Why We Make Things And Why It Matters The Education Of A Craftsman:

Why We Make Things and Why It Matters Peter Korn, 2015-03-31 A furniture maker and author offers a mix of personal memoir and personal philosophy in a book perfect for craftspeople, artisans and artists. Woodworking, handicrafts, the rewards of creative practice, bringing something new and meaningful into the world through one's own vision, make us fully alive. Peter Korn explains his search for meaning as an Ivy League educated child of the middle class who finds employment as a novice carpenter on Nantucket, transitions to self-employment as a designer-maker of fine furniture, takes a turn at teaching at Colorado's Anderson Ranch Arts Center, and finally founds a school in Maine, the Center for Furniture Craftsmanship, an internationally respected non-profit institution. This is not a how-to book in any sense. Korn wants to get at the why of craft and the satisfactions of creative work to understand their essential nature. How does the making of objects shape our identities? How does creative work enrich our communities and society? What does the process of making things reveal to us about ourselves? Korn poignantly provides answers in this book that is for the artist, artisan, crafter, do-it-yourselfer inside us all. In his beautiful book, Peter Korn invites us to understand craftsmanship as an activity that connects us to others and affirms what is best in ourselves. Matthew Crawford, New York Times bestselling author of Shop Class as Soulcraft. What is the point of craft in a completely mass-produced world? This fascinating account offers insights into the significance of the handmade object for the maker as well as for society as a whole. Martin Puryear, artist, recipient of the Guggenheim and MacArthur Foundation Fellowships.

Making is Connecting David Gauntlett, 2018-05-21 SECOND UPDATED EDITION WITH THREE ALL NEW CHAPTERS The first edition of Making is Connecting struck a chord with crafters, YouTubers, makers, music producers, artists, and coders alike. David Gauntlett argues that through making things, people engage with the world and create connections with each other. Online and offline, we see that people want to make their mark and to make connections. This shift from a sit-back-and-be-told culture to a making-and-doing culture means that a vast array of people are exchanging their own ideas, videos, and other creative material online as well as engaging in real-world crafts, music projects, and hands-on experiences. Drawing on evidence from psychology politics philosophy and economics Gauntlett shows that this everyday creative engagement is necessary and essential for the happiness and survival of modern societies This fully revised second edition includes many new sections as well as three brand new chapters on creative processes do it yourself strategies and platforms for creativity The Interiors Theory Primer William Mangold,2025-07-31 In a world where life is increasingly defined by the spaces we inhabit understanding interiors is essential to understanding ourselves The Interiors Theory Primer maps the intellectual terrain of interior design and spatial experience introducing readers to key concepts that shape how people occupy interior spaces Organized into three parts this book begins with foundational concerns such as place identity materiality and atmosphere and then examines the boundaries and expertise of the discipline before turning to critical and emerging topics like biophilia virtuality and social justice Each chapter presents a focused literature review of a major theme in interiors theory supported by key design precedents and suggestions for further reading Drawing on a wide range of scholarship The Interiors Theory Primer offers a coherent framework for understanding interiors as a distinct interdisciplinary field deeply embedded in the human condition Accessible to students useful to professionals and provocative for scholars The Interiors Theory Primer argues that the designed environments in which we live work and gather deserve greater attention not only for their aesthetic and functional qualities but also for their powerful role in shaping contemporary life How to be a Craftivist Sarah P. Corbett,2017-10-05 This is mindful activism thought out strategic and engaging Guardian I love what Sarah does It's quiet activism for everyone including introverts Jon Ronson Sarah Corbett mixes an A grade mind with astonishing creativity and emotional awareness Lucy Siegle If we want a world that is beautiful kind and fair shouldn't our activism be beautiful kind and fair Award winning campaigner and founder of the global Craftivist Collective Sarah Corbett shows how to respond to injustice not with apathy or aggression but with gentle effective protest This is a manifesto for a more respectful and contemplative activism for conversation and collaboration where too often there is division and conflict for using craft to engage empower and encourage us all to be the change we wish to see in the world Sarah's craftivism has helped change laws and business policies as well as hearts and minds here with thoughtful principles and practical examples she shows that quiet action can speak as powerfully as the loudest voice Good Lives Samuel Clark,2021-03-04 Reasoning with autobiography is a way to self knowledge We can learn about ourselves as human beings and as individuals by reading thinking through and arguing about this distinctive kind of text Reasoning with Edmund Gosse's Father and Son is a way of learning about the nature of the good life and the roles that pleasure and self expression can play in it Reasoning with Siegfried Sassoon's Memoirs is a way of learning about transformative experience self alienation and therefore the nature of the self Good Lives Autobiography Self Knowledge Narrative and Self Realization develops this claim by answering a series of questions What is an autobiography How can we learn about ourselves from reading one On what subjects does autobiography teach What should we learn about them In particular given that autobiographies are narratives should we learn something about the importance of narrative in human life Could our storytelling about our own lives make sense of them as wholes unify them over time or make them good for us Could storytelling make the self Samuel Clark provides an authoritative critique of narrative and a defence of a self realization account of the self and its good He investigates the wide range of extant accounts of the self and of the good life and defends pluralist realism about self knowledge by reading and reasoning with autobiographies of self discovery martial life and solitude The volume concludes by showing that autobiography can be reasoning in pursuit of self knowledge each of us is an unchosen initially opaque seedlike self our good is the development and expression of our latent capacities which is our individual self realization and self narration plays much less role in our lives than some thinkers have supposed and the development and expression of potential much more
