Transformation von Ungleichheitsregimes Bernhard Leubolt, 2014-09-24 Bernhard Leubolt arbeitet mittels des strategisch relationalen Institutionalismus den historischen Einfluss von Ungleichheitsregimes auf aktuelle gleichheitsorientierte Politik heraus Brasilien ist gepr gt von der langen Fortdauer der Sklaverei und einer anschlie enden konservativen Modernisierung Seit den 1980er Jahren gibt es Bestrebungen zur Reduktion der Ungleichheiten die durch neoliberale Reformen konterkariert wurden Nach der Amts bernahme Pr sident Lulas wurde statt des Neoliberalismus ein sozialer Entwicklungsstaat etabliert S dafrika wurde hingegen durch ein formell rassistisches Ungleichheitsregime gepr gt Nach der Demokratisierung etablierte sich mit dem ANC die wichtigste Widerstandsbewegung als Regierungspartei Er beseitigte zwar staatlichen Rassismus konnte die hohen Ungleichheitsraten aber kaum reduzieren Im Fazit verweist Leubolt auf Erfolge und Widerspr che gleichheitsorientierter Politik In the Shadow of Good Governance Gerhard

Anders, 2009-10-26 In the Shadow of Good Governance traces the implementation of the good governance agenda in Malawi from the loan documents signed by the representatives of the government and the Bretton Woods institutions to the individual experiences of civil servants who responded in unforeseen ways to the reform measures Ethnographic evidence gathered in government offices neighbourhoods and the private homes of civil servants living in Malawi s urban and peri urban areas undermines the common perception of a disconnect between state institutions and society in Africa Instead the book presents a comprehensive analysis of civil servants attempts to negotiate the effects of civil service reform and economic crisis at the turn of the 21st century The Politics of the Right Leo Panitch, Greg Albo, 2015-12-22 Today the Left faces new challenges from political forces amassing on the radical right The 52nd volume of the Socialist Register presents a serious calibration and a careful political mapping of these forces It addresses pivotal questions on the reordering of the new right These essays very broad in terms of themes and places speak to the global challenges the new right poses for the left at this historical moment What is the nature of the right s populism nationalism and militarism What is the social base and organizational strength and range of far right political forces To what extent are they influencing mainstream parties and opinion How have they penetrated state institutions What role do state security services and police forces play Does our political situation today require comparison with 1930s Fascism How should the left respond to defend democratic and human rights

Trade Politics Brian Hocking, Steven McGuire, 2019-01-15 Trade has always been an intensely political activity Its conduct determines the well being of entire national communities and expansion of trade since the Second World War has been one of the major engines of world economic growth In this new fully updated edition leading experts from around the world provide a comprehensive overview of the politics of international trade in the twenty first century The book explains the changing political environment in which trade policy is shaped the core political issues the future trade agenda and the role of the key actors Subjects covered include transatlantic trade relations regional trading agreements in Asia Europe North America and Latin America how trade affects developing countries the politics of the World Trade Organization key policy areas such as agriculture competition and intellectual property the role of firms and governments in international trade how trade impacts on human rights and the environment

Twenty Years of Studying Democratization Aurel Croissant, Jeffrey Haynes, 2015-06-05 Democratization emerged at a time of epochal change in global politics the twin impacts of the end of the Soviet Union and the speeding up and deepening of globalisation in the early 1990s meant a whole new ball game in terms of global political developments The journal s first issue appeared in early 1994 Over time the editorial position has been consistently to focus on the third wave of democracy and its aftermath The third wave is the most recent exemplar of a long term historical trend towards more democratically viable regimes and away from authoritarian systems and leaders In short the journal wants to promote a better understanding of democratization defined as the way democratic norms institutions and practices evolve and are disseminated both within and across national and cultural boundaries Over the years the many excellent articles that we have featured in the journal have shared our focus on democratization viewed as a process The journal has sought and continues to seek to build on the enduring scholarly and of course popular interest in democracy how and why it emerges develops and becomes consolidated Our emphasis over the last 20 years has been contemporary and the approach comparative with a strong desire to be both topical and authoritative We include special reference to democratization in the developing world and in post communist societies In sum just as 20 years ago the journal today aims to encourage debate on the many aspects of democratization that are of interest to policy makers administrators and journalists aid and development personnel those involved in education and perhaps above all the tens of millions of ordinary people around the world who do not yet enjoy the benefits of living under democratic rule The two dozen articles collected in this virtual special issue are emphatic proof of the power of the written word to induce debate uncertainty and ultimately progress towards better forms of politics focused on the achievement of the democratic aspirations of men and women everywhere

A New Paradigm of the African State M. Muiu, G. Martin, 2009-01-05 Offers a historical multidisciplinary perspective on African political systems and institutions ranging from Antiquity Egypt Kush and Axum to the present with particular focus on their destruction through successive exogenous processes including the Atlantic slave trade imperialism colonialism and neo colonialism or globalization

