What is anthology?

An anthology is a compilation of literary works such as poetry, short stories, essays, or other written works.

Types of Anthologies

Thematic Anthologies

Thematic anthologies are organized around a central theme or subject, such as love, war, or the human experience. These collections bring together works from various authors and time periods, offering readers a broad exploration of the chosen topic.

Author-Based Anthologies

Author-based anthologies focus on the works of a single writer or a group of writers, such as a literary movement or a particular cultural background. These collections allow readers to delve into an author's body of work or explore the connections between the writings of a specific group.

Genre-Based Anthologies

Genre-based anthologies compile works from a particular literary genre, such as poetry, short stories, or essays. These collections introduce readers to the characteristics and conventions of a genre and provide a sampling of its most notable examples.

contracts and talismans With these family collections Kathryn Babayan tells a new history of the city at the transformative moment it became a cosmopolitan center of imperial rule Bringing into view people s lives from a city with no extant state or civic archives Babayan reimagines the archive of anthologies to recover how residents shaped their communities and crafted their urban religious and sexual selves Babayan highlights eight residents from king to widow painter to religious scholar poet to bureaucrat who anthologized their city writing their engagements with friends and family divulging the many dimensions of the social cultural and religious spheres of life in Isfahan Through them we see the gestures manners and sensibilities of a shared culture that configured their relations and negotiated the lines between friendship and eroticism These entangled acts of seeing and reading desiring and writing converge to fashion the refined urban self through the sensual and the sexual and give us a new and enticing view of the city of Isfahan Writing the West, 1750-1947 C. Vijayasree,2004 This Volume Explores How The West Has Been Written Into Indian Literary Texts And Other Cultural Productions The Twelve Essays Included Here Written By Literary Critics Cultural Historians And Film Theorists Examine Patterns In India S Perception And Creative Representation Of The West Each Focusing On A Specific Linguistic Context Asamiya Bangla Hindi Oriya Telugu And Urdu Besides Indian Writing In English Though Dealing With Different Regions And Languages Most Of These Papers Demonstrate The Limits Contemporary Postcolonial Theorizations And Urge The Need For A Reconceptualization Of The Theories Of Colonial Encounter In Order To Account For The Ways In Which India Imagined And Imaged The West And Its Civilization The Anthology of Italian-Canadian Writing Joseph Pivato,1998 The more than fifty authors represented come from across Canada and have backgrounds in all regions of Italy If All the World Were Paper Tyler W. Williams,2024-10-01 How do writing and literacy reshape the ways a language and its literature are imagined If All the World Were Paper explores this question in the context of Hindi the most widely spoken language in Southern Asia and the fourth most widely spoken language in the world today Emerging onto the literary scene of India in the mid fourteenth century the vernacular of Hindi quickly acquired a place alongside classical languages like Sanskrit and Persian as a medium of literature and scholarship The material and social processes through which it came to be written down and the particular form that it took as illustrated storybooks loose leaf textbooks personal notebooks and holy scriptures played a critical role in establishing Hindi as a language capable of transmitting poetry erudition and even revelation If All the World Were Paper combines close readings of literary and scholastic works with an examination of hundreds of handwritten books from precolonial India to tell the story of Hindi literature s development and reveal the relationships among ideologies of writing material practices and literary genres Tyler W Williams forcefully argues for a new approach to the literary archive demonstrating how the ways books were inscribed organized and used can tell us as much about their meaning and significance as the texts within them This book sets out a novel program for engaging with the archive of Hindi and of South Asian languages more broadly at a moment when much of that archive faces existential threats Writing As

Intermediary Korn, Lorenz ,Metzler, Berenike,2022-12-20 For the cultural history of the Islamic World writing has long been recognized as a highly important form of art as calligraphy has traditionally held a particular place in the perception of Islamic elites and their artistic practices The culture of calligraphy was intimately connected with the production of prestigious book manuscripts but reached a climax in the creation of single leaf calligraphies that were also highly appreciated by collectors in centres of Islamic culture from the Ottoman Mediterranean to post Timurid Central Asia Safavid Iran and Mughal India At the same time writing by its very nature fulfilled its age old functions of encoding verbal language as text The present volume approaches the variegated aspects of writing fathoming its ambiguous character between text and image It contains ten contributions that originated from a conference held at the University of Bamberg in 2019 These studies range from text image relations in precious manuscripts through the use of Chinese decorated paper for artistic book production the training of calligraphers and the process of design to the iconic character of writing in the layout of books single leaf works of calligraphy iconic writing in contemporary art to more theoretical considerations on aesthetic perception

Encyclopedia of the Essay Tracy Chevalier,2012-10-12 This groundbreaking new source of international scope defines the essay as nonfictional prose texts of between one and 50 pages in length The more than 500 entries by 275 contributors include entries on nationalities various categories of essays such as generic such as sermons aphorisms individual major works notable writers and periodicals that created a market for essays and particularly famous or significant essays The preface details the historical development of the essay and the alphabetically arranged entries usually include biographical sketch nationality era selected writings list additional readings and anthologies Aqa Gcse English Literture 1914 Poetry Paul Burns,Jan Edge,2007-02 Navigator Dimensions Year 5: Teaching Guide Lockwood,2005-05-09 Women Writing in India: The twentieth century Susie J. Tharu,Ke Lalita,1991 These ground breaking collections offer 200 texts from eleven languages never before available in English or as a collection along with a new reading of cultural history that draws on contemporary scholarship on women and India This extraordinary body of literature and important documentary resource illuminates the lives of Indian women through 2 600 years of change and extends the historical understanding of literature feminism and the making of modern India The biographical critical and bibliographical headnotes in both volumes supported by an introduction which Anita Desai describes as intellectually rigorous challenging and analytical place the writers and their selections within the context of Indian culture and history The Familiar Essay, Romantic Affect and Metropolitan Culture Simon Peter Hull,2018-06-11 Through close readings of diverse examples by Lamb De Quincey Hazlitt Irving and Poe this book argues that the familiar essay in the Romantic period embodies a quintessentially metropolitan mode of affect The generic traits of the essay astuteness of observation an ambulatory or paratactic movement of thought and an urbane tone of wry or ironic humour all predispose it to the expression of a detached non pathological state of mind This is a mind conditioned by the quickened pace assorted humanity and plenitude of spectacle which characterise urban and urbanised life

In making a valuable genre based contribution to scholarship on the importance to Romantic studies of the city and metropolitan culture the traditional concept of Romantic affect is reassessed The book proposes a more complex and varied model than the simple binary one of a feeling reaction to Enlightenment reason Partly enacted within its own formal parameters and partly through its disruptive and genre transcending progeny the essayistic figure the familiar essay articulates a blithe and at times shocking and provocative discourse of an affect or a strategically and often satirical callousness Therefore the overall concept of affect in this period needs to be understood not as a unified entity opposed to Enlightenment reason but a dialogue between concurrent opposing modes played out against a dichotomized geo cultural landscape of the country and the city Essayistic un affect emerges in the end as an apolitical phenomenon a primary vehicle for the essayist s inherent scepticism sometimes enabling outright ridicule and at other times a tentative questioning or probing of both orthodox thought and emerging ideas from the rarefied liberalist sensibility of the Lake poets to the hubristic vanity of the colonial adventurer and from the allure of hedonistic Old World decadence to the proscriptive strictures of moralistic art
