

20. What is the advantage of a map that shows only a small portion of the Earth's surface - like a neighborhood?

Can provide extensive details about one place.

21. Explain the 3 different ways scale can be explained on a map.

a. Ratio 1:1000

b. Written 1 centimeter = 1 mile

c. Graphic (bar line)

22. What advantage does a map that shows the entire globe have?

Can communicate processes and trends that affect everyone

23. When geographers convert the round Earth to a flat map, they use a projection. All projections have some distortion (only a globe has none). List the four things that typically become distorted in various projections and explain the distortion.

Shape - can become elongated or squat

Distance - increased or decreased between two points

Relative Size - can appear smaller or larger than reality

Direction - can be distorted from one place to another

24. Two important projections are the Mercator and the Robinson. Complete the chart below to compare their advantages and disadvantages.

	Robinson	Mercator
Advantages	Good for displaying info. across oceans	Shape is hardly distorted; direction is consistent; map is rectangular
Disadvantages	Try giving space to oceans, land areas are much smaller	Area is distorted at the poles making them look larger or smaller than reality

Geographic Grid

25. Using the map provided, draw and label the following: meridian, longitude, prime meridian, equator

Russell,José-Miguel Fernández-Dols,Anthony S.R. Manstead,Jane C. Wellenkamp,2013-06-29 In Everyday Conceptions of Emotion prominent anthropologists linguists and psychologists come together for the first time to discuss how emotions are conceptualised by people of different cultures and ages speaking different languages Anger fear jealousy and emotion itself are concepts that are bound up with the English language embedded in a way of thinking acting and speaking At the same time the metaphors underlying such concepts are often similar across languages and children of different cultures follow common developmental pathways The book thus discusses the interplay of social and cultural factors that humans share in their development of an understanding of the affective side of their lives For researchers interested in emotion development of concepts and language cultural and linguistic influences on psychological processes Exploring the Dimensions of Human Sexuality Jerrold Greenberg,Clint Bruess,Sarah Conklin,2010-03-10 Exploring the Dimensions of Human Sexuality Fourth Edition addresses all aspects of sexuality biological spiritual psychological and sociocultural and presents the information both factually and impartially Throughout the text students will find an emphasis on health and well being based on the assumption that we are all sexual beings and that sexuality should be viewed in its totality Students are encouraged to explore the varied dimensions of human sexuality and see how each affects their own personal sexuality sexual health and sexual responsibility Strangers and Neighbours Jeremy Hayhoe, 2016-02-24 Though historians have come to acknowledge the mobility of rural populations in early modern Europe few books demonstrate the intensity and importance of short distance migrations as definitively as Strangers and Neighbours Marshalling an incredible range of evidence that includes judicial records tax records parish registers and the census of 1796 Jeremy Hayhoe reconstructs the migration profiles of more than 70 000 individuals from eighteenth century northern Burgundy In this book Hayhoe paints a picture of a surprisingly mobile and dynamic rural population More than three quarters of villagers would move at least once in their lifetime most of those who moved would do so more than once in many cases staying only briefly in each community Combining statistical analysis with an extensive discussion of witness depositions he brings the experiences and motivations of these many migrants to life creating a virtuoso reconceptualization of the rural demography of the ancien r gime

Responsibility, Privileged Irresponsibility and Response-ability Vivienne Bozalek, Michalinos Zembylas, 2023-07-23 This book uses the overlapping approaches of political care ethics and feminist posthumanism as a lens to focus on the notions of privileged irresponsibility responsibility and response ability within the context of higher education and as it pertains to the issues of colonialism decolonisation pandemics and the climate crisis The book will appeal to scholars in the field of higher education as well as to those in several other fields such as ecology gender studies sociology philosophy and political science Final Solutions Benjamin A. Valentino, 2013-01-14 Benjamin A Valentino finds that ethnic hatreds or discrimination undemocratic systems of government and dysfunctions in society play a much smaller role in mass killing and genocide than is commonly assumed He shows that the impetus for mass killing usually originates from a relatively small group of powerful leaders and is often carried out without the active support of broader society Mass killing in his view is a brutal political or military strategy designed to accomplish leaders most important objectives counter threats to their power and solve their most difficult problems In order to capture the full scope of mass killing during the twentieth century Valentino does not limit his analysis to violence directed against ethnic groups or to the attempt to destroy victim groups as such as do most previous studies of genocide Rather he defines mass killing broadly as the intentional killing of a massive number of noncombatants using the criteria of 50 000 or more deaths within five years as a quantitative standard Final Solutions focuses on three types of mass killing communist mass killings like the ones carried out in the Soviet Union China and Cambodia ethnic genocides as in Armenia Nazi Germany and Rwanda and counter guerrilla campaigns including the brutal civil war in Guatemala and the Soviet occupation of Afghanistan Valentino closes the book by arguing that attempts to prevent mass killing should focus on disarming and removing from power the leaders and small groups responsible for instigating and organizing the killing College Students in the United States Kristen A.
