House Of Psychotic Women An Autobiographical Topography Female Neurosis In Horror And Exploitation Films Kier La Janisse:

House of Psychotic Women Kier-La Janisse, 2015-01-09 Cinema is full of neurotic personalities but few things are more transfixing than a woman losing her mind onscreen Horror as a genre provides the most welcoming platform for these histrionics crippling paranoia desperate loneliness masochistic death wishes dangerous obsessiveness apocalyptic hysteria Unlike her male counterpart the eccentric the female neurotic lives a shamed existence making these films those rare places where her destructive emotions get to play HOUSE OF PSYCHOTIC WOMEN is an examination of these characters through a daringly personal autobiographical lens Anecdotes and memories interweave with film history criticism trivia and confrontational imagery to create a reflective personal history and a celebration of female madness both onscreen and off This critically acclaimed publication is packed with rare images that combine with family photos and artifacts to form a titillating sensory overload with a filmography that traverses the acclaimed and the obscure in equal measure Films covered include The Entity Paranormal Activity Singapore Sling 3 Women Toys Are Not for Children Repulsion Let's Scare Jessica to Death The Haunting of Julia Secret Ceremony Cutting Moments Out of the Blue Mademoiselle The Piano Teacher Possession Antichrist and hundreds more Prior to this ebook edition Kier La's highly acclaimed book has already been issued twice in hardcover and twice in paperback garnering extensive press coverage Endorsement including the following God this woman can write with a voice and intellect that's so new The truth in the most deadly unique way I've ever read Ralph Bakshi director of Fritz the Cat Heavy Traffic Lord of the Rings etc Fascinating engaging and lucidly written an extraordinary blend of deeply researched academic analysis and revealing memoir Iain Banks author of The Wasp Factory Recovering 1940s Horror Cinema Mario DeGiglio-Bellemare, Charlie Ellb , Kristopher Woofert, 2014-12-11 The 1940s is a lost decade in horror cinema undervalued and written out of most horror scholarship This collection revises reframes and deconstructs persistent critical binaries that have been put in place by scholarly discourse to label 1940s horror as somehow inferior to a classical period or canonical mode of horror in the 1930s especially as represented by the monster films of Universal Studios The book's four sections re-evaluate the historical political economic and cultural factors informing 1940s horror cinema to introduce new theoretical frameworks and to open up space for scholarly discussion of 1940s horror genre hybridity periodization and aesthetics Chapters focused on Gothic and Grand Guignol traditions operating in forties horror cinema 1940s proto slasher films the independent horrors of the Poverty Row studios and critical reevaluations of neglected hybrid films such as The Vampire's Ghost 1945 and slippery auteurs such as Robert Siodmak and Sam Neufeld work to recover a decade of horror that has been framed as having fallen victim to repetition exhaustion and decline Sidney J. Furie Daniel Kremer, 2015-11-12 Known for his visual style as well as for his experimentation in virtually every genre of narrative cinema award winning director Sidney J Furie also has the distinction of having made Canada's first ever feature length fictional film in English A Dangerous Age 1957 With a body of work that includes The Icress File 1965 Lady Sings the Blues 1972 and The Entity 1982 he has collaborated with major stars such as Marlon Brando Frank Sinatra Robert Redford and Michael Caine and his films have inspired some of Hollywood's most celebrated directors including Stanley Kubrick and Quentin Tarantino In this first biography of the prolific filmmaker author Daniel Kremer offers a comprehensive look at the director's unique career Furie pioneered techniques such as improvisation in large scale film productions and sometimes shot his films in sequence to develop the characters from the ground up and improve the performers in the moment spontaneity Not only has Stanley Kubrick acknowledged that Furie's The Boys in Company C 1978 informed and influenced Full Metal Jacket 1987 but Martin Scorsese has said that he considers The Entity to be one of the scariest horror films of all time However Furie was often later criticized for accepting lowbrow work and as a result little serious study has been devoted to the director Meticulously researched and enhanced by Kremer's close relationship with the filmmaker this definitive biography captures the highs and lows of an exceptional but underexamined career taking readers behind the scenes with a director who was often ahead of his time

Reappraising Cult Horror Films Lee Broughton, 2024-05-16 Identifies key and in some cases previously overlooked cult horror films from around the world and reappraises them by approaching and interrogating them in new ways New productions in the horror genre occupy a prominent space within the cinematic landscape of the 21st century but the genre's back catalogue of older films refuses to be consigned to the motion picture graveyard just yet Interest in older horror films remains high and an ever increasing number of these films have enjoyed an afterlife as cult movies thanks to regular film festival screenings television broadcasts and home video releases Similarly academic interest in the horror genre has remained high The frameworks applied by contributors to the collection include genre studies narrative theory socio political readings aspects of cultural studies gendered readings archival research fan culture work interviews with filmmakers aspects of film historiography spatial theory and cult film theory Covering a corpus of films that ranges from recognised cult horror classics such as The Wicker Man The Shining and Candyman to more obscure films like Daughters of Darkness The Legend of the 7 Golden Vampires Shivers Howling III The Marsupials and Inside Broughton has curated an international selection of case studies that show the diverse nature of the cult horror subgenre Be they star laden stylish violent bizarre or simply little heard of obscurities this book offers a multitude of new critical insights into a truly eclectic selection of cult horror films

