Words that Teem with Meening [sic] Jørgen Erik Nielsen, 1992 Words that Teem With Meaning Copenhagen Views on Lexicography General Catalogue of Printed Books British Museum. Department of Printed Books, 1969 If a Sermon Falls in the Forest-- William Henry Shepherd, 2002 Solidly grounded in contemporary biblical scholarship this fascinating volume analyzes each of the major New Testament writers Matthew Mark Luke John Paul and places their accounts of Jesus resurrection in the broader context of their entire output Shepherd carefully studies the literary historical theological anthropological and sociological dimensions that color each writer's unique view of the resurrection and examines how these passages may be read in various interpretive communities Each section also includes sample sermons that illustrate how a preacher might treat these texts for an actual congregation This is an excellent resource for pastors and an informative easy to read manual for anyone who wants a deeper understanding of the New Testament SCRIPTURE'S INTERPRETATION IS MORE THAN MAKING SCIENCE Martin Tamcke, 2020-01-01 The following articles were selected by colleagues of New Testament scholar Vasile Mihoc from Sibiu to honour his contributions to theological scholarship in Romania which places particular emphasis on the spiritual context of church life as a prerequisite for exegesis Das Buch vom Buch Marion Janzin, Joachim Güntner, 2007 Ein umfangreiches Kapitel präsentierte die Tendenzen an der Wende zum 21. book demonstrates that binding media have remained marginal in the publishing industry due to technological imperatives like planned obsolescence and commercial ones like replicability and standardization that run counter to these bespoke literary projects. Although many binding media and other hybrid publishing initiatives have perished they've left behind a wealth of material collecting and tracing the residues of these foreshortened projects. Ortega builds a fascinating history of hybrid publishing. Ultimately this essential account of contemporary book history highlights the way binding media help illuminate processes of cultural hybridization that have been instigated by the expediency of globalized digital technologies and transnational dynamics.

Hayek Bruce Caldwell, Hansjoerg Klausinger, 2022-11-25 A 2022 Economist Best Book of the Year. The definitive account of the distinguished economist's formative years. Few twentieth century figures have been lionized and vilified in such equal measure as Friedrich Hayek, economist, social theorist, leader of the Austrian school of economics and champion of classical liberalism. Hayek's erudite arguments in support of individualism and the market economy have attracted a devout following including many at the levers of power in business and government. Critics meanwhile cast Hayek as the intellectual forefather of neoliberalism and of all the evils they associate with that pernicious doctrine. In Hayek: A Life, historians of economics Bruce Caldwell and Hansj rg Klausinger draw on never before seen archival and family material to produce an authoritative account of the influential economist's first five decades. This includes portrayals of his early career in Vienna, his relationships in London and Cambridge, his family disputes and definitive accounts of the creation of The Road to Serfdom and of the founding meeting of the Mont Plerin Society. A landmark work of history and biography, Hayek: A Life is a major contribution both to our cultural accounting of a towering figure and to intellectual history itself.

Unauthorized Versions José Lanter, 2000 Certain moments in history, especially periods of cultural turmoil and political change, appear to be conducive to the writing of Menippean satire. Unauthorized Versions is the first integral study of Menippean satires written in Ireland in the three decades following the declaration of the Irish Free State in 1922. The book discusses works by Darrell Figgis, Eimar O'Duffy, Austin Clarke, Flann O'Brien and Mervyn Wall in the context of political and social developments, particularly relating to economic policy, the role of the Church and censorship. Mikhail Bakhtin defines Menippean satire as an unresolved dialogue between actual and/or implied voices designed to test a truth or philosophical idea. The Irish satirists of the first half of the twentieth century use medieval Ireland as a setting for addressing contemporary concerns or borrow characters from medieval Irish texts that they place in a modern context. Each satire thus creates a series of dialogues between the past and present between characters who represent opposing values and ideologies and between the older texts and their modern reworkings Unauthorized Versions reveals the double bind at the core of every Menippean satire Each writer discussed in the book expresses an awareness of the paradox of an author writing in the vacuum created by official censorship seeking to engage his audience in the dethroning of the very authorities by whom he is deprived of his audience By revealing his own ambiguous position the satirist knowingly subverts his own authority along with that of his opponents This study will appeal to students and scholars interested in Irish literature genre studies the reception of the Middle Ages and the relationship between literature and history Jos Lanters associate professor of classics at the University of Oklahoma will begin her position as associate professor of English at the University of Wisconsin Milwaukee in Fall 2000 She is author of Missed Understandings A Study of Stage Adaptations of the Works of James Joyce and coeditor of Troubled Histories Troubled Fictions Twentieth Century Anglo Irish Prose Irish satire in the twentieth century has awaited a critic as intelligent and well informed as Jose Lanters whose Unauthorized Versions nicely complements Vivian Mercier s pioneering efforts For several of the works she discusses Lanters here provides the only substantial criticism they have received to date Her approach combines sensitivity to form and expression with a constant attentiveness to historical context while her study is anchored in a lucid and suggestive use of Bakhtin Every library with an interest in Irish writing will want this book R Brandon Kershner Alumni Professor of English University of Florida Lanters well argued volume will be a valuable resource for the study of modern Irish prose at the upper division undergraduate level and above Choice Works discussed in Unauthorized Versions Darrell Figgis The Return of the Hero Eimar O Duffy King Goshawk and the Birds The Spacious Adventures of the Man in the Street Asses in Clover Austin Clarke The Bright Temptation The Singing Men at Cashel The Sun Dances at Easter Flann O Brien At Swim Two Birds The Third Policeman Mervyn Wall The Unfortunate Fursey The Return of Fursey A History of Intellectual Property in 50 Objects Claudy Op den Kamp, Dan Hunter, 2019-06-20 This volume brings together a group of contributors from varied backgrounds to tell a history of intellectual property in 50 objects Toward an Embodied Decolonial Pneumatology Toar Banua Hutagalung, 2024-04-17 Everyone wants to be and to feel at home Yet being homely requires a space or place where one can admit feeling familiar with and the surroundings can accept the person What does it mean then to be in a liminal space where one is considered not this or not that In Toward an Embodied Decolonial Pneumatology Dishoming Space Toar Banua Hutagalung tries to analyze this existential question through a postcolonial decolonial approach One thing that is responsible for such liminal spaces is colonialism itself Colonialism through its multiple elements such as biopolitics racism and sexuality became a formation that looks like a home but is a site of oppression Nevertheless the author argues that liminality is not just a site of rejection By addressing a case from the formation of Indonesian nationality as well as taking a closer hermeneutical look at Indonesian literature the author contends that liminality conveys decolonial acts Integrating an interdisciplinary approach from postcolonial decolonial studies theological anthropology and pneumatology the author asserts that the Holy Spirit always dwells and moves continuously in liminal spaces It pulsates within the capillaries of every person to fight against colonial legacies With such a decolonial pulse from the presence of the Spirit one can re member and recreate what home means Apocalyptic Imagination in the Gospel of Mark Elizabeth E.
