Language, Literacy and Communication in the Early Years Carol Hayes,2025-02-28 This book guides students and practitioners through the wealth of information on cognition and language development by breaking the area down into manageable chunks and drawing these together into a full understanding of the holistic nature of child development Children with communication difficulties are at risk of poor outcomes educationally socially and in employability Whilst there may be a range of interventions which can help children it is the practice of those working with them that is the key to success Therefore a firm understanding of communication development and the ability to adapt teaching to support children s individual needs are vital The text offers a balanced approach to the theories and research into the development and acquisition of language and literacy in the early years It examines how practice can be improved and the impact that language and literacy development has on learning outcomes It also importantly addresses the particular pedagogy related to bilingual and multilingual learners Carefully structured activities are provided and the text clearly relates theory to practice Pedagogical features encourage a questioning challenging and reflective approach promoting critical thinking throughout

Rewards through Resilience Steven W. Sanders,2023-12-05 Struggle is a real world phenomenon particularly if we want to make a difference in our lives and the lives of others The struggles we face can be as routine as dealing with the traffic to get to our place of work on time We may also struggle with physical or mental illness a family dynamic that is not improving or a difficult job In extreme cases some must live through oppression and life threatening events brought on by an oppressive regime Struggle is an effort to gain freedom from constraints to withstand or overcome obstacles or to work against competing forces in order to make a meaningful change or difference Whether we encounter frequent struggles or only a few we all must face them not necessarily by choice We are aware of the pain and difficulties associated with struggles as well as the feeling of gratification and relief when we withstand outlast or overcome them We learn from struggles together with building strength of character and resilience the next time we encounter similar challenges How we engage and overcome struggles shapes our attitudes and perspectives regarding our lives and our ability to make a difference in the lives of others