Nationalism and National Projects in Southern Africa Ndlovu-Gatsheni, Sabelo J., Ndhlovu, Finex, 2013 Despite the fact that nationalism and its national projects have in recent years been severely criticised by postcolonial theorists for being fundamentalist and essentialist by feminists for being patriarchal and exclusive by global financial institutions for being antagonistic to development and globalisation by Pan Africanists for being anticontinental unity and by those Africans born after decolonisation for being irrelevant Sabelo J Ndlovu Gatsheni and Finex Ndhlovu's book convincingly argues that nationalism has defied its death and displayed remarkable resilience and resonance Since the end of the Cold War what has been poignant has been the enduring contest tensions and contradictions between the growth of various forms of transnationalism on the one hand and a resurgence of territorial as well as other narrow and xenophobic forms of nationalism on the other In this important book Ndlovu Gatsheni and Ndhlovu provide new critical reflections on nationalism and its national projects in southern Africa covering South Africa Zimbabwe and the Democratic Republic of Congo DRC a member of SADC The national question is interrogated from different disciplinary vantage points to reveal how it impinges on contemporary challenges of nation building development devolution of power language questions and citizenship on the one hand and ethnicity nativism and xenophobia on the other

The International Relations of Sub-Saharan Africa Ian Taylor, 2010-04-01 This title examines Sub Saharan Africa's relations with states such as the US India China the EU and Britain as well as with non state actors The International Relations of Sub Saharan Africa is an in depth examination Africa's place in global politics The book provides a comprehensive and critical appraisal of the ways in which peace prosperity and democracy are being advanced or restricted by the activities of the great powers in Africa including non state actors as well as who benefits from these policies and who does not The book is a needed comparative study of the role of great powers and new actors such as China and India in Africa within the wider context of neo liberal hegemony It fills a gap in the literature and will be of interest to any student of the continent Its focus on external actors contributes to providing a fuller picture of Africa's place in the global political economy and how the continent interacts with the rest of the world This is an essential work for anyone researching issues in international relations comparative foreign policies and African politics

Peacebuilding Paradigms Henry F. Carey, 2020-12-17 Peacebuilding is explained by combining interpretive frameworks paradigms that have evolved from the subfields of international relations and comparative politics Development's Displacements Peter Vandergeest, Pablo Idahosa, Pablo S. Bose, 2010-10-01 As multilateral agencies social movements and state authorities worldwide struggle to cope with the effects of large scale development projects such as dam building mining oil extraction forest plantations and nature conservation the problem of displacement remains unresolved The crisis of development refugees those forced to relocate not by wars or political conflicts but rather because of development policies programs and projects is becoming increasingly prevalent across the globe While existing studies on development induced displacement have focused on issues such as resettlement and compensation for those displaced this volume seeks to address displacement as a broad and multilayered phenomenon A series of illustrative case studies drawn from around the globe provide causal accounts of why and how displacement occurs what its effects on communities ecosystems and economies look like and the normative or ethical positions held by key actors involved Contributors offer economic political and cultural analyses as well as extensive ethnographic field research to present a picture of displacement that illustrates the depth and the breadth of the issue

Reconstructing the Third Wave of Democracy Rita Kiki Edozie, 2008-12-12 Since the 1990s trends in African politics require the realization that the public policy practice and the theoretical analysis of democracy and democratization are becoming increasingly important tenets for understanding the contemporary political science of the region Reconstructing the Third Wave of Democracy explains these new political processes and ideas Author Rita Kiki Edozie identifies factors that Africans have encountered since the foundation of the modern African state and presents a critical analysis of African politics through the lenses of post colonial discourse by uniquely employing the ideas of democratic theory to guide an analysis of the Continent's democratic development and performance Edozie presents an intra regional comparative analysis of democratic politics in Africa in ways that few books on the same subject do for the continent Her methodology for examining democracy in Africa reveals the dynamism of several country cases and several more regime experiences with democracy encountered from the post World War II period to the current post Cold War period Critical Perspectives on Politics and Socio-Economic Development in Ghana, 2003-04-01 This volume provides a comprehensive and integrated analysis of Ghanaian politics economy and society outlining tensions dilemmas and prospects that the country has to contend with The chapters critically examine the performance and prospects of democratic institutions and processes responses to and impact of economic policies and programs and how culture intersects with the preceding developments to shape socio economic and political institutions and practices The collection is divided into four thematic sections Politics the State and Democratic Consolidation Economic Crisis and Neo Liberal Reforms Responses and Implications Indigenous Institutions and the Shaping of Development Culture Indigenous Knowledge and Development It combines rich recent empirical material with sophisticated theoretical analyses and brings unique interdisciplinary perspectives to bear on the issues examined Contributors include Bruce J Berman Joseph R A Ayee Wisdom J Tettey Senyo Adjibolosoo Korba P Puplampu Peter Arthur

Edna D Djokoto Asem Kobena T Hanson Baffour K Takyi Isaac Addai Donald I Ray Louis Awanyo Charlotte Kesson Smith Henry M Codjoe George J Sefa Dei and Kwamena Kwansah Aidoo Dictators, Dictatorship and the African Novel
Robert Spencer, 2021-03-01 This book examines the representation of dictators and dictatorships in African fiction It examines how the texts clarify the origins of postcolonial dictatorships and explore the shape of the democratic egalitarian alternatives The first chapter explains the neoliberal period after the 1970s as an effective recolonization of Africa by Western states and international financial institutions Dictatorship is theorised as a form of concentrated economic and political power that facilitates Africa s continued dependency in the context of world capitalism The deepest aspiration of anti colonial revolution remains the democratization of these authoritarian states inherited from the colonial period This book discusses four novels by Ng g wa Thiong o Ahmadou Kourouma Chinua Achebe and Chimamanda Ngozi Adichie in order to reveal how their themes and forms dramatize this unfinished struggle between dictatorship and radical democracy
