Die Rückkehr der Ungleichheit Mike Savage, 2023-10-30 Immer mehr Vermögen liegt in immer weniger Händen Oder anders gesagt Die Reichen haben sich vom Rest der Gesellschaft entfernt und die Superreichen haben sich von den Reichen entfernt Die enorme Vermögensungleichheit bringt uns zurück in die Vergangenheit Sie listet so der renommierte Soziologe Mike Savage Zustand auf den wir dachten wir hätten überwunden dynastischen Elitismus Klientelismus und vererbte Privilegien Die ökonomische Ungleichheit verschärft so auch kulturelle soziale und politische Konflikte Und diese Entwicklungen untergraben letztlich die Grundlagen liberaler Demokratien den Glauben an Fortschritt für alle und das Vertrauen in die Fürsorge der politischen Gemeinschaft für ihre Mitglieder Die Rückkehr der Ungleichheit ist eine bahnbrechende Studie die durch ihre theoretische Breite und ihre historische Herangehensweise einen entscheidenden Beitrag zum Verständnis der Auswirkungen wachsender Ungleichheit leistet Darüber hinaus entwickelt Mike Savage in seinem hochaktuellen Buch Vorschläge wie wir den Herausforderungen begegnen können analytisch streng aber leidenschaftlich argumentierend

Street-Level Workers as Institutional Entrepreneurs Olivia Mettang, 2022-11-14 Introducing the institutional logics perspective to street level analysis this book examines how street level workers deal with the institutional logics that guide their organization whether they follow or challenge them While doing so the book develops a theoretical framework to study street level workers institutional agency within organizations from different institutional backgrounds The book conceptualizes street level workers as institutional entrepreneurs and presents an original process model to capture deinstitutionalization efforts in street level discourse This ordinal model accounts for embedded agency and institutional entrepreneurship as well as for more gradual moves towards deinstitutionalization through the hybridization of institutional logics The author tests the model empirically using interview data and discusses how street level workers diverge from the institutional logic of their organization in almost two thirds of their statements indicating a tendency towards institutional entrepreneurship The book finally combines two literature strands institutionalism and implementation research showing how street level workers may be perceived as institutional entrepreneurs This book will appeal to students scholars and researchers of political science public policy public administration and organizational studies as well as to practitioners and policy makers interested in a better understanding of institutional entrepreneurs street work and the institutional logics perspective International Tax Administration Jonathan Mendel, 2010 The biennial tax administration conference held by ATAX ninth conference was held in Sydney in April 2010 This edited volume of papers from the conference is organized into the three key themes of the conference Back cover Student Transitions from Further Education to University Melanie Beckett, 2024-08-27 This book presents the life stories and lived experiences of 12 individuals who transitioned from the sixth form of a further education college in a traditionally working class area of the UK to higher education The author employs narrative inquiry in order to explore the participants unique perspectives Theoretically Bourdieu s concepts of field and habitus are used to explain how these undergraduates adapted to their new circumstances which in turn altered their ways of thinking and behaving The book examines the impact of class on student transition as well as offering insights into why further education warrants renewed focus and concludes with a set of recommendations for both policy and practice Handbook of Teaching and Learning in Tourism Pierre Benckendorff, Anita Zehrer, 2017-01-27 This comprehensive Handbook provides an international perspective on contemporary issues and future directions in teaching and learning in tourism Key topics include assurance of learning development of skills learning in the field work integrated learning sustainability and critical studies internationalisation technology enabled learning links between teaching and research and graduate student supervision Within these topics attention is devoted to the discussion of curriculum pedagogy assessment students educators and trends and issues The Handbook provides a valuable resource for understanding teaching and learning theory and practice in tourism Enterprising Education in UK Higher Education Gary Mulholland, Jason Turner, 2018-11-08 The UK may be ranked as one of the best countries in the world to start a business but evidence from growing skills gaps and the decline in graduates entrepreneurial aspirations suggest that higher education may not be contributing as it should to the enterprise environment Enterprising Education in UK Higher Education brings together the challenges of embedding enterprise education in universities and colleges identifies current debates around their roles and explores research theory and practice to deliver roadmaps for innovative enterprise education This book provides solid and clear guidance to practitioners and academics who are starting their journey into enterprising education as well as those who are more experienced but understand that the traditional approaches limit the options of future graduates It collates the theory and practice of enterprise education in the UK higher education sector and business engagement with wider stakeholders Drawing on theory and best practice and illustrated with a wide range of the examples and cases it will provide invaluable guidance to researchers educators practitioners and policy makers Remaking Market Society Antonino Palumbo, Alan Scott, 2017-07-14 Neoliberalism has been one of the most hotly contested themes in academic and political debate over the last 30 years Given the global and persistent influence of neoliberal ideas on contemporary styles of governance social service provision and public policy this intensive interest is understandable At the same time the use of the term has become loose vague and over extended particularly in the extensive critical literature Rather than engage in further critique or in the reconstruction of the history of neoliberalism this volume seeks to bring analytical clarity to the ongoing debate Drawing inspiration from the work of the Hungarian economic historian Karl Polanyi Remaking Market Society combines critique original formulations and case studies to form an analytical framework that identifies the key instruments of neoliberal governance These include privatization marketization and liberalization The case studies examine the development of neoliberal instruments reform of the British civil service their refinement reform of higher education in England and Wales and their dissemination across national borders EU integration policies Rather than look back nostalgically on the post war welfare state settlement in the final chapter the authors ask why the coalitions that supported that settlement broke down in the face of the neoliberal reform movement This highly original work offers a distinctive transdisciplinary approach to political economy and therefore is an important read for students and academics who are interested in political economy as well as social theory and political philosophy Quarterly Review of Distance Education Michael Simonson, Anymir Orellana, 2023-12-01 The Quarterly Review of Distance Education is a rigorously refereed journal publishing articles research briefs reviews and editorials dealing with the theories research and practices of distance education The Quarterly Review publishes articles that utilize various methodologies that permit generalizable results which help guide the practice of the field of distance education in the public and private sectors The Quarterly Review publishes full length manuscripts as well as research briefs editorials reviews of programs and scholarly works and columns The Quarterly Review defines distance education as institutionally based formal education in which the learning group is separated and interactive technologies are used to unite the learning group Parenting Plan Evaluations Leslie Drozd, Michael Saini, Nancy Olesen, 2016-02-02 More so than in any other form of forensic evaluation mental health professionals who conduct parenting plan evaluations must have an understanding of the most current evidence in the areas of child development optimal parenting plans across various populations behavioral psychology family violence and legal issues to inform their opinions In addition family law judges and legal professionals require the best available evidence to support their decisions and positions Parenting Plan Evaluations has become the go to source for the most current empirical evidence in the field of child custody disputes Fully updated in this Second Edition the volume continues its focus on translating and implementing research associated with the most important topics within the family court It presents an organized and in depth analysis of the latest research and offers specific recommendations for applying these findings to the issues in child custody disputes Written by international experts in the field chapters cover the most important and complex issues that arise in family court such as attachment and overnight timesharing with very young children co parenting children with chronic medical conditions and developmental disorders domestic violence during separation and divorce alienation gay and lesbian co parents and relocation among others This volume assists forensic mental health professionals to proffer empirically based opinions conclusions and recommendations and assists family law judges and attorneys in evaluating the reliability of the information provided to the courts by mental health professionals in their reports and testimony Not just for forensic evaluators Parenting Plan Evaluations is a must read for legal practitioners family law judges and attorneys and other professionals seeking to understand more about the science behind parenting plan evaluations
