberation now present in more than 70 countries worldwide with a membership well in excess of 100 000 In addition hundreds of thousands of people have come into contact with him through the charitable cultural and social works of his movement and through his writings This volume presents Giussani's works to the English speaking world through the multiple perspectives of thinkers with different backgrounds and intellectual motivations showing the lively dialogue evoked by their encounter with his generative thought and inviting deeper engagement by readers the North American and Western cultural and religious context They point to an important element in all of Giussani's work his proposal that the Christian Event is the answer to the deepest and most pressing questions in today's world With his clear and vigorous awareness of the cultural philosophical and theological issues central to the contemporary debate Giussani succeeds in making the truth of the Catholic tradition both reasonable and relevant Religious Freedom After the Sexual Revolution Helen Alvare, 2022-06-24 Laws mandating cooperation with the state's new sexual orthodoxy are among the leading contemporary threats to the religious freedom of Catholic institutions in the United States These demand that Catholic schools health care providers or social services cooperate with contraception cohabitation abortion same sex marriage or transgender identity and surgeries But Catholic institutions responses seem thin and uninspiring to many They are criticized as legalistic authoritarian bureaucratic retrograde and hurtful to women and to persons who identify as LGBTQ They are even called un Christian They invite disrespect both for Catholic sexual responsibility norms and for religious freedom generally not only among lawmakers and judges but also in the court of public opinion which includes skeptical Catholics The U S Constitution protects Catholic institutions autonomy their authority over faith and doctrine internal operations and the personnel involved in personifying and transmitting the faith Other constitutional and statutory provisions also safeguard religious freedom if not always perfectly Catholic institutions could take far better advantage of all of these existing protections if they communicated first how they differ from secular institutions how their missions emerge from their faith in Jesus Christ and their efforts both to make his presence felt in the world today and to display the inbreaking of the Kingdom of God Second they need to draw out the link between their teachings on sexual responsibility and love of God and neighbor Drawing upon Scripture tradition history theology and empirical evidence Helen Alvar frames a more complete inspiring and appealing response to current laws attempts to impose a new sexual orthodoxy upon Catholic institutions It clarifies the ecclesial nature of Catholic schools hospitals and social services It summarizes the empirical evidence supporting the link between personnel decisions and mission and between Catholic sexual responsibility norms and human flourishing It grounds Catholic sexual responsibility teachings in the same love of God and neighbor that animate the existence operations and services of Catholic institutions

Disarming Beauty
Julián Carrón, 2017-05-01 In 2005 Father Juli n Carr n became the leader of the global ecclesial movement Communion and Liberation following the death of the movement s founder Father Luigi Giussani Disarming Beauty is the English translation of an engaging and thought provoking collection of essays by one of the principal Catholic leaders and intellectuals in the world today Adapted from talks given by Fr Carr n these essays have been thoroughly reworked by the author to offer an organic presentation of a decade long journey They present the content of his elaboration of the gospel message in light of the tradition of Fr Giussani the teachings of the popes and the urgent needs of contemporary people Carr n offers a broad diagnosis of challenges in society and then introduces their implications in contexts such as families schools workplaces and political communities In a dialogue with his listeners he inspires and encourages them to lay out a new path for the Catholic church and the world Throughout his essays Carr n addresses the most pressing questions facing theologians today and provides insights that will interest everyone from the most devout to the firm nonbeliever Grappling with the interaction of Christian faith and modern culture Carr n treats in very real and concrete ways what is essential to maintaining and developing Christian faith and he invites an ongoing conversation about the meaning of faith truth and freedom

1968 - Culture and Counterculture Thomas V. Gourlay, Daniel Matthys, 2020-11-11 Sexual revolution terrorism student riots civil rights Stonewall Riots feminism and the publication of Humane vitae The year 1968 is a milestone in twentieth century history The papers presented in this volume mark an interdisciplinary and wide ranging approach to a year and indeed a decade whose movements and events are still very much alive in contemporary society The fruits of the conference are published in this volume to invite ongoing reflection and a critical discourse to a watershed moment in our history and culture

