MLA Works Cited

Books, scholarly journal articles, and websites are the most common sources referenced in academic papers. All works cited entries should be double-spaced but should not skip spaces between entries. The first line of each entry is aligned along the left-hand margin, but all subsequent lines use a hanging indent. Entries appear in alphabetical order according to the author's last name. Below are the basic rules for citing sources in your works cited page.

MLA Core Elements

Various sources offer different types of information. However, all entries are built by consulting MLA's list of core elements. These elements create a specifically ordered list of features that are common amongst most sources. Simply follow the list, using the elements that are applicable, to create a new works cited entry.

Author. Title of Source. Title of container, other contributors, version, number, publisher, publication date, location.