The Art of Darkness S. Elizabeth, 2022-09-20 S Elizabeth curates a sourcebook of more than 200 artworks inspired and informed by the morbid melancholic and macabre Ms. 45 Alexandra Heller-Nicholas, 2017-02-28 Despite its association with the broadly disparaged rape revenge category Abel Ferrara's Ms 45 is today considered one of the most significant feminist cult films of the 1980s Straddling mainstream arthouse and exploitation film contexts Ms 45 is a potent case study for cult film analysis At its heart lies two figures Ferrara himself and the movie's star the iconic Zoe Lund who would further collaborate with Ferrara on later projects such as Bad Lieutenant

This book explores the entwining histories and contexts that led to Ms 45's creation and helped establish its enduring legacy particularly in terms of feminist cult film fandom and the film's status as one of the most important influential and powerful rape revenge films ever made for its signature excesses of sex and violence Italian giallo cinema is marked by switchblades mysterious killers whisky bottles and poetically overinflated titles A growing field of English language giallo studies has focused on aspects of production distribution and reception This volume explores an overlooked yet prevalent element in some of the best known gialli an obsession with art and artists in creative production with a particular focus on painting The author explores the appearance and significance of art objects across the masterworks of such filmmakers as Dario Argento Lucio Fulci Sergio Martino Umberto Lenzi Michele Soavi Mario Bava and his son Lamberto New Blood in Contemporary Cinema Pisters Patricia Pisters,2020-08-18 Since the turn of the millennium a growing number of female filmmakers have appropriated the aesthetics of horror for their films In this book Patricia Pisters investigates contemporary women directors such as Ngozi Onwurah Claire Denis Lucile Hadzihalilovic and Ana Lily Amirpour who put a poetics of horror to new use in their work expanding the range of gendered and racialised perspectives in the horror genre Exploring themes such as rage trauma sexuality family ties and politics New Blood in Contemporary Cinema takes on avenging women bloody vampires lustful witches scary mothers terrifying offspring and female Frankensteins By following a red trail of blood the book illuminates a new generation of women directors who have enlarged the general scope and stretched the emotional spectrum of the genre

The Maternal Imagination of Film and Film Theory Lauren Bliss,2020-09-03 This book challenges common sense understandings of the unconscious effects of cinema and visual culture It explores the castrating power of the early modern witch and the historical belief that pregnant women could manipulate and distort body image as figurative analogies for feminist theories of objectification and the male gaze Through developing this history as an impure but lively analogy this book serves as a provocation against the dominant imagining of objectification It offers innovative analyses of a wide ranging selection of films and topics including Joyce Wieland's Water Sark 1964 and its resonance with the works of John Cage and Stan Brakhage the documentary Histoires d A History of Abortion 1973 which contributed to the successful legalisation of abortion in France the Hong Kong horror film Dumplings Jiaozi 2004 where foetal cannibalism serves up an image of censorship and the dual productions The Book of Mary Le livre de Marie and Hail Mary Je vous salue Marie 1985 by Anne Marie Mi ville and Jean Luc Godard that figure a self reproducing virgin who hears herself while remaining a virgin unseen

Dead Blondes and Bad Mothers Sady Doyle,2019-08-13 Kirkus Reviews Best Book of the Year This witty engaging analysis of female monsters in pop culture offers provocative and incisive commentary on society's fear of female rage and power Soraya Chemaly author of Rage Becomes Her Women have always been seen as monsters Men from Aristotle to Freud have insisted that women are freakish creatures capable of immense destruction Maybe they are And maybe that's a good thing Sady Doyle hailed as smart funny and fearless by the Boston Globe takes readers on a tour of the female dark side from the biblical Lilith to Dracula's Lucy Westenra from the T Rex in Jurassic Park to the teen witches of The Craft She illuminates the women who have shaped our nightmares Serial killer Ed Gein's domineering mother Augusta exorcism casualty Anneliese

Michel who starved herself to death to quell her demons author Mary Shelley who dreamed her dead child back to life These monsters embody patriarchal fear of women and illustrate the violence with which men enforce traditionally feminine roles They also speak to the primal threat of a woman who takes back her power In a dark and dangerous world Dead Blondes and Bad Mothers asks women to look to monsters for the ferocity we all need to survive Some people take a scalpel to the heart of media culture Sady Doyle brings a bone saw a melon baller and a machete Andi Zeisler author of We Were Feminists Once

Are You In The House Alone? Amanda Reyes, 2017-04-05 Beginning in the 1960s through its heyday in the 1970s and beyond the telefilm remains an important cultural artefact masquerading as disposable entertainment Made specifically for the small screen within the tight constraints of broadcasting standards what these humble movies lacked in budget and star appeal they made up for in other ways Often they served as an introduction to genre films particularly horror mirroring their theatrical counterparts with a focus on sinister cults women in prison haunted houses and even animals in revolt They were also a place to address serious contemporary issues drugs prostitution sexual violence and justice albeit in a cosy domestic environment Production of telefilms continues to this day but their significance within the history of mass media remains under discussed Are You in the House Alone seeks to address this imbalance in a series of reviews and essays by fans and critics alike It looks at many of the films the networks and names behind them and also specific genres everything from Stephen King adaptations to superheroes to true life dramas So kickback and crack open the TV guide once more for the event that is the Movie of the Week