Ecclesiology at the Beginning of the Third Millennium Kevin Wagner, M. Isabell Naumann, Peter John McGregor, 2019-12-20 Born from the side of Jesus pierced on the cross the church is the living body of Christ Like Jesus himself it is both eternal and temporal spiritual and material spotless and wounded Constituted as an integrated living body the church is the sacrament of Christ that is it reveals Christ to the world and makes him present in the world It exists in order to evangelize and does this most effectively when its diverse members are united in love This collection of chapters from scholars from diverse fields offers a fresh approach to Catholic ecclesiology It is hoped that the reader of this book will discover anew the beauty of the church a living body always old and ever new

Christ, God's Companionship with Man Luigi Giussani, 2015-07-01 This volume is a selection of the most significant writings by Monsignor Luigi Giussani founder of the Italian Catholic lay movement Communion and Liberation which is practised in eighty countries around the world Presented by Juli n Carr n Giussani s successor as head of Communion and Liberation Christ God s Companionship with Man is the most succinct introduction to the breadth of Giussani s thought including memorable passages from works such as The Journey to Truth Is an Experience At the Origin of the Christian Claim Why the Church Generating Traces in the History of the World and Is It Possible to Live This Way Many speak of Giussani as a friendly presence a man who believed that it was possible to live in faith every day and in any circumstance As a writer and religious scholar who was deeply devoted to his work Giussani s teachings and reflections have come to generate worldwide recognition and support Revealing that spirituality and community can be found in ordinary ways Christ God s Companionship with Man will inspire all who read it

Beyond Secularism and Jihad? Peter D. Beaulieu, 2012-07-13 Peter D Beaulieu examines the challenge posed by and to modernity and historic Islam as they encounter one another He compares the Western separation of Church and state with the unitary Islamic State and explores the proposed cultural and societal principles of the Second Vatican Council as potentially influencing long term events in both arenas Beaulieu s research is comprehensive and richly documented yet offers an accessible triangular inquiry into the mosque the manger and modernity By restoring a place at the table for Trinitarian Christianity alongside the engulfing monotheism of Islam and the alternative skepticism of Western rationalism this inquiry broadens the pallet of inter religious and intercultural contact points Beyond Secularism and Jihad provides balanced attention to the differences as well as the similarities between Christianity Islam and modernity An emerging theme is natural law which is universal and intrinsic to all mankind and not confined to competing theologies Neglected in the West that it helped create natural law might contribute to the needed grammar for dialogue between the citizens in the West and the followers of Islam

False Dawn Lee Penn, 2004 The interfaith movement which began with the 1893 World s

Parliament of Religions in Chicago has grown worldwide Although this movement has been largely unknown to the public it now provides a spiritual face for globalization the economic and political forces leading us all from nationalism to One World The most ambitious organization in today s interfaith movement is the United Religions Initiative URI founded by William Swing the Episcopal Bishop of California Investigative reporter Lee Penn a Catholic ex Marxist exhaustively documents the history and beliefs of the URI and its New Age and globalist allies the vested interests that support these movements and the direction they appear to be taking The interfaith movement is no longer merely the province of a coterie of little heeded religious idealists with grandiose visions The URI s proponents have ranged from billionaire George Soros to President George W Bush from the far right Rev Sun Myung Moon to the liberal Catholic theologian Hans K ng and from the Dalai Lama to the leaders of government approved Protestant churches in the People s Republic of China The interfaith movement including the URI is being promoted by globalist and New Age reformers who favor erosion of national sovereignty marginalization of traditional religions establishment of global governance and creation of a new Earth based global spirituality in effect a one world religion Therefore the URI and the interfaith movement are poised to become the spiritual foundation of the New World Order the new civilization now proposed by Mikhail Gorbachev the last leader of the Soviet Union In The Reign of Quantity and the Signs of the Times French metaphysician Ren Gu non spoke of the anti tradition the forces of materialism and secular humanism finally giving way to the counter tradition the satanic inversion of true spirituality leading to the regime of Antichrist The anti tradition weakens and dissolves traditional spiritualities after which the counter tradition sets up a counterfeit in their place Since Gu non s time as is well known anti traditional forces have greatly advanced worldwide It is less well known that counter traditional movements have also made great strides and now stand closer to the centers of global political and religious power than ever before The counter tradition is making inroads on the political and cultural Right as much as it is doing on the Left False Dawn painstakingly documents these trends and speculates on their future development In so doing the author takes investigative reporting to the threshold of prophecy and gives us a stunningly plausible picture of the global religious landscape of the 21st century This extraordinary project is the literary equivalent of turning over a flat rock There is much to be seen and learned here all of it unsettling disquieting occasionally downright scary William Murchison Radford Distinguished Professor Baylor University When a bishop of a Christian church happily worships alongside a Wiccan invoking other gods something has gone horribly wrong In False Dawn Lee Penn has produced a comprehensive and critical history of the United Religions Initiative This book sounds a clear warning Anyone who makes theological truth subservient to utopianism denigrates all religions Douglas LeBlanc Editor GetReligion.org

