Promoting more responsible action in relation to business sustainability, this book addresses the increasing discomfort among faculty members and wider society as to how business schools prepare students for the future. Reflective and inspiring, it seeks to motivate the necessary action which may be a small but crucial catalyst to solving challenges posed by increasing globalisation, migration, economic development, changing demographics and cultural exchange. Handbook of Research on Trends in European Higher Education Convergence Dima, Alina Mihaela, 2014-04-30 With an increase in global competition among universities and national higher education systems, educational programs desire to offer compatible content without losing their competitive advantage. Because of this balance, the issue of convergence along with its benefits and limits has emerged. The Handbook of Research on Trends in European Higher Education Convergence aims to identify the indicators that meet the consensus of the academic community and higher education management experts. Analyzing the recognized trends within the publication and concluding which measures should be taken to improve convergence pace and avoid potential pitfalls, this reference book is a useful resource for academics and students as well as specialists, policy makers and professionals connected with the educational sector. ICCS 2022 Hermann Josef Abs, Katrin Hahn-Laudenberg, Daniel Deimel, Johanna F.