Is It Possible To Live This Way? Luigi Giussani, 2008 A compilation of Giussani s conversations with young people who have chosen the path of the consecrated life in the Church The Catholic Church Walter Kasper, 2015-02-26 Walter Kasper is already well known and loved throughout the English speaking world He has held high office in the Vatican but until his recent retirement has felt constrained from publishing what he really thinks and his vision of the Church for the future Kasper brings to conclusion a project that has been pursued for years as it joins together his greatest monographs on the subject of God's teaching and Christology The book covers three main topics Nature Reality and the Mission of the Church The introductory section is autobiographical and the reader can see Kasper's personal and theological way in to and with the Church He develops the actual ecclesiological exegesis for Kasper the representation of the Being of the Church is not about empirical description but rather a testimony of being He emphasizes that nobody is able to apply the stereotypical and idealistic image of the heavens to the critical acknowledgement of the church's present The program of the Church is ultimately not self directed but rather remains oriented towards the finalization of the arrival of the kingdom of God and the spiritual healing of the human race

Ressourcement after Vatican II Nicholas J. Healy, Jr., Matthew Levering, 2019 Beginning with a personal recollection of the achievements of Joseph Fessio S J this work includes twelve essays by theologians who acknowledge a debt to Father Fessio and Ignatius Press The writers treat a variety of topics including the Church the liturgy the interpretation of Scripture and the development of doctrine representing the interests of Father Fessio and the books he has published The essays touch upon the major twentieth century figures who influenced Father Fessio such as Hans Urs von Balthasar Louis Bouyer Henri de Lubac Joseph Ratzinger and Josef Pieper From its founding by Father Fessio in 1978 Ignatius Press has translated and printed works by these great thinkers and writers in order to make their contributions to the Church available to English speaking Catholics

At the Origin of the Christian Claim Luigi Giussani, 1998-05-02 Giussani argues that if we accept the hypothesis that the mystery entered the realm of human existence and spoke in human terms the relationship between the individual and God is no longer based on a moral imaginative or aesthetic human effort but instead on coming upon an event in one's life Thus the religious method is overturned by Christ in Christianity it is no longer the person who seeks to know the mystery but the mystery that makes himself known by entering history At the Origin of the Christian Claim presents an intriguing argument supported with ample documentation from the gospels and other theological writings

A Man of the Church Michel Rene Barnes, 2012-09-01 Ralph del Colle was born in New York City on October 3 1954 and was raised in Mineola Long Island He attended Xavier High School in Chelsea and received a BA in History and Literature of Religions from New York University and MDiv MPhil and PhD degrees from Union Theological Seminary Ralph taught for 17 years in the Marquette University Theology Department prior to that he taught at Barry University Miami Shores Florida and at St Anselm College Manchester New Hampshire Ralph's lively Christian faith and interest in church unity led to his participation in ecumenical dialogues He served as a representative to the International Catholic Pentecostal Dialogue for the Pontifical Council on Christian Unity for 12 years and also served on the Catholic Reformed Dialogue and Catholic Evangelical Dialogue both for the U S Conference of Catholic Bishops He was invited by the Pontifical Council to serve as a representative to the World Council of Churches

The Risk of Education Luigi Giussani, 2019-01-15
Luigi Giussani a high school religion teacher throughout the 1950s and 1960s grounded his teachings in the vast body of experience to be found in Christianity's two thousand year history He told his students I'm not here to make you adopt the ideas I will give you as your own but to teach you a method for judging the things I will say Throughout his life education was one of Giussani's primary intellectual interests He believed that effective education required an adequate background in the Christian tradition presented within a lived experience that underscored the capacity of the faith to answer universal questions What he proposed was a process that allowed one to sift through tradition critically examining it and comparing it against the ultimate criteria for judgment the desires of the heart In Giussani's view the primary concern was to educate the human heart as God made it In The Risk of Education he states that fear leads students to associate this process of criticism with negativity or doubt Yet without an education in criticism students cannot develop conviction At a time when young people are abandoning the church and questioning the value of faith Giussani's method of judging and verifying Christianity as an experience seems a necessary intervention In The Risk of Education he argues that ultimately education and the Christian message reveal themselves through human freedom

A History of Apologetics Avery Dulles, 2018-08-22
Making the case for the Christian faith apologetics has always been part of the Church's mission Yet Christians sometimes have had different approaches to defending the faith responding to the needs of their respective times and framing their arguments to address the particular issues of their day Cardinal Avery Dulles's A History of Apologetics provides a masterful overview of Christian apologetics from its beginning in the New Testament through the Middle Ages and on to the present resurgence of apologetics among Catholics and Protestants Dulles shows how Christian apologists have at times both criticized and drawn from their intellectual surroundings to present the reasonableness of Christian belief Written by one of Catholicism's leading American theologians A History of Apologetics also examines apologetics in the 20th and early 21st centuries including its decline among Catholics following Vatican II and its recent revival as well as the contributions of contemporary Evangelical Protestant apologists Dulles also considers the growing Catholic Protestant convergence in apologetics No student of apologetics and contemporary theology should be without this superb and masterful work

Dialogue of Love Eduardo J. Echeverria, 2010-01-01
The Dialogue of Love is written from the perspective of an evangelical Catholic Ecumenist Raised Catholic but having responded to the Gospel at L'Abri Fellowship in 1970 Eduardo J. Echeverria's journey took the paths of Reformed and then Anglo Catholic Christianity on his way back to full communion with the Catholic Church in 1992 Engaging in ecumenical conversation as a committed Roman Catholic whose views have been shaped by among others Romano Guardini John Paul II and Joseph Ratzinger Benedict XVI the author discusses in an articulate bracing and constructive manner the positions of representative thinkers in the Dutch neo Calvinist tradition of Reformed Christianity Herman Bavinck G C Berkouwer and Herman Dooyeweerd Fundamental issues of ecclesiology meaning and truth sacramental theology the relation between the Church and the world nature and grace and issues on the relation of faith and reason are examined with the aim of achieving clarification and understanding Readers will experience ecumenical Dialogue not simply as an exchange of ideas but also as an exchange of gifts indeed a dialogue of love John Paul II

Aids in Africa Michael Czerny, 2007 The Catholic Church from the beginning of AIDS in Africa has been active in alleviation and treatment in prevention consolation and spreading hope Now to interpret the present time is to consider this complex issue seriously in the light of our scriptures faith tradition and practice That is what the essays in this volume strive to do back cover

Ecclesial Movements and Communities Brendan Leahy, Breandán Leahy, 2011 Leahy presents the movements as examples of the Church's charismatic dimension a principle which Pope John Paul II described as co essential with the hierarchical institutional dimension Rev Brendan Leahy is Professor of Systematic Theology at the Pontifical University of St Patrick's College Maynooth in Ireland He is a von Balthasar scholar and an ecumenist and has also written articles and books on interreligious dialogue issues facing the Church in the 21st century renewal in the Church and the priesthood
